ART, NATURE WEDDED IN LAKE FETE

Perfect Moon Adds to the Glamor of Scene of Enchanting Beauty As Great Crows Gaze on Big Fleet

Senses, Lulled by Romance of Old Spain, Awaken to Marvel at Sky-Flung Brilliance of Fireworks

Following is the program of events of the Dons of Peralta celebration for today and tomorrow:

TODAY

Eastbay Manufacturers' Exposition, Idora Park, all day and this evening.

Better Baby Show, Idora Park, 2 o'clock.

Grand Court Ball, crowning of king and queen of Obapesla, municipal auditorium, 8:30 o'clock.

TOMORROW

Eastbay Manufacturers' Exposition, Idora Park, all day and evening.

Opening football season, California field, U. C. vs. St. Mary's, 2 o'clock.

"The Days of Peralta" dramatic pageant, Greek theater, 8 o'clock.

Moonlight, soft music and the reflections of a myriad of colored lights shimmering on the waters—a captivating combination of beauty and a strange drug to the emotions. That is La Fiesta de la Laguna.

With a moon such as that which presided over the festivities of the Dons of Peralta last night, and Lake Merritt all a-shimmer with dancing lights, no festival could fall short of its purpose. But in addition to these natural charms, the arts and devices which the Dons added in the way of embellishment assured the first Eastbay community water pageant of the distinction of being the grandest thing of its kind seen in Oakland.

How many people were there it is impossible to say. A hundred thousand, perhaps, or possibly twice that number. Lake Merritt was rimmed with a happy throng.

From the chorus of voices which rose to the crescendo with the upward rush of the skyrockets, exploded sympathetically with a gigantic sigh, and then trickled in diminuendo with the showering sparks, it is clear the fireworks at least went over with a bang.

ANDALUSIAN ARTISTRY MARKS PHANTOM FLEET.

Steering a course back through several hundred years of history, the phantom fleet arrived an hour and a half behind schedule, which is close enough, considering the nature of the expedition. The pageant, strangely enough, was achieved with a genuine Andalusian artistry worthy of the Peralta name. Ten artfully contrived barges and historic vessels formed the convoy, while a half-hundred fantastically decorated small boats and canoes scudded here and there over the kaleidoscopic surface of the lake.

King Neptune and an attractive company of mermaids were drawn over the water in a seashell coach by a spike team of white sea horses, and the king of the sea with his retinue received the greatest praise from those on shore. The Spanish, English, Chinese and other ships were reproduced with accuracy enough to preserve the spectacle. Another magnificent float was that of the de facto king and queen of Obapesla, Woodson Ross and Eleanor Beason.

The entire fleet swinging slowly through a great arc on the lake, standing out in silhouette against the lights on shore and with pencil of light from a huge searchlight piercing the darkness high overhead, made a picture that will dwell in the memory.

WHISKERINOS ADD TO MERRIMENT.

Occasionally the deep throb of a bass horn was born from the direction of the municipal auditorium, where the whiskerinos were holding forth in festive glee. The Forty-niners from Sacramento brought two bands with them when they came to town to take part in the festivities of the Dons of Peralta, and a merry old hoe-down was held on the roof of the auditorium during intermissions of the water pageant.

Several novelties in a pyrotechnical way were exhibited from Adams Point, and on one occasion the spectators gave one big gasp as the center of the lake was converted into a veritable eruption of stars and sparks. Then a device in the view of all began to sputter and revolve, and it seemed that everyone present was spelling out loud as if reading moving picture captions, O-B-A-P-E-S-L-A.

The most picturesque portion of La Fiesta de la Laguna took place yesterday afternoon and evening when the Whiskerinos arrived and the marine show was held at Lake Merritt. News photographs of these events will be found on the first page of the magazine section of this edition of The TRIBUNE.

Objectives of Blackmailer

GLORIA SWANSON and MARSHALL NEILAN, screen stars, who are mentioned as intended victims in suspected blackmail plot under probe in Los Angeles.

STARS TARGET IN BLACKMAIL PLOT

Gloria Swanson and Marshall Neilan Mentioned As Intended Victims.

BY UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—The district attorney's office investigated today what is believed to be a plot to blackmail a number of prominent movie stars, including Marshall Neilan and Gloria Swanson.

While no names involved were made public, District Attorney Asa Keyes admitted that such a probe was on foot. It is said to have been the result of complaints made by Marshall Neilan and Mrs. Adeline L. Burns, mother of Gloria Swanson, that a former employee of Mrs. Burns had tried to extort money from Gloria and from Neilan on the threat to make public false charges against them, and also demanded that Neilan give him a large salaried job in pictures.

POLICE ACCUSED IN WAR FOR CHILD

Father's Suit Charges Inspector With Unwarranted Use of Force.

Three-year-old Eugenia Merritt is the storm center in a sensational suit which her father, Edwin H. Merritt, has filed against his wife, Lillian Merritt of Los Angeles, in which W. S. Kyle, night captain of the Oakland police is charged with "unwarranted and unlawful use of physical force" in restoring the child to its mother's custody on September 23 of this year. Merritt seeks the custody of his daughter after declaring that his wife is pursuing the night life in Los Angeles. No divorce action is mentioned.

The Merritts were married in Houston, Texas, on July 31, 1919. In July, 1922, Mrs. Merritt fled from her home, taking her baby girl with her. In January of this year Merritt located his wife in Los Angeles. She was occupying apartments at Hotel Seville. The child was being cared for by a sister and brother-in-law of Mrs. Merritt. The complaint recites that while the small girl was given sufficient food, she lacked proper clothing and a mother's loving care, having been practically abandoned by Mrs. Merritt.

With the consent of the aunt and her husband, Merritt admits that he brought his daughter to Oakland on April 25, taking her to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Betts, 1424 Fourth avenue, where she resided until September 23.

"With the connivance, consent, unwarranted and unlawful use of physical force by W. S. Kyle, inspector of police," the complaint declares, "Mrs. Merritt took the child away from the East Oakland address and returned to Los Angeles."

Merritt asks that the girl be given into his custody. He is employed by the Southern Pacific company.

According to Inspector Kyle, Mrs. Merritt, with Policeman William Schaeffer and the couple with whom the child was living c. to his office. None had knowledge that there existed a court order giving the baby to its father but all believed that no such judgment had been rendered.

"There is your baby. Why don't you take it," Kyle is quoted as saying.

EDDY WILL PROTEST TO RICHARDSON

Colonel of Guard Regiment Goes to Sacramento to Urge Payment of the Men Who Patrolled Fire Zone

Emergency Existed, He Asserts; Authorities Could Not Reach Governor or Borree to Obtain Action

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Declaring that he had made every possible effort to communicate with Governor Richardson or other state officials with authority at the time he called out the local national guardsmen during the Berkeley fire, Colonel A. J. Eddy, commander of the 159th regiment, left for Sacramento today to protest personally to Governor Richardson and Adjutant General J. J. Borree against their charge that he had "assumed unwarranted authority" in calling out the troops.

He was accompanied by City Attorney Lemuel D. Sanderson. The two plan to hold an immediate conference with the state officials regarding the refusal of the latter to sanction the calling out of the guardsmen and the payment for their services out of state funds.

SUBSCRIPTION STARTED TO PAY GUARDSMEN.

A subscription list was circulated here today to raise funds of approximately $1,000 with which to pay the 130 members of the guard, in the event that the state officials continue in their refusal to approve salary warrants for the troops.

In reply to Adjutant General Borree's charge that Colonel Eddy had no authority in the circumstances to act without his consent, or that of the governor, Eddy today declared that he had tried to reach Borree by long-distance telephone, and that he was unable to do so.

General Borree made his charge against Colonel Eddy yesterday in a statement issued at Sacramento. In the statement he declared that no emergency existed at the time the troops were called to patrol the burned area, and that Colonel Eddy had been guilty of "an unwarranted assumption of authority" in taking it upon himself to order them out.

EDDY CONTENDS EMERGENCY EXISTED.

As a result, Borree declared, Governor Richardson cannot give official recognition to the use of the militia in the Berkeley disaster, and the troops cannot be paid out of state funds.

"The attitude taken by General Borree is not a proper one to my way of thinking," declares Col. Eddy, who is also city engineer of Berkeley. "A terrible emergency existed in Berkeley on the day of the fire. I did not know of the plan to use troops until between 5 and 5:30 o'clock. I found the city manager, the chief of police and the mayor of Berkeley sending in calls to the Presidio, the Twelfth Naval District and to the R. O. T. C. at the university for help. This was no time in my opinion for the National Guard to lag behind so I issued the call for the Berkeley companies and one Oakland company. As soon as I issued this call I made a survey of the burned area to ascertain how big a job we had on our hands to patrol and I then put in a call to Sacramento to General Borree. I couldn't get him. His statement therefore that I did not seek to get in touch with him is not true. It seems to me that the least the state can do for Berkeley in its present misfortune is to pay for the services of the men who did such efficient work."

OTHERS TAKE ISSUE WITH GENERAL BORREE.

City Manager John N. Edy and City Attorney Lemuel Sanderson also take issue with the stand of the governor and adjutant general, both of whom were importuned to give legal sanction to the call for troops in resolutions adopted by the city council last Tuesday, and in other messages sent to the state capitol.

"An emergency most certainly did exist in Berkeley on the day of the fire and the National Guard very materially assisted in a serious situation," says Eddy. "I am sorry the men cannot be paid by the state. The city treasury is in such a depleted state itself, owing to the emergency calls which have been made upon it, that I cannot see where the money can be forthcoming."

That the state law governing the calling out of the militia gives the officials of any city the right to command the use of troops "in case of turmoil, uprising or other serious emergency," is the statement of City Attorney Sanderson.

TRIED TO GET IN TOUCH WITH GOVERNOR.

"Berkeley was entirely in a

GERMANY'S DICTATORS CHECK FOES

Berlin Government Believes Bavarian Authorities Can Subdue Hitler and His Followers Among Fascisti

Allied Diplomats Call Upon Stressemann, Indicating Ground Prepared for New Reparation Negotiations

BERLIN, Sept. 28 (By the Associated Press).—Chancellor Stresemann and the members of his cabinet are no less concerned today over the Bavarian situation than as to what the immediate future holds in store for the government with respect to the impending new adjustment of its foreign relations.

With Adolph Hitler and his "fascisti" following subdued for the moment the Berlin government is satisfied that the Bavarian authorities, in collaboration with the commander of the federal troops, will be able to control the situation there. The government reports indicated that normal conditions prevailed in Munich, Nuremburg, Augsbury and other points in Bavarian territory.

By CARL D. GROAT, United Press Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—Germany today was still jumpy and nervous, fearing a revolution around the corner.

Following yesterday's startling developments, in which the reich's government declared limited martial law throughout the nation to offset a similar declaration in Bavaria, the population lived in momentary expectation of an outbreak.

Military rule, if anything, tended to heighten the popular apprehension.

The people seemed to think that the terror of dissolution, which has lurked in the back of many German minds ever since the revolution which followed the armistice, was about to be realized.

Munich messages, however, so far have failed to justify the jumpiness of the population. It began to appear popular nervousness was greater than events so far, have justified.

MOVEMENT TO HALT BAVARIAN FASCISTI.

Indeed, as the day began, it was evident the Bavarian dictatorship of Dr. von Kahr, at least in its inception, certainly was not a meneuver to further separation of Bavaria from the reich or designed against the federal government.

Instead, events indicated, the Bavarian dictatorship was an iron-handed eleventh-hour move to halt the Bavarian fascisti, led by Herr Hitler, and supported by General Ludendorff, both of whom Von Kahr apparently hates as plotters behind the scenes.

Munich advices said Von Kahr was particularly determined that Ludendorff's constant plotting for restoration of the monarchy shall be defeated.

By S. D. MEYER, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—Allied diplomats called upon Chancellor Stresemann today, indicating that the ground was being prepared for new reparations negotiations.

The government's warning against any attempt at uprising has cowed both the Communists and Monarchists. No disorders had been reported up to noon, and officials were confident that its unconditional surrender to France would not lead to internal strife.

TROOPS HELD READY BY BAVARIA DICTATOR.

MUNICH, Bavaria, Sept. 28.—(By The Associated Press.)—Although quiet is reported to prevail throughout Bavaria Dr. von Kahr, the military dictator, has brought additional troops into Munich so as to be in readiness for any emergency.

The dictator has absolutely prohibited all assemblages of adherents of Adolph Hitler, the Fascisti leader, and has declared that he and General von Lossow purpose to maintain order in Bavaria and carry out to the full the instructions of the Bavarian government.

Premier von Knilling notified the Berlin government that Dr. von Kahr had been appointed to his present post owing to his influence with the nationalist organizations, and because the Bavarian government was convinced of his absolute loyalty. The Central government thereupon appointed General von Lossow as military commander in Bavaria and gave to him instructions to co-operate with Dr. von Kahr. Von Lossow has been in command of the Bavarian reichswehr.

JORDAN RESCUED FROM BLIZZARD

Secretary of State Safe at Home But Suffering From Exposure.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 28.—Suffering from exposure and shock, Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan returned here today with a graphic story of his escape from a blinding snowstorm which held him captive for two days in the mountain fastness of Sierra county, where he had gone with his Indian guide on a fishing trip.

Cut off from their supplies by a sudden rise of the waters of the west fork of the Yuba river, Jordan said that he and his guide were forced to fight their way fourteen miles through a terrific storm which obliterated the narrow trail leading from their retreat in Box canyon and made rapid progress impossible.

Chilled through but unable to kindle a fire because of the fury of the storm, the secretary of state said that they kept walking to maintain circulation even after they had lost the trail. After having been exposed to the full fury of the storm for more than eight hours they were found two miles from Forest City by miners who had heard of their plight and formed a rescue party.

Box canyon, where Jordan and his companion were trapped, has an elevation of 7000 feet and is difficult of access even under normal conditions.

RAGING TORRENT HOLDS UP RECOVERY OF DEAD FROM IMMERSED COACHES

Casper to Denver Passenger Falls Into Coal Creek; Floods in Wyoming Cause Fatal Mishap

TWO PULLMANS HOLD RAILS

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 28.—By 2 o'clock this afternoon, five bodies had been recovered as follows, from the wreck:

M. D. MONTGOMERY, Denver.

O. E. GAHNS, Denver.

MISS RILEY BROWN, Casper.

EVA BOYER, Glenrock, Wyoming.

JOHN CHRISTY, Glenrock.

Russell T. Gierhart of Denver, died of his injuries in a Casper hospital, according to the Post. The identified dead at that hour, therefore stood at six.

CASPER, Wyo., Sept. 28—(By Associated Press).—Between 40 and 50 persons perished in the wreck of Burlington passenger train No. 30 last night, it was estimated at 11:30 o'clock today on reports received from private and official sources. Out of 32 Pullman passengers, 28 are known to be safe.

It was stated by railroad officials at the scene of wreck at noon today that it would be impossible to remove the coaches from the creek to recover bodies until the waters recede. Reports that one coach had been raised were denied.

One railroad official at noon today placed his estimate of the dead at 25.

Hundreds of Casper and Glen Rock people lined the bank near the wreck this morning to watch the first efforts of the wrecking crew. It soon became known, however, that few if any bodies would be recovered before late today, due to the fact that the flood waters had not receded and slow progress was made in preparations to hoist the cars.

There is no check on the number of dead, the exact number of persons on the train being unknown. People reported as missing are known to have been on the train and who have not been accounted for by their friends. Not until bodies are recovered will the identity of the victims be learned definitely.

GRUESOME SIGHT REVEALED ON TRUCK.

The most gruesome sight witnessed at the scene of the wreck today was the body of a dead man sitting upright on the trucks of the baggage coach. The man had evidently been beating his way and probably met death by drowning.

The baggageman, D. E. Schultz of Casper, was thrown on the east bank of the creek when the car broke up in the crash and died later of injuries, both his legs were broken.

Reports from railroad offices here state that the bridge through which the train plunged had been inspected by a track walker a half hour before the wreck. At that time it appeared in good condition.

TERMINAL LINES TO SPEND BIG SUM

Paul Sinsheimer Outlines the Plans of Reorganization Before Rail Board.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—The San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways plan to spend upward of $4,500,000 in improvements and extensions, it became known today at the hearing before the State Railroad Commission on the application for permission to reorganize the company.

Paul Sinsheimer, vice-president of the company, outlined the reorganization plans and the aims of the company. He said his plan was to organize four corporations to carry out this reorganization. The corporations are to be: Key System Security Company, capital stock, $2,600,000.

Oakland Railway Company, capital stock $250,000.

Oakland and Hayward Railway Company, capital stock $250,000.

Key System Transit Company, capital stock $17,750,000.

Sinsheimer said it is the plan of the company to reduce the capitalization from $49,000,000 to $39,000,000. Among the improvements will be better ferry service and improved interurban service. Of the $4,500,000 to be spent on improvements $1,000,000 already has been spent for two ferryboats, recently purchased. The company also has ordered 55 new cars.

The hearing will continue throughout today and possibly tomorrow.

Car Swept Into Platte by Torrent

CASPER, Wyo., Sept. 28.—Burlington passenger train No. 30, bound for Denver, which plunged into Coal creek early last night, went into a raging torrent causing a loss of life estimated early this morning, at approximately forty persons drowned.

The roar of water over cars in stream could be heard for three miles. What ordinarily is a dry creek during the summer was suddenly swollen into a torrent by heavy rains of yesterday.

A track walker had inspected the culvert over Coal creek less than an hour before the Burlington passenger train was due. He reported everything all right, although the stream was rising.

About 9:10 p. m. the Denver train swept around a curve and plunged into the stream. Apparently the locomotive got clear across the culvert before it gave away under the weight of the weight of heavy train. Then it slipped back into the water and both engineer and fireman were killed.

One passenger car, buried in the stream, was swept 100 yards out into the Platte river, Wyoming's largest stream. It is believed that all occupants of this coach perished, because by the time rescuers could give any aid the water had completely buried the car as it turned over on its side. Platte river is more than a mile wide at a point near the wreck.

Probably only four sleeping car passengers lost their lives, by drowning. From 20 to 24 passengers were rescued from the top of the sleeper, which was partially submerged in the stream.

RESCUE WORK IS WORKED UNDER STRAIN.

Neither the Cheyenne nor Casper sleepers went into the stream. A rescue train from Casper arrived

Flood Waters of Wyoming Creek Take Toll From Passenger Cars.

at the scene of the wreck at 11 p. m., and immediately it was seen that the best chance of rescue was by means of a rope arrangement strung from the east bank. There were from 20 to 24 persons on top of the sleeper, all begging to be rescued.

The most thrilling portion of the rescue scene then ensued. A big cable rope obtained at the Big Muddy oil field was thrown over to the marooned sleeper.

With the headlight of the locomotive of the relief train playing on the scene, the slow process of rescue in this manner proceeded. Men, women and children went hand over hand from the sleeper to the east bank, a distance of more than 150 feet. Several times women lost one hand hold of the rope, only to regain their balance and save themselves from dropping into the sweeping waters.

RAIN STILL FALLING NEAR WRECK SCENE.

After their perilous trip across the water, several women fell into a dead faint and had to be carried to waiting cars. A man carried a baby in his arms from the marooned car to the bank and almost miraculously effected a rescue.

It was still raining at the scene of the wreck early this morning.

Aside from two dim railroad arc lights, there was not a light visible at the scene of the wreck and it was difficult to distinguish the location of the different cars in the stream or jammed up against the east bank.

It is believed that it will be 24 hours or more before many bodies can be taken from the submerged cars because of the high water. Most of those drowned may have been washed out of the cars because of the terrific current of the stream.

One of the lightest ticket sales in years was reported here by the Burlington railroad and it is believed that the final list of persons aboard the train will show not more than 70 missing.

Lloyd A. Jackson, an engineer, considers himself a lucky man today. Yesterday afternoon he refused to answer the call boy, stating that he did not want to take his regular run out of Casper because of the heavy rainfall and dangerous condition of the roadbed.

As a result Eugene Spangler, not the regular engineer for this run, took out the Denver train. He is reported among the missing and it is believed that he was killed in the wreck.

Four Passengers In Pullman Lost

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 28.—Names of four men missing, Pullman car passengers of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train No. 30, which plunged into a creek near Lockett, Wyo., last night were given as:

Wyoming Rivers Ravage Sheridan

SHERIDAN, Wyo., Sept. 28.—Swollen by terrific rains, the waters of Big Goose and Little Goose Creeks left their banks early this morning and dashed over wide sections of Sheridan. Scores of residents in the river bottom sections began packing their belongings preparatory to moving to places of safety. The water is standing one to three feet in various sections of town.

CAR TURNED ON END IN BOTTOM OF RIVER BED

Survivor of Wreck Tells of Experience; Passengers Fight for Life.

CASPER, Wyo., Sept. 28 (By International News Service).—Two survivors of the appalling wreck of Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train No. 30 gave the first graphic eyewitness stories of the sudden disaster which snuffed out 70 lives.

Daniel J. McQuaid, of Rochester, N. Y., salesman for an optical firm, struggled four miles through mud and rain to reach Big Muddy oil fields, and there gave word of the tragedy to the few inhabitants. McQuaid telephoned to his wife, who was in Denver, details of the wreck, declaring he had just escaped from the worst wreck in western railway history, but that he was not injured.

Harry Wyatt, the other survivor, who has told his story, did not give his address.

CAR TURNS OVER.

"I was in the Denver sleeping car," McQuaid said to his wife, "when the crash came. The car seemed to turn completely over and stand on end. I crawled out the door, which was only a few feet away, and made my way out of the car. Noticing the lights in the distance, I started for them. I walked four miles. I since learned, before I reached the Big Muddy oil fields. I at first thought I was the only one out of the whole train who managed to escape alive. There were five or six men in the smoking compartment ahead of me. It was almost certain they were drowned. They couldn't possibly have gotten out of that place."

Wyatt dramatically told of how he saw a few women and men struggling through windows and doors of the coaches, climb to the top and cling there while the water swished about the train.

"They hung there and screamed for help," he said, "while the water roared by a stream that defied any one to reach the unfortunate people. It was a torrent. No man could swim it."

RESCUED WITH ROPE.

Telling of the crash, Wyatt said: "The train seemed to slow up very suddenly. Then the rear end of the car suddenly shot upward and the front end plunged down and there we stopped. There didn't seem to be any confusion. Everyone started trying to open windows and climb out. I pushed my head out of the car and a porter saw me. He threw me a rope, and between his pulling and my scrambling I managed to get out. There were five others there when I reached the bank.

"It is hard for me to say how many persons lost their lives. There were six or seven men in the smoking compartment of the car where I was. They must have drowned. A short distance from the bank there was a coach which seemed to be only half-submerged. Whether this was a day coach or a Pullman I cannot say."

Wyatt probably saw the chair car half-submerged. Other reports bear this out.

Tragedy Marks Life of Trainman

CASPER, Wyo., Sept. 28 (By the Associated Press).—Train Conductor Goff, who is thought to have perished, began his railroad life with a tragedy and ended with one, a friend stated this morning. Goff, as a youth of 19, at Sweetwater, Neb., in 1890, was left sitting at a table when a cyclone carried away the roof over his head. With his home destroyed, he walked over to the railroad station and applied for a job with the Burlington, with which he was identified for years. Later he joined the Colorado & Southern with headquarters at Cheyenne, and was in their employ at the time of the wreck here.

Thirty-four Make Escape From Wreck

CHICAGO, Sept. 28 (By the Associated Press). — Twenty-eight out of 32 Pullman passengers and six out of 27 day coach passengers are known to have escaped death when Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway train No. 30 plunged into a torrent last night, near Lockett, Wyoming.

At noon today not a single name of the two score or more persons believed to have been drowned had been received at the general offices here.

state of turmoil on the day of the fire and for several days thereafter," comments Sanderson. "We tried to get in touch with the governor and, failing, Mayor Stringham acted in the emergency. He was within the law. If the state can't pay the men and the city is unable to do so because of a shortage of funds, a popular subscription is the only way I can see to remunerate them."

Speaking as commander of Berkeley Post No. 7, American Legion, Sanderson expressed indignation attheaction of the state officials.

"Berkeley post feels very strongly on this matter and, at a meeting Tuesday evening, a resolution was introduced calling on the governor to pay these men," says Sanderson. "Because our rules provide that an emergency resolution can be passed only by unanimous vote the measure was held up. One man out of 55 voted against it on the ground that he did not want the post to 'enter politics.' The resolution will take the usual course and will come up in two weeks' time when a majority vote will be all that is required to carry it."

A sum of approximately $1000 is needed to pay the men called out, based on four days' service at $2 per day. Several Berkeley companies and one Oakland company of the 159th Regiment responded to the call Monday, September 17, when it was feared that the entire college city was doomed by the flames which swept down over the hills. Lieut. Col. Eddy, successor to Col. David P. Barrows, former president of the University of California, was in charge of the troops.

Peralta Pageant To Close Fiesta

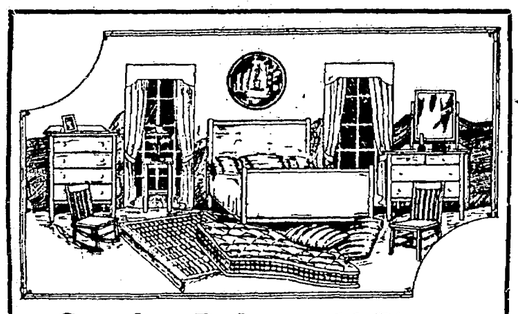

Final rehearsals were held last evening by the 400 persons who are to appear in the pageant, "The Days of Peralta," which is to bring the program of the Fiesta de la Laguna to a close tomorrow night at the Greek Theater. Director Everett Glass and George Cummings and R. W. Rinehart, coauthors, expressed themselves as exceptionally well satisfied with the results of the rehearsal.

The pageant undertakes to reproduce for the present generation the life, manners and customs of the residents of the Eastbay district during the period of the Peraltas. Among the incidents in the pageant will be the old Spanish custom of the "Battle of Eggs." Excitement will be lent to the presentation in the reproduction of a miniature rodeo. Range riders who participated in the famous Livermore Rodeo will take part in this part of the performance. A dancing chorus of 250 will furnish movement and color to the pageant. Particular care has been taken in this end of the production by Marie Allen and Joseph Paget Fredericks. In this feature they have undertaken to present the early California dance history. Primitive Indian dances will be given. These will be followed by the fandango and other Spanish dances. Special music for the Indian dances has been composed by Signor Antonio de Grassi.

Announcement is made that Miss Sallie Pease, who scored a hit in the role of the aunt in the Wheeler Hall production of "Rollo's Wild Oat," has been added to the cast.

BAIL BROKERS' ACTIVITY STIRS COLBOURN'S IRE

Commissioner Again Warns Police to Keep Bond Men Away.

Because of the renewed activities of a coterie of professional bail-bond brokers in the city hall, Commissioner Frank Colbourn today requested Chief of Police Drew to renew the order banning them from the municipal building.

There is now an ordinance forbidding bail-bond brokers to solicit business in "any building in which there's a prison or jail." The ordinance, for a time, kept out the bail-bond brokers, but lately they have reappeared in greater force, there being four concerns in action.

Colbourn, irate today at the cluster of bail-bond brokers at the police desk sergeant's office, observed: "This will keep up until I have to fire a few policemen for not enforcing the law."

In line with this, the commissioner sent the following to Chief of Police James T. Drew:

"Please instruct all policemen around the city hall to enforce an ordinance relative to bail-bond brokers. This ordinance is not being enforced, and it would appear that the men in this questionable business have influence with certain police officers."

Colbourn asserted that the return of the brokers "brings up the question as to whether the commissioner or the bail-bond brokers have the most influence with the police department." He admitted he had heard rumors that the brokers were even instructing the police as to what court certain prisoners should be sent to, in order that the work of the brokers might be better listed, and so that no prisoner under the patronage of a broker might have to face a crowded calendar.

Colbourn says he is "thinking of a license for bail-bond brokers, something like $100 a day," though it is admitted that this will have its drawbacks.

"They will probably disappear now for a while," says Colbourn. "They will be warned to leave the city hall again, and they will do so. The trouble will subside. Then, gradually, I expect they will creep back, just as in the past, after the trouble has blown over.

"I hope I will not have to discharge some policemen about two months from now."

The desk sergeant this morning removed the police "blotter" to a quiet corner, where it is available to the police only, though the law says it must be open to the public on demand.

Airedale Pup Is After Crown Of Laddie Boy

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Laddie Buck, an Airedale pup from Atlanta, Ga., has arrived at the White House to strive with Peter Pan, a wire-haired fox terrier from Boston, for the fame and favor that once belonged to Laddie Boy.

The Airedale was presented to President Coolidge by Captain M. C. Buckey on behalf of Miss Mary Calhoun of Atlanta, a grand niece of John C. Calhoun. His sponsors claim he will have a slight edge over Peter Pan because he is reputed to be a first cousin of the renowned Laddie Boy, but the friends of the Boston pup point out that he has been on the ground for more than a week and thereby has an advantage at the start that will be difficult for the other dog to overcome.

Berkeleyans Lose Jobs for Fighting Fire, Legion Hears

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—An investigation of reports that Berkeley merchants are discharging employees who left their positions abruptly when called to duty with the National Guard in the recent fire has been started by Berkeley Post, American Legion.

Reports of a number of discharges of this kind were received by the post at its meeting this week and aroused the Legionaires to indignation. Should the charges be found true the names of merchants taking such action will be made public, according to Commander Lemuel Sanderson of the post.

The post went on record as heartily commending Lieutenant Colonel A. J. Eddy for his prompt action in calling out the National Guard units during the fire and also adopted resolutions praising the work of the Red Cross in the emergency.

Mayor of Berkeley Speaks on Zoning

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—"Reasonable" zoning activities were today defended by Mayor Frand D. Stringham in an address on the "Legal Aspects of Zoning" before the Berkeley Public Spirit club.

ANTMAN IS HELD AS CAR ROBBER

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Philip Antman, 25 years old, was held on $500 bail this morning on a charge of holding up a Grove street car at the terminal at Los Angeles and Spruce streets at midnight yesterday. Antman was picked up by the Hitchcock patrol and turned over to the Berkeley police. He was identified by Haines and Motorman Walter Brill as one of the two men who had robbed him. A warrant for his arrest on a charge of robbery was issued following the identification.

LYMAN STEWART, OIL PIONEER OF CALIFORNIA, DIES

Death Ends Long Career of Founder of Union Oil Company.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—Lyman Stewart, dean of Southern California oil operators, founder of the Union Oil company and chairman of its board of directors, died of acute bronchitis and complications at about 12:40 o'clock this morning.

Stewart had been confined to his bed since early in September, but his illness did not take a serious turn until several days ago.

The pioneer of the western oil fields was 83 years old on July 22 last. Besides his widow he leaves a brother, Milton Stewart of Pasadena; two sons, W. L. Stewart, president of the Union Oil company of California, and A. C. Stewart, inventor of automobile accessories, and one daughter, Mrs. I. G. Martin of Pasadena.

Lyman Stewart left behind him a record of more than sixty years service in the American oil industry. He was born almost in the shadow of the first American oil well at Titusville, Pa. While working as a boy in his father's tannery there he saved $100 and made his first investment in oil when Colonel Drake's famous discovery well "came in."

He continued to deal in oil until 1883, when he enlisted in the Sixteenth Pennsylvania cavalry, with which he served throughout the Civil war.

Stewart's California career is a chapter that embraces the history of oil pioneering and development in this state. He came to unsettled Ventura county when wagon trains still were crossing the desert in 1883 and formed a partnership with W. L. Hardison, a lifelong friend from Pennsylvania. This concern merged with two other companies, later became the Union Oil Company of California, of which Stewart was elected president.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Salinas C. of C. Head Urges Work To Boys

SALINAS, Sept. 28—New vocational opportunities for boys and girls in chamber of commerce work was the gist of a talk given by Fred S. McCargar, secretary of the local chamber, at the High school assembly. The speaker outlined the four chief divisions into which the work of the modern chamber of commerce falls, and emphasizes its purpose as one of service to the community, not "boosting."

He cited the work of a local committee on subdivision of lands.

Water Appraisal O. K.'d By Utilities Directors

The Eastbay Public Utilities District last night adopted a resolution requesting Chief Engineer Arthur P. Davis to proceed immediately with an appraisal of the East Bay Water Company's property to determine what portion of those properties will be useful to the Public Utilities District.

The directors also authorized Davis to proceed toward entering into contracts with the water company for the laying of protective water mains that he may determine necessary for the safety of the Eastbay cities, the water company to receive 8 per cent on the investment.

The actions last night, according to Davis, "began a new era of improvements for the Eastbay cities.

FOR BETTER PROTECTION.

Davis, authorized recently to investigate the recent Berkeley conflagration, last night made a report with three recommendations. One suggested a detailed study of plans for larger mains and better fire protection, another suggested measurements of streams applicable to future water supplies, and the third, after reviewing the plan of the City of Alameda, with its guaranteeing the water company 8 per cent on its investment, said:

"It is recommended that a contract be made with the water company to lay such additional mains as may be ordered by the engineer of the utilities district, under the conditions already described, giving that officer full authority over expenditures, and general supervision of the work."

All three recommendations were immediately adopted. A resolution then authorized him to get to work upon the extra water mains, under the 8 per cent plan. Davis intimated that the water company was not averse to it.

BETTER SUPPLY IMPERATIVE.

In touching upon the fire matter, Davis said also:

"The improvement of the supply and distribution is imperative. It does not seem practicable to treat the question except as a unit. The water supply is interlocked. We cannot treat the case of one city without considering the others."

Davis, during the discussion, said the work of laying these extra protections would take a long time, and said that "the purchase of the whole water company system may be finished before this job is completed."

The intended contract with the water company, however is so worded that the utilities district may halt its 8 per cent plan at any place in the future.

FAVORS APPRAISAL.

Marston Campbell, president of the board of directors, broached the question of appraising the water company property.

"We have reached the point where it is necessary to get immediate action toward the appraisal of the water company, or necessary portions thereof," he said. "We must lay plans to submit to the people, as soon as possible, the matter of sufficient bonds to give us and adequate supply."

"We have two points to consider," warned Attorney W. J. Locke. One is the acquisition of the plant, and the other is the acquisition of a supply."

"It may be better to have a bond issue for both at one time," said Campbell. "That seems the most businesslike."

Engineer Davis, however, pointed out that such procedure will be impossible if the district desires haste.

"We may get an appraisal of the water company in a relatively short time," he said, "but it will be utterly impossible to investigate all the sources of water supply, even if we had a million to spend, within a short time. New York spent two years on the job. We, here, do not even know the drainage area of the Eel river. If the acquisition of the water distributing plant is urgent, you will have to have this bond election first."

DATA WILL BE USED.

The directors, tentatively agreeing with this, then adopted the resolution for appraisal of the water plant now in existence.

The data from this appraisal, according to the directors, will be used to set before the Railroad Commission a full statement of the properties desired.

The directors had set last night as the time for tenders for the sale of the present water company plant, but the directors read instead a letter from President E. O. Edgerton of the water company, in which he said that the company was not striving to sell itself, but would "co-operate in the work of the utilities district, which he pointed out, has the power to buy.

The meeting ended in a general discussion of distribution systems, including a suggestion by Director James Boyer that future water supplies come via a "sub-sidewalk" route, without tearing up costly streets, as in the past. This suggestion was continued, for further study.

Thousands of Trees For Sale by State

WOODLAND, Sept. 28.—There are 60,000 trees at the state nursery at Davis awaiting a buyer at prices ranging from 15 to 50 cents each, according to announcement made here by State Forester M. B. Pratt. The trees were planted for shading the state highway, but limiting the appropriation of the state forester's office, makes it necessary to sell the trees to counties and districts for county road and state highway shading. Orders will be received and filled in the order of their receipt. The trees include the deciduous, coniferous, broad-leafed evergreen, Pistachio and shrub varieties.

WRIT RETURNS GIRL SEPARATED FROM PARENTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Under a writ of habeas corpus, granted today by the district court of appeal, Sarah Malta, 16-year old Berkeley high school girl, will be allowed to return to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Falta, after being separated from them since 1916.

In 1916 the girl was taken from her parents and made a ward of the Alameda County Superior Court. The Berkeley Aid Society brought about this action, contending that the father of the girl was ill with tuberculosis, and that it would be a menace to the child's health to have her live with her father and mother.

The father is still alive and for several years has been fighting to get back his child. Today he won his suit. Attorney George Gelder of Oakland represented the parents.

Americans Make New Marriage Record

LONDON, Sept. 28. — Anglo-American weddings and the number of marriage licenses issued to Americans have established a record this Summer, according to London registrars.

The church generally suggested, they say, is St. George's, Hanover Square, where ex-President Roosevelt was married in December, 1886.

Grand Jury Unfair, Is Charge of Supervisor

"Certain members" of the Alameda county grand jury were actuated by malice for personal reasons, while the report condemning all the election officers without finding any guilty is declared unjust, in a statement issued today by Supervisor Tom Knox in reply to the grand jury's report on the alleged election frauds in Niles last fall.

The grand jury's investigation followed a recount demanded after the election by John G. Mattos, the defeated opponent of Supervisor Knox. The recount revealed tampered ballots in Niles precinct No. 2. The report by the grand jury stated fraud had been perpetrated but admitted its inability to fix the blame. The board of supervisors was then criticized for allowing the same election officials to serve at a later election.

Having been asked so many times regarding the report of the grand jury to the board of supervisors in their investigation of irregularities in Niles precinct No. 2 and having been largely responsible for the appointment of the board at that election, I desire to make an earnest protest in vindication of the good name and reputation of those whose innocence of wrong doing is conceded by the grand jury, but who nevertheless in that report have had their honor assailed although it is said therein, "We have come to the conclusion that all the election board were not at fault, although the fraud was caused by a member or members of the board."

The grand jury by its report finds one member guilty and is unable to identify that one, or to say that there was more than one, the grand jury, as its report shows, was without a particle of evidence that the other five members of the election board were cognizant of, or had any knowledge whatever of the commission of the fraud complained of, so we have therefore no more than one unidentified member of the election board accused of fraud, although the five remaining innocent members are held to equal contempt by the report in its recommendation to the board of supervisors that in the future they be not appointed at any future elections. Assuming that one member was guilty (although there is nothing in the report indicating that some one else may not have committed it) where did the grand jury get the right to condemn those who were not guilty?

The report says "We have come to the conclusion that all the election board were not at fault," supports the inference of an element of personal malice indulged by some of the members of the grand jury and also to the effect that certain members of the grand jury (quite influential in this investigation) have found their ambition for public office in time past opposed by certain members of the election board and therefore that the making up of the report was accompanied by a desire to get even.

In what has been said I have endeavored to voice a protest against the misuse of a public position to do a private wrong, and without just cause rob others of a good name.

Worker Dies On Eve Of Getting Fortune

TACOMA, Sept. 28.—On the eve of receiving a comfortable fortune from his investment in a coal mine, Harry Howell, 30, died in a hospital here yesterday after being injured in a logging camp near here earlier in the day. Howell was injured while working with Paul Weeck, Jr., 17, who was killed, it is believed, by being struck by a heavy cable.

Howell had been a coal miner and according to men in the camp had told that he and two others had sold a coal property in British Columbia for $400,000 of which he was to receive a third for his share. This money he expected any day, he said.

COMPANY DENIES USE OF OAKLAND CAR IN ITS WORK

Council Begins Probe of the Claim City Auto Used for Getting Signatures.

As an upshot to a city council investigation into charges that Hutchinson Company's agent used a city of Oakland auto in getting signatures against paving on Ninetieth avenue, the council today authorized Commissioner Frank Colbourn to send a policeman to canvass Ninetieth avenue and get statements from all the property owners involved.

C. W. Thornsberry, under citation, appeared before the council today. He said that a man in a city car, so marked, got out of the car and sought paving signatures, stopping all along the line. He said he could not recognize the man.

A. L. Dalton, another witness, testified to the same general effect, though his identification of a city car was hazy.

A letter was received from the Hutchinson Company, signed by Hardy Hutchinson, branding the whole charge as "a malicious falsehood." He said that no Hutchinson employee has used or been in any city car, and was not on Ninetieth avenue at the time mentioned.

"We'll go down the line and make a regular investigation," promised Commissioner Colbourn.

The council passed to print an ordinance ordering the acquisition of property for the extension of Bond street, and appropriated $499 for the expense of Fire Chief Sam Short as delegate to the International Association of Fire Engineers at Richmond, Va., October 23-26.

PROSECUTOR HAS PRISONER FREED

HAYWARD, Sept. 28. — On a plea by C. W. White, city attorney, that sufficient punishment had been meted out in the past, a suspended sentence was given Harry Brown, proprietor of the Occidental Hotel here, on a charge of having liquor in his possession, by Judge Jacob Harder Jr., sitting as city recorder yesterday. The suspended judgment will hold until December. Brown was arrested in April by Joseph Brandon, but hearing was postponed.

Brown has just terminated a three months' term in the Oakland county jail on Federal charges. Prior to that he was fined $500 by Judge Harder on combined charges of having liquor in his possession and selling it.

HIGH SCHOOL SITES CHOSEN

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 28.—Announcement that two possible sites for the junior high school proposed here have been selected from the list of suggested locations have been made by U. S. Ackles, secretary of the chamber of commerce here. The statement followed a special conference of the chamber's committee, headed by A. S. Weaver, local banker, with A. C. Olney, in charge of the building department of the State department of education.

Olney will recommend to Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of Oakland schools, that the junior high school be located either at Juana avenue and the Foothill boulevard or on the Andrade property on Dutton avenue. The Juana avenue tract, it is understood, is preferred by Olney.

The Juana tract comprises 11 acres, with sufficient land suitable for playground and athletic field. The Dutton avenue property consists of only nine acres of land, but is more conveniently located to transportation facilities.

United States railways increased 20,000 miles between 1910 and 1915.

James Cruze Gains New Glory By His "Ruggles of Red Gap"

ERNEST TORRENCE as Cousin Egbert and EDWARD HORTON as Ruggles in screen version of Harry Leon Wilson's most humorous novel, "RUGGLES OF RED GAP."

Master Film Opens Week's Engagement at American Theater Tomorrow

There are perhaps several moving picture directors who will be remembered for one great masterpiece. But James Cruze is the first to claim three masterpieces and all within a year.

That Cruze is the equal or peer of any picture director in the world is established through his great "The Covered Wagon." Immediately thereafter he showed himself a master of humor with his "Hollywood," recently shown in Oakland at the American theater and now comes his third great production, "Ruggles of Red Gap."

Cruze's adaptation of the celebrated novel by Harry Leon Wilson will have its premiere at the American theater tomorrow and will be shown at that theater for a week. Critics wherever the picture has been shown have run to a series of superlatives in attempting to do justice to the full rich humor of the splendid picture.

The cast has a full collection of seasoned players of both stage and screen. Ernest Torrence, rated filmland's finest character actor of the day, portrays the inimitable Cousin Egbert. Edward Horton is a delightful Ruggles and Charles Ogle, Louise Dresser, Lois Wilson and other favorites contribute to the screen epic.

Tonight's performances close Thomas Meighan's engagement in "Homeward Bound."—Advertisement.

Elaborate Program for First Annual Conference of Purchasing Agents.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—The second day's sessions of the first annual conference of the National Association of Purchasing Agents, Pacific Coast Division, opened today with a general meeting in the red room of the Fairmont Hotel, followed by a luncheon in the ballroom with the San Francisco Merchants and Advertisers. The remainder of the day was given over to factory visits. There will be a smoker tonight on the Fairmont terrace.

The convention opened yesterday with a luncheon at the Fairmont hotel at which the purchasing agents were guests of the Purchasing Agents' Association of Northern California and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' committee of San Francisco.

Warren H. McBryde presided at the luncheon. Ralph W. Myers general chairman of the convention committee of the Purchasing Agents' Association of Northern California, introduced McBryde after the delegates had joined in singing "America."

WELCOMED BY MAYOR.

Mayor James Rolph, Jr., delivered a message of welcome to the purchasing agents.

"To you we open our hearts, our homes, and all that we have, as in the days of old, of gold, and of '49," he said. "I welcome you to San Francisco. In facing you I am looking upon a group of trained men. Our pioneer ancestors believed the self-made man was the successful man. But today it is the educated man."

Another speaker, C. P. Visel, past president of the Purchasing Agents' Association of Southern California, said: "We are here to do the following things: "To discuss our ethics and form new friendships, and to take San Francisco apart industrially and see what advantages she holds for the buyer."

OTHER SPEAKERS HEARD.

Charles H. Heiser, president of the California Development Association, said, on behalf of that organization: "We want to sell you California to the extent that when you go back to your homes you will want to come back as soon and as often as possible. Other speakers were Colonel Charles A. Simmons, manager of the Chamber of Commerce and Charles S. Knight, head of the industrial department of the California Development Association.

Receipt of a letter of greeting from Colbert Coldwell, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was acknowledged.

Visits to local industrial plants were taken after the luncheon. Meetings of the standardization, membership and program committees were held in the afternoon and a general meeting took place last night. Speakers at last night's meeting included Henry F. Grady, director of the trade development department, Chamber of Commerce; L. S. Leavy, purchasing agent, San Francisco; W. G. MacMillin, California State Purchasing Agent, and W. L. Chandler national secretary.

The final business session will be held tomorrow. A sightseeing trip of the bay district is to be enjoyed by the delegates on Sunday.

ROCKET JUNKETS TO MOON IS PLAN OF BERLIN SAVANT

Vacations on Mars Can Be Enjoyed for $250,000,000 Each, He Says.

By FERDINAND C. M. JAHN, United Press Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN (By mail to the United Press).—Anybody, instead of going to the seashore, can have his vacation on Mars, the moon, or any other planet in the very near future, according to Professor Hermann Oberth, who has just published a book, "Rocketing to the Planets."

The theory of the American experimenter, Goddard, who planned to shoot a rocket to the moon, is further developed by Oberth on a scientific basis which, according to Max Wolff, professor of astronomy and leading authority, is unattackable from a scientific point of view.

Oberth endeavors to prove three theses:

First—In the present state of science and technique it is possible to construct machines which can pass beyond the terrestrial atmosphere.

Second—Through further perfection such machines can attain speeds, enabling them, once the ethereal space is reached, not to fall back to the earth, but to pass beyond the reach of the attraction of the earth, and travel around in a planetary orbit.

Third—These machines can be constructed in such a way that human beings (probably, without injuring the health) could ride in them.

Oberth calculates that such a machine would cost about $250,000,000.

From a scientific standpoint, Oberth declares, it would be unprofitable to travel only to the moon.

Oberth believes that it would be more advisable to construct the machines so that they would become little moons themselves, traveling in an orbit around the earth. The crew could explore unknown parts of the earth and photograph them.

Dental Crown Fatal Says Wife in Court

MARTINEZ, Sept. 28.—Two days before John A. Sybel of Richmond died he emitted, in a violent coughing spell, a gold crown which had been imbedded in his right lung for seven months, his widow, Mrs. Suanna Eybel, testified yesterday afternoon at the opening of her $25,000 damage suit against Dr. W. W. Biberson, Richmon dentist. Mrs. Eybel alleges that Dr. Giberson in repairing her husband's teeth in May, 1920, through carelessness dropped the gold crown down Eybel's throat. The crown, she says, caused an infection resulting in Eybel's death in December.

Attorneys for Giberson made a non-suit motion but it was denied by Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie. Counsel for Dr. Giberson attempted to show by testimony of Dr. C. L. Abbott that Eybel was suffering from lung trouble other than that which could have been caused by the gold crown for some time prior to his death.

San Jose Girl Sues To Annul Marriage

SAN JOSE, Sept. 28.—Suit to annul the marriage of Lois E. Cowell to Thomas Murphy was started in the Santa Clara county superior court here yesterday, the girl alleging that at the time she married Murphy she was but 17 years of age and did not have the consent of her parents or guardian to the marriage. The couple were married on April 13, 1923, and separated on July 8. The girl alleges that she will not be eighteen years of age until October 22, next. The suit is brought in behalf of the girl by Edith Steffan.

San Jose City Dad's Home Is Ransacked

SAN JOSE, Sept. 28.—Thieves who entered the home of City Councilman W. G. Bigger yesterday morning made away with a silver badge Bigger wore when he was a deputy sheriff, the revolver which he used in a gun battle with bandits near Mountain View and several shot guns and rifles, in addition to a valuable pair of field glasses. Several residences in the vicinity of Bigger's home at 965 East Santa Clara street were entered by burglars early yesterday.

TROOPS OF BOY SCOUTS INCREASE

As a result of the Community Chest system of financing charities and welfare organizations, the Oakland Boy Scouts have added seventeen troops to its organization in three months, and there is indication that an additional fifteen will be added before the end of the year. This was the statement made yesterday by Homer Bemis, Scout Executive.

"Up to the time the Community Chest arranged for the financing of the Boy Scout work, from forty to sixty percent of my time was devoted to raising finances and much of the time of the Board of Directors and others connected with the Scouts, was also consumed in raising funds," explained Bemis. "Since the Community Chest system has gone into effect I have been able to devote all of my time and energy to scout work. Our records show that within the past three months seventeen new troops have been added. We have a membership now of more than 1700 boys. This figure does not take into consideration the staff of 600 men who are identified with our work. By the end of the year we confidently expect to add fifteen more troops to the organization which will bring our membership up to the 2000, whose character building we are undertaking."

Mt. Vernon, George Washington's home, is built of red oak and birch.

Scout Officials Seek Boy Hero to Present Medals

Lost—one hero.

Two medals awaits Joseph Kalei, Oakland Boy Scout. But he cannot be found. Local scout officials are endeavoring to get in touch with the youth, who was a member of Troop 33, to bestow upon him honors for saving the life of a boy who had fallen into the estuary.

The ceremony of presentation was set for last night in the Elks' club. Shortly before the hour it was discovered that the Kalei family had moved. Search is being made for the young hero that the medals may be given into his possession, according to Scout Executive Homer J. Bemis. Besides the local medal, one has been awarded by the national Scout organization to notice of which the heroic act of the Oakland boy was brought.

For saving the life of a boy Hutchinson, ?r-Tl ; in the Truckee river, George Hutchinson, Troop 24, was awarded a medal last night.

New Spider Species Is Found in Denver

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 28.—(By Associated Press.)—A new species of spider, with bodies shaped like footballs and eight long legs, pink and striped with black, have made their appearance in Denver according to A. E. Craig who has captured many of them. The insects have wide nostrils, slit eyes, small mouths and ears, and were discovered in a shed owned by Craig.

The spiders are believed to have been brought here in tropical fruit and escaped to make their home in the shed. The web formed by the insects is thick and in the shape of a maple leaf. The spiders have sharp jaws and long feelers. When in danger, it is said, they emit a poisonous, steam-like substance which forms a moisture on glass or any hard, smooth surface.

ONE KILLED IN EXPLOSION.

BAYONNE, N. J., Sept. 28.—An unidentified man was killed and eight others were injured, three of them probably fatally, in an explosion and fire which destroyed the distilling department of the Baker Castor Oil company early today.

Mexico's Only Hope In Primary Schools

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The future of Mexico lies in the establishment of 7000 primary schools throughout the republic, according to Enrique Corona, of the Department of Public Instruction. He declared that, of the 14,000,000 inhabitants of Mexico, 8,000,000 are illiterates and that 4,000,000 of these illiterates cannot even speak Spanish, but cling to ancient Indian dialects.

My Envied Hair

Is one thing I owe to France

By Edna Wallace Hopper

My hair is my greatest glory. It is more luxuriant than 40 years ago.

I am old in years, but I look like a girl of 19. My hair is thick and lustrous. It has never begun to grow gray. Falling hair and dandruff are unknown to me.

The reason lies in a formula which I found in France. Many of my friends on the stage have used it, and they gained results like mine. They all have wondrous hair.

Now I have arranged so every woman, every man, may share these benefits with me. This formula which France gave me is at your store today.

Why Hair Declines

Those experts told me this: The scalp is like a garden. One must stimulate, fertilize and clean it.

An oil called sebum hardens there. Dandruff forms. These things clog the hair roots, stop the growth. And they stifle the glands which supply pigment to the hair.

Thus hair stops growing, loses luster, falls out or turns gray. The way to fight those troubles or correct them is to treat the scalp.

The Way I Found

Those French scientists gave me a formula. My hair since then has grown finer every year. Mother used it, and she died at 57 with hair like mine today. Many of my friends have used it. All of them say that nothing else has brought comparable results.

I call this formula my Hair Youth. I apply it with an eye-dropper daily—just enough to dampen the scalp. This method does not muss the hair. It requires but a minute a day.

The result is my heavy, silky, lustrous hair which many young girls envy. I believe that any woman who employs it will always thank me for it.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Hair Youth is supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. Price, 50c and $1 with eye-dropper. Also my White Youth Clay. Also my Youth Cream, based on lemon and strawberry. Also my Facial Youth—my famous liquid cleanser. My Beauty Book comes with each.

I hope you will let my Hair Youth show you the way to more beautiful hair. Edna Wallace Hopper, Business Address, Waukesha, Wisc.

NOTE: See Miss Hopper in person at Pantages Theater, San Francisco, week beginning September 30.

ONE MAN SOUGHT AS MURDERER OF LODI CATTLEMAN

San Joaquin County Police Expect Soon to Take Killer of Kels.

STOCKTON, Sept. 28.—Within a few days, perhaps within a few hours the arrest of a man suspected of the fiendish murder of Alex Kels, wealthy Lodi butcher and cattleman, is expected.

The chase has narrowed down to one man, who is sought in another state. His whereabouts has been pretty definitely determined and it is the belief of Assistant District Attorney Marion G. Woodward and Sheriff W. H. Riecks that the man hunt is almost at an end.

"We are now dealing with facts," said Woodward yesterday afternoon. "The officers have progressed beyond the realm of suspicion and surmise."

Since the second day, he states, suspicion has been fastened on a certain man, who has been trailed ever since, but never overtaken. Now his arrest is expected. It is the firm belief of the officers that this man will clear up the mystery and probably incriminate others. They believe he murdered Kels that night as the Lodian was on his way home, drove to the old pasture six miles north of Lodi, ran the car up against a large haystack and set it on fire, hoping the flames would so completely destroy the body that identity would be impossible.

Evidence obtained at the secret autopsy, however, frustrated all the murderer's intentions, it is announced. Not the slightest inkling is given regarding the nature of that autopsy. The surgeons were sworn to secrecy.

Kels had a secret enemy. That much was admitted when he told Lodi friends on several occasions that he expected to be killed on the road some day.

The widow of the murdered man recently offered a reward of $1000 for evidence leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayers. Since that time outside detectives have become interested in the case, but with what success is known only to themselves.

L. A. ACCIDENTS KILL 1, HURT 14

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—One was killed and 14 injured in traffic accidents here yesterday.

Mrs. J. W. Dupree, wife of the police judge of the Lankershim district and a confirmed invalid, was killed when the automobile in which she was riding with her husband was struck by a Pacific Electric train near Van Nuys, a suburb. Judge Dupree was perhaps fatally injured.

Thirteen workmen were injured, one possibly fatally and two others seriously, when a truck in which they were riding overturned.

Aleutian Islands to Get Sheep for Test

SEATTLE, Sept. 28.—For an experiment in live stock production in the Aleutian archipelago 2000 Oregon sheep are going north from here today on the steamship Oduna.

On Unimak Island off the west end of the Alaska peninsula, the Western Pacific Livestock company and the Aleutian Livestock company are establishing ranches. Captain F. G. Dodge, commander of the northern division of the United States Coast Guard, recommended the climate of the Aleutian Islands for sheep raising.

Man Drowned in Bay Finally Identified

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 28.—The body of a man who was at first believed to be R. Jamison of Sacramento, recovered from Bodega bay after he had fallen into the water from a rowboat yesterday afternoon, was later identified as that of Patrick Condon, 50, of Knights Landing, near Sacramento, according to advices received here from Petaluma, where the body was taken. Three companions who were in the boat when the accident occurred, recovered his body.

Would-be Student Held for Larceny

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—Mark H. Davis, arrested in Oakland on a charge of obtaining the life savings of Miss Mary Probst by promising to marry her, pleaded not guilty to a charge of grand larceny in the superior court here yesterday. He was planning to attend the University of California when he was arrested.

MONEY SHORTAGE ALARMS PEKING

PEKING, Sept. 28.—(By the Associated Press)—The precarious financial condition of the Chinese government is causing much alarm in the northern capital where strenuous efforts to raise sufficient funds to tide over the autumn festival settlements have met with but little success.

The money raised by the government from various sources is inadequate to meet even a small proportion of the arrears in pay due the gendarmerie, soldiers and government employes.

The only soldiers that are being paid with any degree of regularity are those of General Feng Yu-hsiang, the "Christian General." Feng, who is in charge of the military guard of the capital, pays his troops from the local customs.

VIOLENCE FEARED IN PHILIPPINES

MANILA, P. I., Sept. 28.—(United Press.)—Fear that "blood may flow" Tuesday at the Philippine elections was expressed today by Governor Montinola, president of the democrata party.

He declared he was "sure no Democrata will permit violation of the rights of the people, which we will defend to the last."

Forces opposed to the Democrata party charged that the Democrata leaders would deliberately provoke disorder to give cause for a declaration of martial law on election day by Governor General Leonard Wood.

HARDING STAMPS IN DEMAND.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—Harding memorial postage stamps are in such demand in Los Angeles that Postmaster P. P. O'Brien believes the 600,000 already received will be insufficient and he is contemplating placing an order for 1,000,000 more.

MISSOULA, Mont., Sept. 28 (By Associated Press.)—There are approximately 2,000,000 acres of forest land in Montana and Idaho without either federal or state supervision, according to L. F. Kniepp, of Washington, assistant forester, who has just completed an inspection trip through the two states.

Because of the vast expanse of the public domain lands, administration by private owners is impossible, he said. The land is classified as suitable for reforestation grazing.

WELL-BALANCED U. S. NAVY URGED BY LABOR HEADS

Sub-Conventions Pave Way for A. F. L. Meeting On Monday.

By HAROLD E. SWISHER,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 28.—Three sub-conventions of departments included in the American Federation of Labor were drawing to a close here today in order to have the way cleared for the main gatherings which commence Monday.

Delegates to the metal, building and label department conferences were in session during the day, discussing the business of their separate organizations.

The building trades' department was expected to make another effort to heal the two-year-old breach between the union and the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, which is divorced from the parent organization because of internal difficulties.

The metal trades' department was to continue handling its own business today.

Perhaps the most important resolution adopted by that organization thus far was approved late yesterday. It contained an appeal that the United States build up and maintain a well-balanced navy, based on the international conference of limitations treaty.

Each train arriving in the city was bringing delegates and visitors to the convention and by the time the gavel drops Monday all the representatives are expected to be present.

El Paso, Texas, delegates are getting away to an early start in the bid for the 1924 convention. They have announced that Mayor Dudley of El Paso will arrive here within a few days to present a strong invitation to the federation to meet there next year.

Lane Convicted of Reckless Driving

John Lane was found guilty by Police Judge Hennessey today on a charge of reckless driving. He will be sentenced tomorrow. He was arrested Saturday by Traffic Officer Dooling after a chase of thirteen blocks. At Tenth and Clay streets he collided with a machine driven by Cecil Bershear, 1199 Seventy-ninth avenue.

Restaurant Men Asked to Conclave

A score of Oakland restaurant men have received special invitations to attend the annual convention of the National Restaurant Association in Cincinnati, Ohio, October 8-13. Problems of feeding the world's masses will be discussed by experts during the week's conferences.

Divorced in New York, Not Santa Rosa; Embarrassed

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 28.—James Edward Tompkins of this city narrowly escaped embarrassing complications here a few days ago when he married Miss Dorothy Bell Lewis of Petaluma within a few weeks after he had filed suit for divorce from his first wife, Mrs. Marie Florence Tompkins of New York.

The matter was straightened out to the satisfaction of everybody when Tompkins later explained that after filing suit he learned that his wife had divorced him in New York, so without the formality of dismissing his case here he went ahead and remarried. The suit filed here will be dismissed and the records cleared.

U. S. Captures World Naval Air Trophy

COWES, England, Sept. 28.—(International News Service.)—America today won the Schneider cup in the international race of navy seaplanes. England and France competed against America.

Lieutenant Rittenhouse, piloted the successful American plane. His machine attained a speed of approximately 176 miles an hour. The total time for the course was one hour 12 minutes 1 2-16 seconds.

America took second place as well as first. Lieutenant Irving piloting the second machine. Great Britain was third. The total distance of the race was 185 miles.

The American victory created a new record for Schneider cup races.

Irving's time was one hour 14 minutes 5 1-5 seconds. His average speed was 173 miles an hour. The time of the British machine was one hour 21 minutes and 46 seconds, an average of 157 miles per hour.

Auction Sale of Lots Delayed by Action

The auction sale of lots in Wall's Harbor Center tract, Richmond, has been adjourned sine die, due to proceedings instituted by a former stockholder in the company to prevent the sale to the highest bidder without reserve price. While the officers of the Harbor Center Land company feel that they are within their rights and can sell these lots at public auction, they must wait until the court decides the matter.

"When lots are offered at absolute auction sale there are no schedule prices to be realized, and the company is not allowed to bid on any lot so offered," said W. H. Barry, the auctioneer, "and this feature of the proposed auction sale is objected to by the former stockholder who has appealed to the court to prevent the sale. Until the court decides the matter, we must wait, but if the court decides not to interfere in the sale, then we will carry out the terms of our contract. Our contract provides that every lot put up will be sold to the highest bidder regardless of former prices."

OAKLANDER ARRESTED.

LEAGUE IS TOPIC OF MILLS TALK

The League of nations is not an experiment but based on history; it provides an open forum for discussion of international problems and can consider subjects that can be settled only internationally, Miss Amy Cryan of England told 500 Mills College students today. She is giving a series of addresses on the campus.

According to the speaker the League of Nations goes back in origin 300 years to the days of William Penn. She said:

"The league brings to light discussions and treaties which might have been made in secret," Miss Cryan argues. "There will still be secret treaties, for human nature is slow to change, but if diplomats learn that public opinion will not back such treaties in a crisis with money and men, they will be less eager to make promises.

"The League and the World Court today are the most important factors in the world making for international peace. We have had international movements in everything but government; let us be fair with this effort. The league is helping to get better international law by helping people to think in terms of peace."

The dates and subjects for the series include:

Wednesday, October 3, "The World Court."

Friday, October 19, "England and Ireland."

Friday, October 26, "England and Ireland."

Friday, November 2, "England of Today."

Governors Invited To Meet Coolidge

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 28.—(By United Press.)—President Coolidge today requested the governors who plan to attend a conference of governors at West Baden, Ind., Oct. 17, to meet with him in Washington immediately after the conclusion of their meeting.

Miles C. Riley, secretary of the West Baden conference, wired Bascom Slemp, secretary to Coolidge, that the governors would be in Washington Oct. 20.

While the telegram from the White House did not state the nature of the Washington conference, it was assumed prohibition enforcement would be discussed.

Potatoes Sautees (Omelet Form)

(The recipe of Monsieur Filippini, former chef of Delmonico's, simplified for home use)

Peel six medium-sized potatoes, slice them into rather thin, equal slices. Heat in a frying pan one and a half tablespoons melted Crisco. Season with one teaspoon salt and two saltspoons white pepper. Gently toss the potatoes once in a while, cooking for seven minutes on a brisk fire, then give them an omelet form; cook them for four minutes longer, or until they obtain a good golden color. Dress on a hot dish and serve.

CURTAIN CALLS
By Wood Soanes

SHOWMANSHIP knows no limitations. Max Reinhardt has international fame as a result of his mass effects in the theater. Yet, he has proved himself to be equal master of miniature stagecraft by his recent treatment of Moliere's "Le Malade Imaginaire."

The story of how Reinhardt demonstrated anew his peculiar qualifications as regisseur is told in the New York Herald. Three weeks ago he presented the Moliere comedy before an audience of invited guests at Castle Leopoldskron, his estate near Salzburg.

A wide fireplace on which beech knots crackled cheerily, a chaise longue for the hypochondriac, a table filled with a varied assortment of panaceas for all his ills, stiff rows of chairs on either side of the hearth, wax candles burning in antique brass sconces—this the entire apparatus used in setting the comedy of which Max Pallenberg was the central figure.

There was no stage and no auditorium. All barriers between audience and actors were eliminated and only discrimination between the 150 persons gathered in the hall of the castle was that to one category fell the privilege of diverting and to the other, that of being diverted. It was the quintessence of intimate art.

This former residence of the Prince Bishop of Salzburg contains a hall of immense proportions of which the ornate decorations have been reduced by Reinhardt to a harmony of line and coloring. The picture formed by the fine frescoes, the stained glass galleries, all thrown into relief by the flickering flames of hundreds of candles would have been complete had the guests been wearing period dress.

Those sitting in the front row of chairs were brushed by Harlequin, Columbine and Polichinelle as they pirouetted by to the music of an orchestra stationed in one of the galleries. It was all delightfully informal and according to those who witnessed it there was less of the old French comedian than there was of Reinhardt and Pallenberg about the performance.

TWENTY SEASONS AGO TODAY

"The Paraders" a Weber and Fields attraction is at Fischer's.

Wheeler Hall Season Opens This Evening

Tonight will witness the opening of the fall season of plays at Wheeler Hall under the auspices of the Greek Theater Players when "To the Ladies" the Kaufmann-Connelly comedy success is presented with Harold Minger and Lois Austin in the two principal roles originally portrayed, if memory serves, by Otto Kruger and Helen Hayes.

To those who are accustomed to having their theater served in conventional surroundings it is always diverting to watch these ambitious performances of young college folk under conditions that are most trying. The stage, if such it can be called, lends itself to any but the most stage presentations and it is surprising that the actors win their effects through their own efforts and not through mechanics.

FORTY SEASONS AGO TODAY

"The Sleeping Beauty" is at the Tivoli in San Francisco with Mabel Bert and Fanny Henry featured.

Despite the fact that there is a minimum of stage space, no chance for footlights or borders or indeed floods or bunches, and no curtain, the productions last season were genuine treats and in some instances measured up favorably with professional performances presented under much more happy circumstances. "Rollo's Wild Oat and Justice" are recalled with distinct pleasure by this reviewer.

Which in turn leads to Minger who is to play that cheerful idiot Leonard Hamilton Beebe, prize dumb bell of the stage, this evening. Minger has done many artistic things at Wheeler Hall and it will be interesting to observe his manner of handling Leonard.

EXITS AND ENTRANCES

Way back in the dark ages of dramatic stock Harry Bishop put on "The Ninety and Nine" at Ye Liberty Playhouse and Charlie Blair the master mechanic constructed a practical engine for the big scene. The engine was a replica of the locomotive of those days and ran and everything.

Time passed and the locomotive was taken down and stored away in various back stage nooks. Now at the Century which was Ye Liberty the locomotive is being reassembled by the same Charlie Blair who is still master mechanic, in order to give a treat to the railway employees who have bought the house for a theater party on October 11.

Good old George Friend, the one man in show business who hasn't an enemy and wouldn't know what to do with one if he had, has conceived the germ of a great idea. It really is a great idea but the time is not yet ripe for the unfolding. Suffice it to say that Friend may use his head to sell real estate but his heart is encased in a dusty make-up box and now he going to—but that would be telling the story.

Says Dangerous Varicose Veins Can Be Reduced at Home

Rub Gently and Upward Toward the Heart as Blood in Veins Flows That Way

If you or any relative or friend is worried because of varicose veins, or bunches, the best advice that anyone in this world can give is to get a prescription that many physicians are now prescribing. Ask your druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moone's Emerald Oil (full strength) and apply night and morning to the swollen, enlarged veins. Soon you will notice that they are growing smaller and the treatment should be continued until the veins are of normal size. So penetrating and powerful is Emerald Oil that it dissolves goitre and wens and causes them to disappear. It can be secured at any pharmacy. —Advertisement.

Western Canada To Make Newsprint

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, Sept. 28. (By The Associated Press.)—Erection of the first pulp and paper plant in the prairie provinces at a cost of $300,000 has begun, near Winnipeg. The plant will have an initial capacity of 120 tons of newsprint a day and will, it is believed, furnish paper to the middle-western market of the United States.

Location of the plant in the west, it is said, is an indication of the expansion of the Canadian newsprint industry. It was once thought that the pulpwood supplies of the prairie provinces would not be called into requisition for years, but the increasing consumption of the middle-western states and their proximity to the prairie provinces has brought about the demand. Newsprint production in the Dominion rose from 690,250 tons in 1921 to 1,031,364 tons in 1922 and this year, it is reported, it will show even greater gains.

ATLANTIC'S BED RISES 3 MILES

LONDON, Sept. 28.—(By The Associated Press.)—Discovery by a cable repair ship that the bed of the ocean in the vicinity of St. Helena had risen two miles during the last 20 years has led to a belief among scientists that the whole South Atlantic ocean bed is undergoing a vast submarine convulsion.

Some authorities have even made the statement that such changes are going on continually, and that these disturbances may occur in any locality. They believe that this is the reason for the frequent sudden appearances of islands and shoals in the southern oceans. It is also claimed that when the ocean bed is raised in one place, there is a corresponding drop in some other section of the world.

The discovery of this strange phenomena was made recently when it was reported by the Eastern Cable Company that their cable between St. Helena and Capetown was broken at a spot some 700 miles north of the Cape. The cable had been laid in 1899 and had been in constant use.

On its arrival at the designated spot, the cable repair ship reported to London that, instead of the depth of the water being 2700 fathoms, or just over three statute miles, as stated on the chart, it was only a little more than three-quarters of a mile deep.

Lone Bettor Wins 1700 to One Odds

BOMBAY, India, Sept. 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Mr. Khambatta, a Bombay merchant, having idle time on his hands, recently wandered out to the races with the idea that he might put down a bet if anything looked good to him.

He saw Kletitor, in the second race, and the records showed that not a single person had backed him, even for place. Mr. Khambatta bought a ticket to win, paying 10 rupees. The animal came in one and three-quarter lengths in front. Mr. Khambatta was given 17,100 rupees, over 1700 to one, after the mathematicians had spent an hour working out a correct answer to the odds of the totalizer.

Barter With Russia Started in Earnest

GRIMSBY, Eng., Sept. 28.—(By Associated Press.)—Barter trading with Russia has been carried on for some time in small transactions, but the first steamer to carry a full load of goods for barter is shortly leaving here for the Kara Sea.

This is the steamer "Trotsky," owned by the Russian Norwegian Navigation Company, which will carry tea, coffee, wines, textiles and agricultural implements to be exchanged for furs, skins, swansdown and horsehair. These will be brought by caravan a distance of 2000 miles to a point on the Kara Sea, which the "Trotsky" will touch at.

A little while after the men were turned loose Ayers found that some of his silverware had been carried off, so now he has instituted another search for his visitors.

Woman Hysterical In Superior Court

Overjoyed at the favorable turn of a damage suit in which she was one of the defendants, Mrs. Ethel Neff of Berkeley, became excited to the point of hysteria in Superior Judge Mortimer Smith's court today. She tore her hat off her head and flung it to the floor.

The case was that of Chesley B. Kelley, comptometer operator for the Federal Reserve Bank, against Mrs. Neff; C. L. Huggins, city engineer of Berkeley, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allen. Kelley was suing for $10,000 damages. He said he had stepped into a hole in the sidewalk on Grant street and had fallen and knocked out his front teeth. Judge Smith today instructed the jury to return a verdict in favor of the defendants.

PIEDMONT WILL TAKE CARE OF OWN SICK CASES

Private Hospital Service to Be Utilized for All Emergencies.

PIEDMONT, Sept. 28.—Arrangements to take care of city emergency hospital cases in a private hospital, centrally located, are under way here following an investigation conducted by Dr. Arthur Fibush, Piedmont city health officer, to determine an efficient method of handling such cases. At present such cases from Piedmont are handled at the Oakland emergency hospital. The objection to handling Piedmont cases in this manner, Dr. Fibush stated today, is the distance from Piedmont to the Oakland emergency hospital.

Dr. Fibush said that he had spoken to the management of Fabiola hospital about the matter, and that they told him they hoped to be able to handle Piedmont emergency cases after November 1, as they will have more room at that time.

Zoning Ordinance Will Be Debated

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 28.—Arrangements for a debate on the proposal to adopt a city zoning ordinance will be made at a public meeting of citizens of San Leandro to be held October 18, it was announced today by U. S. Ackles, secretary of the chamber of commerce here. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the chamber probably in one of the school buildings here, Ackles said.

Protests on Lumber Yard Prove Futile

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 28.—There can be no legal redress nor official action on the part of the city council in the protest of property owners on Davis street against the proposed establishment of a lumber yard at Davis and Clark streets, it was announced here today by A. E. Pelton, chairman of the city council. Pelton declared that only a zoning ordinance could give the property owners a right of protest.

Pelton said that as long as the building constructed complies with fire regulations and the business conducted complies with police regulations no legal action can be taken by the council.

A noiseless trolley is to be installed in St. Paul and Minneapolis.

OLD BUILDINGS ARE CONDEMNED

A big old building at the northwest corner of Sixteenth and San Pablo used as a store and lodging house, was ordered destroyed by the city board of condemnation, meeting in Commissioner Frank Colbourn's office last night.

The building has a frontage of 200 feet on San Pablo and 150 feet on Sixteenth street. It is very old, and building officials assert that its stability is now questionable.

Eight structures were condemned in all last night by the board of condemnation, making 22 now banned by this organization.

Under the law the owners of the buildings have a certain time in which to comply with the order of condemnation. After this time expires the structures are removed. Generally the owners themselves discuss the matter with the board of condemnation and reach an agreement.

The buildings condemned last night include: Northwest corner of Sixteenth street and San Pablo avenue; 1218 East Twelfth street; southeast corner of Twelfth avenue and East Twelfth street; 1243 East Twelfth street; 1222 to 1230 East Twelfth street; 1100 Thirteenth avenue; 1129 Thirteenth avenue; 1301 Hopkins street.

A. F. L. OUTLAWS PRESS STRIKE

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(By Associated Press.)—George L. Berry, president of the International Web Pressman's and Assistant's Union, today announced receipt of a telegram from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, approving the international's action in outlawing the local pressmen's union which struck a week ago Monday night in alleged violation of an agreement with the parent body and with the Publishers' association of New York.

The message declared that "unless the pressmen redeem themselves from this awful blunder," Berry is justified "in resorting to every means" within his power to keep the original contract inviolable.

Czar's ex-Captain Now Is U. S. Private

NEW YORK (United Press), Sept. 29.—Alexander Tchouvaldji, formerly a captain in the Czar's army, is now a private in the U. S. army, having enlisted in New York the other day. He has had a remarkable career. He was wounded three times in the World War, shot by Kerensky's raiders, found with Wrangel's White army and later fled from the Bolsheviki.

Manager Returns From Eastern Trip

Eli Schwarzbaum, one of the board of managers of Kahn Bros., Inc., after an absence of five weeks returned to Oakland yesterday and was greeted upon the opening of the store by a reception from a group of thirty "Dons," all employees and members of the Kahn association. Schwarzbaum was presented with an emblem of flowers in the Dons of Peralta colors.

Business in New York, he said, is passing through a metamorphic state, with buyers using caution yet thoroughly optimistic over prospects for a heavy fall season. In Seattle he found the department store business brisk, and in Los Angeles a heavy buying of early fall merchandise. The large amount of currency in circulation, he said, substantiates rumors in the east that throughout the country the Christmas buying will reach higher marks than for several years past.

LIFT CURTAINS! SEE SCENES TWO CENTURIES PAST

Would View Spanish Court? Then Go to Grand Ball of Obanesla!

By FLORENCE MONTGOMERY.

Noiselessly the curtains have been drawn. Softly gowned figures of acolytes take shape behind the blaze of their swinging censors and the procession advances toward you. The cardinal, impressive in his quiet dignity and power, enters. It is a moment for reverence. The tall figure in his red robe and head dress as he moves forward under the swaying canopy carried by four attendants, looks kindly into the faces of the subjects of the kingdom.

STREAM INTO LIGHT.

The cardinal has passed. Heads are lifted. Two bishops are passing arrayed in dark flowing gowns. The procession moves on toward the raised dais at one end of the court room. A light fanfare of the trumpets! Ladies of the court and men at arms stream through the great entrance into the light. At their head is the Generalissimo of the court. The murmur of admiration grows to exclamations and the knights and ladies of the court of Spain are acclaimed.

Buglers advance. Suspense gives way to anticipation. Bugles are lifted. Martial music sounds the royal march. The King! In robes of state and royal crown he comes. All bow low for the King is passing. Four tiny figures, black pages in Moorish garb, carry the royal robe.

All turns to a feeling of frivolity as the King's jester now leaps, and tumbles, now mimics with stately step, in the wake of His Royal Majesty.

Another fanfare. Blonde pages, slim and lovely in their scarlet doublet and hose presage the coming of the Queen. Her Highness advances regal in her beauty and attended by more diminutive Moors who carry the corners of her royal robe.

APPROACH THRONE.

The royal pair approach the throne. All eyes watch the kneeling figure of the Spanish Queen as she is crowned. The sparkling diadem now rests upon her regal head and she turns to smile on her royal subjects.

While in far away lands Spanish padres from this same court are setting foot for the first time on the golden shores of California, His Majesty the King of Spain is leading his Queen to rule by his side.

"Long live the King and Queen!"

Trumpets sound. A way is cleared. Enter the royal favourite, a dancer famed throughout the Kingdom. To the music of the royal orchestra the click of her castanets sounds with the flash of her white arms. Come more dancers—and more—a hundred of them—and more. It is the royal ballet. The court revels in the beauty, color, music, joy and life of it.

FROM OLD SPAIN'S LIFE.

A night from the eighteenth century Spanish court this; pillaged bodily, as it were, from the actual life of old Spain and transported for the joy and entertainment of the subjects of another and modern kingdom—Obapesla!

She who looked into the crystal of the past and has faithfully transported the vision which took place so long ago is Mrs. Katherine White, chairman of the board of managers for the Grand Ball of Obapesla which marks the climax of Fiesta de la Laguna.

Dons of Peralta in the court of Obapesla with their ladies and the subjects of the Kingdom will experience the sight of grandeur did those of the king's court two centuries ago. The court scene of 1792 and the royal procession and coronation at the Obapesla ball this evening will be one and the same.

Oil of some nature was used in the construction of the pyramids.

TEACHER QUITS AFTER QUARREL

STOCKTON, Sept. 28.—Prof. John G. Iliff, head of the history department at Stockton High school for years, has mailed his resignation to the Board of Education, following a verbal tilt with Principal Noel Garrison early in the week in which Iliff was suspended for one day. Neither will discuss the suspension, but it was learned it followed a discussion of school room methods. Iliff is said to have been frankly outspoken in criticising Garrison during their discussion. Recently Iliff returned from a tour of Europe where he took 21 high school boys. He is very popular and is the author of several text books on history. "I am taking this course because I believe it the best way out of an unpleasant situation," states the history department head.

Broderick To Wage Fight On Gamblers

WOODLAND, Sept. 28.—Sheriff J. W. Monroe will be the principal speaker at a mass meeting of Broderick citizens tonight to discuss ways and means of eliminating gambling dens in the Yolo town. The call for a mass meeting by R. P. Peek, representative citizen of Broderick, followed a raid two nights ago by Monroe and Constable Henry Buckingham. It was discovered that the alleged Mongolian gamblers had sentries out and warned all gambling places of the approach of officers. As a result the raid was futile, there being no arrests or seizures.

Broderick is determined to eliminate some five gambling houses opened within the past six weeks. A list of a hundred or more men will be given Monroe with the recommendation that he make them deputy sheriffs, with full power to handle the situation.

GRAPES UNHURT BY RECENT RAIN

LIVERMORE, Sept. 28.—Tuesday's rain storm did not injure the large grape crop in the Livermore Valley in the slightest according to local grape growers. Rain gauge at the Concannon ranch showed a rainfall of 1.02 inches but the cool weather and the light wind which followed the storm dried off the grapes and no damage was done.

Picking which had stopped at the first sign of rain was resumed today and shipments of grapes to eastern markets will be made this week.

The grape crop in the valley will be extremely large this year and it was feared that the rain would destroy the entire crop but the grapes harvested today are in perfect condition.

U. S. Tax Association Selects Officers

Thomas W. Page, assistant director of the institue of economics, Washington, was elected vice-president, and Alfred E. Holcomb, assistant secretary of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, was re-elected secretary of the association.

New members of the executive committee chosen were Harry P. Sneed, comptroller for the state tax commission of Louisiana; Professor H. L. Lentz of Leland Stanford University, Palo Alto, Cal.; G. MAN ACCUSED AS STOKES AGENT TRIES SUICIDE

Former Deputy Sheriff Is Foiled in Six-Floor Death Leap.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Robert H. Lee, former deputy sheriff, identified with the alleged plot to defame the character of Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes, wife of the New York millionaire, today tried to leap from the window of the office of the state's attorney on the sixth floor of the county building.

Detective Murphy, who was guarding Lee and another witness, grabbed the man and dragged him from the window sill.

"I want to end it all," Murphy said Lee told him.

The suicide attempt followed testimony of B. E. Firse that Lee offered him $1500 and expenses if he would testify that Mrs. Stokes was friendly with a certain negro.

Radio Stations At San Leandro Busy

SAN LEANDRO, Sept. 28.—Radio stations here are picking up, according to J. E. Faustina, one of San Leandro's leading amateur radio experts.

During the summer months, Faustina said, it has been difficult to get in touch with any distant stations. Faustina said, however, that with the coming of fall many stations have now gotten in touch with Detroit, Vancouver, Calgary, and other more distant stations. This winter Faustina intends to develop his set so that he can get in touch with radio stations on the eastern coast.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism? A California Man Asks This Question.

Stockton.—"Dr. Pierce's Anuric (anti-uric-acid) Tablets have given me relief from rheumatic pains in my joints and from sharp cutting pains in my back and loins. At times I would be in such condition that I could not move, if I was sitting, I could not arise; if standing, could not sit down. Anyone who has suffered in this way will understand what I mean, and it is with the hope that someone who still suffers and wants relief may learn of my case and seek the same remedy that I give this statement for publication. When I was a boy I lived in Buffalo, N. Y., and knew of Dr. Pierce's famous remedies."—Frank J. Maynard, Sr., 1705 S. Sutton St.

(Since it is such a simple matter to step into a drug store and obtain Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets, anyone who earnestly desires to regain health and new life will waste no time in obtaining them. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package.)

REPRISALS ARE THREATENED BY RURAL BLOCS

Appropriation Bills May Be Held Up if 'Help' Is Not Given Farmers.

By LAWRENCE MARTIN,
(Copyright, 1923, by United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Unless effective help is rendered the farmers, the agricultural and liberal blocs in Congress will get behind a farm subsidy bill in December, the money for which will be slashed ruthlessly from appropriations for government departments.

This is the heroic measure determined on by block leaders who are putting the utmost pressure on the administration to start action on the agricultural problem.

If such a revolutionary step were resorted to it would mean wrecking of the government's whole budget program and would involve a fight to a knockout between administration forces and the liberals who will hold the balance of power in congress.

Just what form the bill would take has not been determined, as bloc leaders who have discussed the plan say they will hold it as a last resort, keeping it as a club over the administration to force action instead of mere talk and conference about the farmer.

But the idea back of the plan is that no money shall be granted for the shipping board, or for numerous bureaus of the government until appropriations would be slashed heavily, or refused entirely and a general filibuster against administration legislation of every sort would be instituted in a relentless drive to force from party leaders a definitely helpful program for agriculture.

Farm bloc leaders are disposed to give Coolidge a fair chance to canvass the situation and agree with his advisors on a remedy. They realize he must have some time, but let December come with nothing done and their reprisals will begin.

This Night School Is For Foreigners

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—(By United Press.)—Believing that a knowledge of the English language reduces accident, reduces turnover, stabilizes labor, and induces efficiency, the Americanization Bureau of the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce has written all manufacturers here urging them to send their foreign-born employees to schools at night. The bureau arranged for the display of posters in five languages; English, German, Polish, Italian and Yiddish, in public places, in all factories, and in motion picture houses, calling attention to the facilities offered in twelve public schools for education in night classes.

Prince Welcomes Breeders During Outing on Ranch

E. P. RANCH, PEKISKO, Alberta, Sept. 28. (By The Associated Press). — "Fellow Albertans, you are welcome and I hope you will enjoy the outing. My ranch is open to you today—go as far as you like."

This greeting from Edward, Prince of Wales, put 300 persons who attended the annual picnic of the Alberta Shorthorn Breeders' Association at the E. P. ranch, yesterday, at their ease and they took the royal rancher at his word. They inspected the buildings, the cattle, the horses, talked livestock with the prince and then asked him to pose for snapshots, which he did.

Young Woman Taken On Bad Check Charge

Charged with attempting to pass a worthless check on two East Oakland banks, Mrs. Dorothy Bell, 19 years old, of 6024 Fortune way, was arrested today. When the Twenty-third avenue branch of the Oakland Bank refused to honor the check, which was for $25, Mrs. Bell took it to the American Bank's branch at Thirty-fourth avenue and attempted to pass it there, according to the police. Bank officials telephoned police headquarters and Mrs. Bell was arrested by Inspector V. J. Coley.

NOVEL METHOD USED TO TEACH ARITHMETIC

A new method of teaching arithmetic, the "hatred method," has been discovered at Lincoln school and, according to educational officials, is proving very satisfactory.

The fifth and sixth grades were showing very low scholarship in arithmetic. Investigation brought forth opinions from the students that they "hated arithmetic." The school faculty was stumped. Finally, for an experiment, they placed the accounts of the mid-morning lunch in the hands of the arithmetic haters, ordering them to make sales and collect the nickels and dimes. The actual, concrete examples of arithmetic interested the classes so far that they have now taken entire charge of the school provision funds and are making creditable scores in their classes.

JUDGE, LAWYERS, JURY IN DEBATE AT POLICE TRIAL

Comparison of Statements Made by Bettencourt Starts Extended Debate.

Out of a verbal wrangle in which attorneys for the defense, jurors, deputy district attorneys and the presiding judge all took part, there emerged in the trial of E. S. Bettencourt today, apparently grave discrepencies in the story told by Joseph Barba, complaining witness in the case, when he was on the stand two days ago, and that told by him at the investigation of the by him atthe investigation of the case conducted by Captain J. F. Lynch, then acting chief of police.

Bettencourt, a former Oakland policeman, is on trial on charges of extortion. He is alleged to have secured $25 from Barba on threats of arrest.

After Bettencourt had told his story today and was being cross examined by Deputy District Attorney Wade Snook, he was shown a portion of a statement taken by James Meegan, private secretary to Chief of Police J. C. Drew.

Attorney Myron Harris demanded to see the statement. A court recess was called and, following this, Harris demanded that Bettencourt be excused while Barba was recalled to the stand for further cross examination. This was resisted by Snook. Harris said,

"EXTENDED DEBATE."

"Barba testified that his wife marked the money given this defendant and that she witnessed the transaction. I have read just far enough in this statement to find that, at the time of the police investigation, Barba said that his wife did not mark the money nor see it given the defendant."

Harris again demanded a copy of the testimony. Harris then asked Superior Judge F. A. Jamison to instruct Snook to allow him to sit beside the prosecutor while he called Barba back to the stand and cross examined him on the evidence as disclosed at the hearing.

Judge Jamison said he had not that power. At this point one of the jurors, Laura A. Hanecamp, entered the argument by saying,

"Your Honor, don't you think that it would be more fair to this jury if that entire document was read to us?"

Attorney Harris shouted: "I certainly do."

Barba was then called to the stand and just before he was questioned another tilt occurred when Snook asked Harris if Barba was now a defense witness or under further cross examination.

To this Harris replied, "Don't misunderstand me. I could not have this type of a man for a witness, he is still yours."

Judge Jamison sharply reproved Harris, saying,

"Don't use such language in the presence of the jury. You have no business to do it."

Barba was questioned as to his acquaintance with two men who called at his home with Bettencourt on the night of the alleged extortion. He said he had not known them previous to that time. His testimony at the police investigation was then read, showing that he had said that he knew one of the men as "Pat" and that he had been at the Barba home once before that night.

DEFENDANT'S EVIDENCE.

Bettencourt, while a witness in his own behalf, told of rumors that reached him that the Barba home was being run as a disorderly house and that bootlegging was in progress there. He said he first visited the house on May 29, and again on the following day. On that occasion he met Barba, he said, and informed him of what he had learned.

In reply Barba threatened to have him "broken" in the department and "railroaded."

In spite of this Bettencourt again visited the place on June 8, taking two men with him. He showed Barba his star and said that he had secured conclusive evidence against the place, Bettencourt testified. Barba then jumped to his feet, said Bettencourt, and pointing a finger at the defendant said, "I know your number now and I will see that you are chased out of the department."

Bettencourt then said, "That's the end of this for you. You move out of here or I will arrest you," he testified.

Following this he left the house, he said, and received no money from Barba then or at any other time.

Greece Ready to Pay Janina Indemnity

ATHENS, Sept. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—It is understood that the Greek government has decided to accept the decision of the allied conference of ambassadors awarding the Greek indemnity deposit of fifty million lire to Italy.

A note to this effect will be handed to the French minister today, it is expected. The note will also express regret that the ambassadors' conference did not await termination of the international inquiry into the Janina massacre before making its decision.

CHAPLIN PUTS CO-STAR INTO SCREEN TRAGEDY

By STEVE HANNAGAN,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Charlie Chaplin has come to New York to make his first serious effort at drama.

The funny man, who would rather play Hamlet than create laughs, has written and directed a tragedy in moving pictures. He could not play it himself, for the public would not take him seriously.

So he raised Edna Purviance, his co-star in many comedies, to the role of a heroine of tragedy. He is serious by proxy.

Chaplin is making final arrangements for the opening of "The Woman of Paris" Monday night. It is the comedian's realistic impression of life.

"My picture doesn't end in a clinch," said Chaplin. "I hate clinches. The man commits suicide and the girl goes to the rural section to work out her salvation. The plot starts with a broken telephone conversation. It is life," declared Chaplin.

Deserted in Six Days, Wife Claims

Six days after they were married Charles E. Mickens declared he "could not stand captivity" and left her and then went to San Francisco with another woman, registering her as his wife, charges Mrs. Etta E. Mickens in a divorce complaint filed today by Judge Herbert E. Wise.

After the desertion, Mrs. Mickens declares, she found out that her husband had lived with this woman previous to their marriage, which occurred in Santa Barbara on May 16 last. The desertion took place in Los Angeles and Judge Wise declares the Los Angeles police are looking for Mickens on the charge of automobile theft.

Downtown Association Has Suggestions for New Parking Rules.

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Going on record against making Shattuck avenue a one-way street before certain changes are effected and recommending new parking regulations to the council, the Berkeley Downtown Business Association at a meeting last night in the city hall discussed the local traffic situation, and ordered a report submitted to the city council, now considering new traffic laws.

The transportation and safety committee of the association, headed by Earl J. Sinclair, recommended that the west side of Shattuck avenue remain a two-way thoroughfare until the following changes are made:

PRUNE-APRICOT OUTLOOK BRIGHT, SAYS MORTENSEN

General Manager of Growers Finds Eastern Demand for Fruit Heavy.

SAN JOSE, Sept. 28.—The outlook for the prune and apricot industry is very bright and brokerage facilities for the selling of association products have been more than double, was the word brought to this city by A. M. Mortensen, general manager of the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association, on his return from a business trip in the interests of the association to the eastern markets.

"The market is improving," Mortensen said, after his arrival in San Jose yesterday. "Buyers who were formerly taking only 200 or 300 boxes of prunes or apricots at a time are now buying by the carload lot. We have increased the number of brokers who sell association fruit from 58 to 127, and will add to this number immediately. Taking it all around, I am quite optimistic over the outlook for the association."

Mortensen also stated that he has found a market for slabs, the split fruit which growers have had much difficulty in disposing of in the past. This announcement will be hailed with joy by the growers, according to association officials.

During his trip to Chicago and New York markets Mortensen succeeded through sales of spot stock in warehouses in New York City and Brooklyn in reducing the 1922 carry-over crop of prunes, from 40,000,000 pounds to less than 15,000,000, the balance being all first-class stock of both the Sunsweet and Growers' brands put out by the association.

Mortensen stated that he found fruit in general to be cheap this year. He said that there is a heavy crop of most fruits, especially of apples, which tends to keep prices down.

Sales Manager Vernon Barlow of the association is still in the East conferring with brokers who will sell fruit for the association.

Club Backs Carter Waterfront Plans

Albert H. Carter, commissioner of public works, urged adoption of plans for developing the waterfront in a talk before the Mutual Business club at the Hotel Oakland yesterday. He predicted that if the people of Oakland will attack the problem with sufficient determination and vision, it will be possible to have the greatest harbor on the Pacific coast at this point. Confidence in Carter's development plans and a pledge to support him in carrying them out, were embodied in a resolution adopted by the club.

With three days remaining, the Eastbay Manufacturers' Exposition at Idora Park is presenting unusual features as the closing events of the industrial show.

Great crowds were attracted to the exposition during the week by the exhibit of the Dons of Peralta. One booster from Stockton, much interested in the replicas of buildings used to represent the cities, will employ Miss Elisabeth Lopez, exposition decorator, to assist in future celebrations in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys.

The big Better Baby show was held today with 500 babies entered as contestants. This show has grown to such an extent that room for all of the entries could scarcely be found. Physicians from the Baby hospital judged the babies and decided the winners.

VALUATION FOR BRIDGE LANDING SET BY EXPERT

San Franciscan Puts Price of $125,000 On Half Acre Near Valona.

MARTINEZ, Sept. 28.—A valuation of $150,000 was fixed yesterday afternoon by Hall Wells of San Francisco, former government appraiser, on a strip of land at Valona less than one-half acre in extent, when he testified before a jury in Superior Judge H. V. Alvarado's court in suit instituted by the Rodeo-Vallejo Ferry Company to condemn the property as a terminal for its Carquinez Straits bridge. The Crockett Land & Cattle Company, owner of the property and defendant in the action, values the land at $225,000 and asks judgment for that amount.

In qualifying as an expert witness for the defense, Wells declared he had many large appraisements for the government, including appraising of the Coronado Beach properties, and that his appraisements had been on all types of land extended from the gulf to the Canadian border and throughout all of the western states. He was for several years president of the National Association of Appraisers and was employed as appraisers by the Southern Pacific and other railroads on the Southern Pacific and other railroads on various projects. His appraisements, he declared, included placing values on numerous ferry landings about San Francisco bay. The appraised value of the land acquired by the Southern Pacific for its ferry landing at South Vallejo he fixed at $300,000 and he set a like sum for the bridge terminal near Eckley, proposed as a site for a Carquinez Straits bridge by two concerns.

In basing his value of $150,000 for the strip at Valona, Wells declared he predicated it largely on the usage to which the land is to be put and its value to the company desiring to acquire it. Wells was the first witness called by the defense to testify as to the value of the property.

The ferry company's only witness was Charles J. Derleth Jr., University of California professor and designer of the bridge. Derleth testified to plans for the structure and the necessity of acquiring the land company's property. The ferry company also introduced in evidence various maps and diagrams of the location of the bridge and of the span and acts of the board of supervisors, state engineer and war department granting permission to erect the bridge.

WARNING AGAINST POOR GRAPES OUT

GILROY, Sept. 28.—A distinct warning in regard to shipping poor grapes was given by F. Flossfeder of the state department of agriculture to forty local grape growers at a meeting in the city hall. Flossfeder spent eleven years as an instructor in viticulture at the university farm at Davis.

His warning came as a result of the poor condition in which the grapes from this locality were shipped last year and he called the attention of those present to the fact that if they shipped nothing but the best quality they would create a demand in eastern markets for Gilroy grapes.

The car shortage which occurred last year will occur again this year but in all probability will not be quite as serious, he said. It is expected that 60,000 cars of grapes will be shipped from this state this year, which is an increase of 20,000 cars over last year.

At the conclusion of the address the speaker called for questions from the growers and an interesting discussion followed.

RAILROAD BOARD RULING TANGLES MONTEREY LINES

New Complications Added to Peninsula Street Car Franchise Snarl.

MONTEREY, September 28. — The latest complication in the street carbus line jangle on the Monterey Peninsula came to light today, when attorneys for the Bay Rapid Transit Company, which operates the bus line, announced receipt of a decision of the State Railroad Commission, granting all the petitions of the company set forth at the hearing here on July 24. Among these was a request for abandonment of service on the trunk line of the company from the intersection of Alvarado, Pearl and Polk streets, with Munras avenue, to the county road beyond Oak Grove, the reduction of the inter-city fare between Monterey and Pacific Grove from 10 cents to five cents, and the extension of the local line from Pine street, through the military reservation at the Presidio of Monterey, over High street to Franklin and thence through the main part of town to the county road beyond Oak Grove.

Fifteen days are given Messrs. Spoon and Mason, owners of the line, to file schedule of their rates and a time table. There will be no transfer privilege permitted where the local line crosses the trunk line at Franklin and Alvarado streets.

This action on the part of the state commission, coming within a few hours after receipt of a petition of the Monterey city council for hearing before the first-named body, with a view to elimination of the bus line from the streets of Monterey, has completely upset all conjectures upon the matter.

Monterey people, it is asserted, do not want the bus line. Pacific Grove seems to favor the bus line in preference to the street car system, the rails for which have recently been removed, under injunction, from the main thoroughfare of the Grove city.

Hunter Wears Red to Save His Life

KINGSTON, N. C., Sept. 28.—(By United Press.)—"I'm tired of being shot at," Dr. George E. Kornegay said, explaining the reason for a flaming scarlet hunting coat and cap for himself and red blankets for his pack of beagles.

"I may look like the Fourth of July, but I'm going to have safe and sane holidays in the future. I've been peppered with small shot three times by other huntsmen. The boobs always claim they didn't see me."

So Dr. Kornegay will do his rabbit hunting in the future dressed as a picturesque fox hunter of old.

"I saw something coming through the brush and thought it was a rabbit," Dr. Kornegay said. "I banged away at it and shot a dog—not one of my pets, but somebody else's. It taught me a lesson."

THE GASOLINE TAX

On Monday, October 1, 1923, as the result of a law passed by the last session of the California Legislature, motorists and other users of gasoline in California will begin to pay a tax of two cents for each gallon of gasoline, or "motor vehicle fuel", purchased.

Accordingly, the Standard Oil Company will on Monday, October 1, 1923, and from then on as long as the law is in effect, include the amount of the prescribed tax of two cents in the price of each gallon of motor vehicle fuel sold and delivered by it in the State of California, except on such fuel sold and delivered to the United States Government, or for export, and on kerosene.

This Company will make return of the tax as provided by the law to "the State Controller of this State" together with a verified statement on a form "to be prescribed, prepared and furnished by the State Board of Equalization"

The law provides that any person who purchases gasoline, or "motor vehicle fuel", for purposes other than use in motor vehicles operating on the public highways, shall be repaid the amount of the tax on the gasoline he purchases. He can obtain refund of the tax thus paid by application to the State Controller, supported by affidavit covering the facts and by invoices.

The law further provides that "all motor vehicle fuel used by a distributor in the operation of any motor vehicle shall for the purposes of this act be considered ... as though the same had been sold by the distributor." Therefore, this Company also is required to pay a tax of two cents on every gallon of motor vehicle fuel, except kerosene, used in the operation of any and all of its motor equipment in the State of California.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1923

IN GERMANY.

It is as difficult to apply motion to an idle object as it is to halt one which is under way. The machinery which has been stopped in Germany under the policy of passive resistance, is not to be started with the mere announcement of a change in plans. The Ruhr is entangled in the complications it has developed.

Announcement by Chancellor Stresemann that the passive policy is to end is important as marking a change in view. At the same time it is a call upon the entire German population to stand by the Government in one of the most trying times it has faced. Already the railway workers and others have refused flatly to turn a hand so long as the French occupy the district. Once more a test is to be made. Stresemann must prove his power to bring an end to a situation which has been months in the growing and which carries with it an intense popular feeling.

The crisis which has come with the attempt to end the deadlock is shaking all of Germany today. The Government, from all despatches, is sorely tried to maintain order, a dictator—perhaps two dictators—is in the saddle, and a state of seige obtains. If Stresemann wins and the decision of his party is carried out, some sort of settlement will be made with France and Germany will be relieved of that uncertainty which has ruined her credit. If Stresemann is overthrown it will be by those who refuse to deal with Poincaire and a new nation built upon defiance and bankruptcy will have to struggle to keep from disintegration.

The news from Germany is of the utmost importance to Europe and the whole world. It represents, perhaps, the inevitable consequences of the ruinous occupation and a blow to the German people far more severe than would have been struck had the conquering allies marched through the land following the Armistice.

It is natural that France looks for reprisals and reparations. In that country which was partly devastated the anger and resentment is kept alive. Despite the sufferings of the people great material wealth remains in Germany. If the Stresemann government falls the cost of collecting a part of that material wealth in the form of reparations will mount to staggering figures. There is an ironic twist in circumstances when, just at the time a German chancellor was ready to pay, the very conditions caused by the long and silent struggle in the Ruhr threaten to engulf him and his government.

Poincaire sees the money held toward him in a cloud of smoke and, fearful that it will be destroyed in the flames, knows he can do nothing but wait for the fire to go out.

WITH LATIN AMERICA.

In ten years the trade of the United States with Latin America has increased 111 per cent. It has jumped from 798 million dollars to more than a billion and a half, and during the past fiscal year represented 22 per cent of our trade with all the world.

There is a sound belief that with proper cultivation and attention to problems this trade would reach one-third of the total. As the bulk of the imports from these countries are raw materials to be worked up in American factories by American labor the field is an ideal one to cultivate. Those things which are not raw materials, as bananas, coffee, cocoa, etc., are in the group of non-competitive articles.

There are many factors present to explain the desirability of developing trade with the Latin Americas. First, our tariff policy, essential because of the low labor standards and production costs of Europe and the Orient, which compete with us in manufactured goods, bears more lightly on the Latin Americas than on other groups of countries. Cuba is the only Latin country which has voiced any decided opposition to the present tariff law because of her specialization in sugar. But she receives a 20 per cent preferential in our market on this commodity, whereby she is in a position to compete with any other foreign country.

Second, the question of invisible exchange presents no such problem in our relations with the Latin Americas as it does with other countries. Movements of capital to, and some tourist expenditure in, the Latin Americas are considerable, but they are conducive to still better trade relations and more friendly associations.

Third, this is a trade unlikely to arouse the jealousy or ire of the participants. European and Oriental countries may watch its expansion with envious eyes, and they undoubtedly will propagandize in the future as they have in the past to impair it. Apprised of that fact we must be on our guard. But in general the trade of the United States and the Latin Americas is complementary rather than competitive, and such are the environment and temperament and characteristics of the Latin Americans that it will be some generations before industrial competition between the peoples of the Northern and Southern Republics will show pressure.

In Mexico and the lands pointed out by the Florida peninsula, as well as in the Orient, is the opportunity for foreign trade which will offset those losses which may come because of an impoverished Europe.

BALFOUR AND TARIFF.

With Sir Arthur Balfour, who has recently published a remarkable interview in the London Times predicting changed conditions in America, the wish is the father of the thought. Yet, in what this distinguished Englishman says there is material for some political speculation.

Sir Arthur is a businessman. He sees increased prosperity for his country at the expense of the United States if the tariff laws here are changed downward. The prediction which he makes, and in which his wishes figure so strongly, is that after the next presidential election there will be enough Democrats in Congress to lower the American tariff schedule. Then, says Balfour, "there will be a period of depression for three or four years."

Of course Sir Arthur Balfour cannot be accused of delivering a Republican argument. What he says is significant as the view of British business as to what would take place in this country if the Democratic party were to win the next election. It is easy to agree with him that a considerable modification of the Fordney tariff would bring industrial changes not to our advantage, but it is not so easy to agree that the next election will bring this about.

CRUELTY TO BEANS.

In all seriousness, perhap too much, it has been decided that the man who places a Mexican bean in the sunlight and watches it jump is not guilty of cruelty to animals or beans.

This momentous question was first broached in Santa Barbara where some good folk discovered with misgivings an assortment of beans leaping about in the show window to the delight of those who pressed curious noses against the pane. It was apparent that the more sunlight the more jumps and forthwith came a protest. The larva in the bean, the argument went, is an unsuspecting and harmless creature. Surely if the sun makes it writhe and leap those contortions must be of pain. The thing to do was to make all possessors of Mexican beans keep them in the shade.

It does not seem possible but the protest went way up to a high organization official in San Francisco who weighed the evidence and discussed the bean. He gave it as his opinion that as the bean is accustomed to the heat of the Mexican deserts there was no cruelty involved. It also came out that the larva stretches for a purpose, it tests its strength before seeking a way out. The cruel thing to do would be to prevent the stretching, to put the bean in a shaded and cold spot where the poor little larva must shiver and die.

With so many large problems coming before the country with another campaign year and with Congress getting ready to assemble and the football season on the way, it is fortunate that this matter has been cleared up.

The Whiskerinos came, saw, and tantalized the local barbers.

From all accounts the Prince of Wales is doing his farming on a golf course.

IN 1876 AND IN 1918.

The sharp contrast between the year 1876, when Sitting Bull was leading the Sioux warriors against the white settlers, and the year 1918, when Chief Albert Grass of the Sioux nation died in Soissons, France, fighting for America, is emphasized in a letter written to the National Republican by Mrs. Albert E. Jones, state war mother of North Dakota. Mrs. Jones' comment was prompted by her interest in the article on Buffalo Bill, by Roger Pocock, in a recent issue.

"Only last week," writes Mrs. Jones, "I met in council with Indian women who are members of our American War Mothers' Association. These war mothers of the Sioux nation can remember the days of frontier warfare, and there were several old chiefs who, during the four hours of our council, guarded this ceremonial tent as in the old days they had guarded more weighty and far different councils. They are all that are left of the old band of 'white horse riders'—Old Chief White Cow Walking, Crow Ghost, Red Fish and others whose names I cannot recall. Some of our war mothers of this Cannonball chapter are able to speak English. The majority of them do not, but all are devoted to the order." The American War Mothers' organization is probably the only one in which Indian women take active part. The North Dakota division, which Mrs. Jones believes to be the only state group boasting Indian members, has chapters among the Gros Ventres, Bullheads, Arikara or Rees, and the Mandans, as well as the chapter of Sioux mothers.—National Republican.

The Old Soak's History of the World.

CHAPTER XXIV.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—Well, me and Al and Pierre, the shofer, went out to this Verrsigh place the other day and seen where the old kings used to live, and I will say it must of took quite a gang of hired girls to keep that place going, to say nothing of the back yard, which is as big as a county fair grounds, and in the old days all them fountains use-t-to be spouting vang instead of water. Well, theyr ain't enough difference between the two to get a man excited when he has been brought up on hard liquor, France is only one jump ahead of prohibishin, as far as I can see, with vang and beer and all them soft drinks, you hardly ever see any of the French drinking hard liquor.

• • •

This old Looey Cat Horse that built the place was some bird. In his day, theyr is a statue of him on his horse in the front yard, and all around twenty or thirty other statues of kings and dukes he knocked out or got the decision onto, and when he would knock out a king he would say, what the hell, what kind of a looking wife has this bird got.

Well, your majesty, the john darm would say, she is considerable looker, or she ain't, as the case might be, and Looey Cat Horse would say, You trot her over to the palace, I will see for myself.

And if she was quite a looker he would sign her on.

• • •

After while the Verrsigh palace got filled up with queens and concord bynes he had signed up just like the old peetryarchs in the early days of the world, and he says what the hell, john darm, go and give orders for some more pallisses.

So they built some more pallisses all around the big pallis to hold the queens and concord bynes, and you can see the pallisses yet, they have turned them into hotels, theyr is room enough in each one of them for half a dozen queens and concord bynes, and them hotels has got the some hawty notions they had in the old days. They are the only places in France that makes you remember how much drinks cost in America, so far as I have seen.

• • •

He could set up on top of his big pallis and look for miles and miles in every direction, and one day he was setting up theyr and look out towards Paris and he seen quite a cloud of dust coming his way.

John darm, he says, what is that?

Your majesty, says the john darm, it looks to me like the French revoulshin was coming this way.

• • •

I thought I give orders theyr wasn't to be any, says the king.

These birds say theyr through taking orders, says the john darm.

What in the name of a hell, john darm, says the king, do they really mean business, this gang.

Wee, your majisty, says the john darm.

• • •

By that time the gang was all up in the court yard, yelling like ravelling wolves, it was getting seryus.

Fling them a queen, says the king.

So they pitched Louise La Valleroe offen the roof. That only stopped them for a minute.

Fling them another queen, says Looey Cat Horse.

No sooner said than done.

• • •

Pretty soon they began to run out of queens.

What shall we do now, yure majisty, says the head john darm.

What in the name of a hell, says the king, if the queens is all gone you will have to start in on the concord bynes. I hate it, but theyr doant look to be any other way out, they gotto go.

• • •

Just then Queen Maree Antonett came running up to the roof, and she fell onto her knees and says, Yure majisty, I am the last queen left, and I am the one theyr all after.

I can't bear to see these poor innocent concord bynes flung to the mob, when I am really the one they are all after. Fling me to the mob, yure majisty, and save the poor, innocent concord bynes.

Maree, the king says, you are a noble girl. It hurts me to refuse anything you ask me to do, but I cannot fling you to the mob. John darm, fill the big coach with concord bynes and have it waiting in the back yard at the foot of the secret staircase, I am going to save Maree if I can.

• • •

He climbed into the coach with Maree and took the reins himself, and they galluped the horses for Paris, and pretty soon the crowd got wise and gained onto them.

John darm, throw them a concord byne, shouts the king.

No sooner said than done.

But in two minutes they had hung her to a lamp post and was gaining on the king again, yelling they wanted Maree Antonett, and nobody else.

• • •

Fling them another concord byne says king Looey.

And all the way to Paris it went like that, with concord byne after concord byne being flung to the mob. Maree, says the king, if I can oncet get into the Loov I will save you yet.

But they turned over the carryage right on the Plass de Concord, whare theyr is a big spike sticking up now to mark the place, and king Looey took the name of Smith and escaped from the mob, but poor Maree had her head chopped off thare.

• • •

Me and Al and Pierre, the shofer, goes nearly every day and sits and looks at that big spike sticking up and things what a tough time that poor queen had. I will have something to say about Napollion, he was a humdinger, he was, he was one of the seven wonders of the world, if he had of had the weight to him that bird could have licked John L. Sullivan.

EXCERPTS from the NATIONAL PRESS

Deseret News: "It is important that boys be given as nearly as possible the kind of stories they like to read, so long as those stories are wholesome and clean. The Boy Scout organization is seeking to meet this need of the youngsters within their ranks. It is their aim, not to deprive the boy of literature with romance and adventure, but to see that he gets the best types of such literature."

Portland Oregonian: "Serious desire to curb the illegal use of firearms rather than belief that a panacea has been found lends interest to the method which is about to be tried in California. A new law has just gone into effect. It aims at regulation of sales without making it absolutely impossible for law-abiding citizens to obtain weapons for legitimate purposes. In this respect it is perhaps more promising than those other ordinances which had the practical effect of disarming the public while leaving to the criminal the usual resources at his command."

Detroit Free Press: "A thousand miles of five-strand wire fence, extending from El Paso to the Pacific coat, is to define the American-Mexican international boundary where it is not indicated by the windings of the Rio Grande. The cost of this fence is to be borne jointly by the two governments. Every two miles, pillars of concrete or iron are to bear notices that it is unlawful to climb over, under or through the fence."

Boston Transcript: "One of the chief functions of science nowadays is apparently to link the moral nature of man up with his physical equipment. We have been learning of late that to a very great extent criminals are as they are because their brain-pans are defective or out of order. Juvenile delinquencies and criminal tendencies are traced to adenoids. Tubercles can get into the consience as well as into the lungs. Cretinism is a potent cause of depravity. And now, by way of Director Guy A. Henry of the Eyesight Conservation Council of America, we learn that bad eyes make bad boys and budding criminals."

St. Louis Post-Dispatch: "Prof. John M. McFarlane has the biggest fish story of the age. His lifelong study of the relation of fish to petroleum has resulted, he says, in the establishment of the relation. Fish, he asserts, constitute the sole source of petroleum. Not only that, but they are a continuing source. Every such disturbance as the Japanese earthquake, he explains, results in the development of new deposits for the production of oil."

Philadelphia Ledger: "The farmers are going into the movies! Down on the farm the electric dishwasher is an old story and open-face plumbing is just part of a house. It has been that way for years. But the low-comedy 'hecker' in the mellerdrammer still says, 'Wal, I swan,' and wears a rangy set of chin whiskers, and, in the celluloid pastoral, hale old Uncle Applegate still stamps into the kitchen in boots and mittens and coonskin cap, with a load of firewood in his arms. The farmers, therefore, have gone into the movies—to show the world the American farmer as he really is."

Medford Mail Tribune: "'Man,' says the President, in his first public address, 'is still struggling for the nobler things,' and, he might have added, truthfully—a drink. The socalled human race may be 'struggling for the nobler things,' but, the main battle is for something with an alcoholic content. And those who are prone to believe this allegation, in whole or part, or doubt its accuracy, better beat it for a good eye doctor."

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

That which realty boards throughout California are doing to suppress frauds in real estate selling is deserving of highest commendation. Edwin T. Keiser, State Real Estate Commissioner, is lending all the assistance he can give in this good work. Swindlers who get into the real estate field should be handled with spiked-iron gloves. The public should be protected against these things.—Long Beach Press.

On account of a pressman's strike newspapers in New York City were suspended practically for several days. Several things developed as a result of the strike, but possibly the most interesting was an almost complete slump in department store business. The number of women shoppers decreased daily, though the stores were in the midst of their bargain season.—Watsonville Register.

It is now claimed that all these destructive fires we have been having in California are of incendiary origin. Sure they are. And according to George C. Pardee, Governor Richardson is the guilty chap.—Red Bluff News.

The peach and fig and the raisin associations are spending a great deal of money throughout the country in an effort to popularize their products, but they are woefully neglecting the home field. It might be said that Californians, and especially those of the San Joaquin valley, should eat these products without being reminded, but unfortunately that is not true and we need the demonstrations just as much as the East.—Merced Star.

Reports from the shooting districts are to the effect that ducks have been arriving in large numbers. There are "literally millions of them", as one sportsman put it. It seems, at any rate, that hunting will be unusually good this year, for it is reported from every section that there are more birds than ever before.—Oroville Register.

The United States Supreme Court has decided that the navy can not legally be used to enforce the prohibition laws. If the navy cannot be used, it stands to reason that the army cannot be called upon either, so the hopes of our long-haired men and short-haired women are blasted again. —Downieville Messenger.

The Supreme Court seems to be striking out rather impartially in its decisions on the budget cases, now upholding Governor Richardson and then upholding Controller Riley, until at long range it looks like honors might be considerably divided.—San Bernardino Sun.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

LINES FOR A FRIEND'S HOUSE.

God bless this house and all within it.
Let no harsh spirit enter in it,
Let none approach who would betray,
None with a bitter word to say.
Shield it from harm and sorrow's sting,
Here let the children's laughter ring,
Grant that these friends from year to year
Shall build their happiest memories here.

God bless this house and those who love it,
Fair be the skies which bend above it,
May never anger's thoughtless word
Within these sheltering walls be heard,
May all who rest beside this fire
And then depart, glad thoughts inspire,
And make them feel who close the door,
Friendship has graced their home once more.

God bless this house and those who keep it.
In the sweet oils of gladness steep it,
Endow these walls with lasting wealth,
The light of love, the glow of health,
The palm of peace, the charm of mirth,
Good friends to sit around the hearth,
And with each nightfall perfect rest—
Here let them live their happiest.

A SET OF QUESTIONS AIMED AT PUBLIC HEALTH

Editor of The Tribune:

Do you use the street car floor as a cuspidor? If you do are you a good citizen? Do you care about the public health? Use your reasoning faculties. You do not need to give money in order to be a philanthropist. Give a little thought as to whether you make the place you live in better or worse by your conduct. It is just as easy to learn not to spit on the street cars, on sidewalks, in depots and in public places as it is to be careless.

ANOTHER READER HAS MEMORY EARLY ECLIPSE

Editor of The Tribune:

Would like to say in regard to eclipse mentioned in the Forum that I remember the eclipse mentioned by Mrs. L. D. Myers and Mr. S., but I was in Virginia, Nev. I do not remember the month, but the year was 1889. I was very much surprised when I read in the papers of it being the first for so long.

If the one in September was an almost total eclipse the one in 1889 was total, for I could barely distinguish another person in the room. MRS. A. PROWSE.

LETTER FROM A GROWN CHILD.

Dear Doctor:

I am glad you explained to my wife about the liquor habit.

My grandfather and father both were heavy drinkers I have been drinking since the age of 17. I am now 25. I started drinking very much as you have described, out of a desire to show off and be a sport Aleck before other lads.

When I met my wife I thought I could stop drinking for her because I loved her. I did stop for six months, but found that I could not resist any longer.

I have a wonderful wife and baby, but I can see my wife's health is getting ruined from worry, and she never has been any too strong.

I am a laborer and do not earn much wages and the price of liquor is high and it keeps us in debt.

I would like to try the treatment you advise and would like to get all the information needed from you. Please use the addressed stamped envelope to let me know the price for this information and all about the treatment. (L. S. M.)

Our grandfathers and fathers are in large measures responsible for our weaknesses and deficiencies. But they are responsible in like measure for our good points. We have a fondness for indicting them for the former and throwing our chests over the latter—for we all like to strut around as self-made men.

This young fellow makes a noise like a man, but it remains to be seen whether he has really grown up. He writes just enough about that unfortunate wife and baby to give the impression that he does sincerely desire to become a man. But, as I told him in my answer to his letter, the first thing he has to do if he really expects to grow up and be a man is to acquit grandfather and father and shoulder the full responsibility for his own behavior. If grandpa and pa are still responsible in any way, he has no right to be married.

Given a real desire and determination on the part of the drinker to overcome his craving and rid himself of the curse of alcoholism, a method of medical treatment which is well known at the medical profession as the Lambert method may be used successfully by any physician anywhere, provided the patient can spend two of three weeks in a hospital under the absolute control and care of trained nurses or attendants. There is nothing secret, expensive or dangerous in this method of treatment and there is no reason why it can't be used with success in any hospital or sanitarium or even in the patient's home if the essential nursing attendance can be had at home.

NEW ALIBI.

Probably this isn't true, even though it emanates from the U. S. C. campus.

"Where were you last night?" demanded the wife of the overworked professor.

"Didn't I tell you I was out lecturing to a special class?"

"How about these poker chips which dropped out of your pocket?"

"Why, I lectured on blood. The red chips represented the red cells and the white were the white corpuscles."

"But how about these blue ones?"

"The blue ones represented the corpuscles of the venous blood."

"After this," snapped the wife, "cash in after your lectures."—Los Angeles Times.

EMPLOYER STOLE WIFE, IS CHARGE

$50,000 Asked in Suit by C. L. Peck, Former Oaklander, From Vincent E. Guidice, for Alienation

Ousted from his wife's affections by his employer, according to his complaint, C. L. Peck, formerly of Oakland, today has on file a $50,000 heart balm suit against Vincent E. Guidice, head of the local company for which Peck until recently worked as a salesman.

The wife of the plaintiff, Mrs. Mildred Pelletier Peck, is a member of a well known San Joaquin Valley family, and is 26 years old. The couple were married in March, 1916, and have three children, 3, 5 and 7 years of age. Mrs. Peck is now living with relatives in Selma, Fresno county, while Peck is working in Los Angeles.

The married life of the Pecks was happy, Peck says, until last October, when he invited his employer to his home and introduced him to his wife.

Guidice immediately became infatuated with Mrs. Peck, the husband asserts, and after an ardent courtship entreated her to leave Peck, promising her a better social position than her husband could give her. Guidice wrote numerous letters to her and made his protestations of affection verbally on many occasions, Peck says.

The result was that Mrs. Peck told her husband that she no longer cared for him, and that she wished to be free so that she could marry Guidice. The couple then separated, and the suit on file today followed.

Peck demands $50,000 from Guidice for the alleged alienation of Mrs. Peck's affections. His attorney explained that Peck had no desire for the money, but had filed the suit in an effort to break off the infatuation between his wife and Guidice, and to protect his home and children.

Guidice, seen in his office in the Syndicate building, declined to discuss the case.

"I know the Pecks," he said, "but beyond that I have nothing whatever to say."

Make Tests for Big Dam Above Jackson

JACKSON, Sept. 28. — The Crocker Estate company of San Francisco is about to send a diamond drill and operating crew into the wilds of Salt Springs, forty miles from this city, to test the bedrock for dam purposes. The company has in view the erection of a huge dam at that point, which would back up many miles of water, part of a gigantic irrigation project it is working on. Everything must be carried in on the backs of pack animals, owing to the absence of roads. The company has been hydraulicking at Volcano for several seasons with excellent results. Among its plans is a large dam at that place and the formation of another great reservoir which would include the present town of Volcano.

Yolo Hog Raisers Make Good Profit

WOODLAND, Sept. 28.—Robert Lockhard, manager of the hog department of the Yolo County Farm Bureau reports that in the two and a half years the department thirty-eight cars of hogs have been sold or auctioned to Sacramento, Oakland and San Francisco buyers for a total of $65,695.65.

Chivalry Frees Man Held in Death

REDONDO BEACH, Sept. 28.—Bert Lewis, held several days on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of Tony Arci, a longshoreman, was freed after a preliminary hearing before Police Judge Miller, who complimented Lewis on his chivalry as disclosed in the examination.

The crowd in the courtroom cheered when the court ordered the release of Lewis.

Arci died September 6. For many days the cause of his death was a mystery. Then the police arrested Lewis, who was said to have admitted he struck Arci several times after Mrs. J. Payne had rushed into the Lewis home crying that Arci was following her.

Holder of $510,000 In Bonds Arrested

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—With $510,000 in bonds of the Washington Arms hotel of Denver in his possession, Peter Jaeger, a real estate broker, was taken into custody for questioning today after he complained that he had lost $1400 in a card game on a train en route here from Denver.

Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad detectives, after hearing Jaerger's plaint, summoned the police who found Jaerge, armed with a loaded revolver and in possession of the bonds which he explained had been turned over to him in Denver to be marketed in Chicago.

Although not questioning Jaerger's right to custody of the bonds, the police held him on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and telegraphed T. C. Jones, president of the Washington Arms Corporation of Denver.

Grand Canyon Party Watched For

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 28.—The period of waiting for the appearance of the Colorado river surveyors who are navigating the river through the Grand Canyon, began today at Diamond Creek, Ariz.

Roger W. Birdseye of the United States Geological Survey, which is conducting the charting voyage, believes, however, that the party will not arrive at Diamond Creek until after October 1, because of floods in the canyon.

Apprehension recently was felt for their safety by Arizona state officials when the Colorado went on a rampage.

Plight of Indians Is Told by Speaker

The plight of the American Indians in California was presented before the Oakland Business and Professional Women's club yesterday by Mrs. John W. Henderson. Mrs. Henderson accompanied her husband recently on a tour of the remote sections of the state, taken at the instance of the Indian board of co-operation.

According to the speaker but one third of the 210,000 Indians who inhabited California at the time gold was discovered now represent the various tribes. Ignorance of their status and disregard of their rights has resulted in injustice to them, Mrs. Henderson declared.

Mrs. Fred D. Keyser rendered a group of Indian songs.

Miss Alice Brookman was chairman of program, Miss Bird M. Wilson, first vice president, was the presiding officer.

Oswi King, Demon Penant Picker

DALLAS, Tex., Sept. 28.—(By United Press.)—As a picker of pennant winners, Oswin King, Dallas newspaperman, holds all known records in the southwest and probably in a lot of random territory throughout the country.

King, who conducts a column in the Dallas Journal under the nom de plume of "Uncle Jake," has picked the pennant winner of the Texas League for eight consecutive years.

"Uncle Jake" missed the National League winner only once—when Cincinnati won.

As for world's series, King has called the turn correctly every year except two. He chose the Yanks last year and had the Chicago White Sox the year of the famous scandal.

Dollar a Mile Fine Is Cure for Speeding

(By International News Service.)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 29.—"Sixty miles, $60," said C. F. Wilder, acting police judge here, in opening a drive against speeders. The highest fine assessed thus far is $35, but Birmingham police have been bringing in the speeders at a rate of more than 30 a day.

The speeder going over 40 miles an hour will be forced to change his lodging to the city jail until the expiration of his sentence, in addition to the dollar-a-mile fine, the judge said.

PARKS IN CEMETERY.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29.—Unused to cities that do not provide camp sites for motor tourists, David Miller, of Oakland, Cal., chose an abandoned cemetery here as an all-night resting place. Two policemen arrested him and he was fined $13.50 for disorderly conduct.

Squall Blows Load Of Oats Into Barn

(By International News Service.)

PARISH, N. Y., Sept. 29.—A whirlwind played a peculiar prank on the George Weaver farm.

A few minutes later a strong wind was blowing. A whirlwind, cone-shaped, resembling a small tornado, formed and struck the load of oats and carried the load into the barn, the doors being open.

When the whirlwind had spent its force Weaver went to the barn and pitched the oats into the loft.

Lightning Rips Off Steeple of Church

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 29.—One side of the steeple of a local church was ripped off in a freak electrical storm which swept Columbia, the lightning reaching down to peck at the tips of three buildings, but doing no great damage.

WIVES WARNED TO AID HUSBANDS BY OHIO PASTOR

Columbus Preacher Says One Must Be Prepared To Make Sacrifices.

(By International News Service.)

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 29.—"Don't be extravagant. Remember the husband usually works hard for every dollar he brings home. See that it is spent wisely," admonished Rev. August H. Knipping, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church here, sermonizing on the topic, "Don'ts for Married Women."

"Don't be untidy about your person or home," Rev. Dr. Knipping continued. "Let your social clubs, bridge parties and lodges get along without you if, by attending these functions, your home must suffer. Every man who supports his wife has a right to expect that she perform her duties in the home.

"Don't be forever nagging, scolding and complaining. If you have problems try to solve them yourself, for few husbands know anything about household affairs.

"Keep your troubles from your neighbors, and, above all, do not run to your mother with them.

"If you wish to come as you please, go as you please and do as you please; if you do not wish to live a restricted life, if you cannot make sacrifices, do not marry."

Band Plays French Anthem for Envoy

(By International News Service.)

ELYRIA, Sept. 29.—Myron T. Herrick, United States Ambassador to France, paid an unexpected visit to his boyhood home near Wellington. The crowd stood when he entered the grandstand at the Wellington Fair and the band immediately played the "Marseillaise." Herrick bowed in acknowledgment but did not make a speech.

Twenty-five fruit cars were blown from the Union Pacific tracks, street signs blown down and several houses unroofed at Bushnell, Neb., where the storm originated

GOVERNOR'S FOES APPEAL TO LAW IN KLAN WAR

Walton Extends Martial Law While Solons Wait Decision On Injunction.

BY UNITED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 28.—Petitions asking Governor J. C. Walton to order a military investigation into whippings of Rev T. J. Irwin, Presbyterian pastor of Lawton, were presented to the executive today by residents of Comanche county. The petition said that "hooded and masked mobs slugged, gagged, stripped and beat" Rev. Irwin and "left him by the roadside when he was thought dead."

Rev. Irwin first attractedy national attention when he preached the funeral sermon over Jake Hamon, Oklahoma political leader, slain by Clara Smith.

The petition asking the investigation says the masked mob ordered Rev. Irwin to "leave the state and never mention the name of Jake Hamon again."

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 28.—Governor J. C. Walton today faced two serious threats in his battle to prevent the Oklahoma legislature from meeting in extra session to start impeachment proceedings against him.

First is the special election set for Oct. 2 and held to be legal by the supreme court, at which voters of the state will ballot upon an initiative law which would permit the legislature to meet in a special session without call from the governor.

Second was the application for an injunction filed in thhe district court of Oklahoma county, which would prevent the military authorities mobilized by Governor Walton to "suppress insurrection and riot," from interfering with the proposed meeting.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 28.—The iron hand of the military descended today upon another county in Oklahoma as warning was given by Governor J. C. Walton that more stringent martial rule is in store for other sections if "invisible" government in the state can be put down in no other way.

Upon the appeal of more than a score of residents of Sulphur, the governor late last night ordered military occupation of Murray county where the civil authorities, some of whom are said to be controlled by the Ku Klux Klan, are charged with having neglected to prosecute persons responsible for numerous mob outrages.

Violence and bloodshed may result from the "deplorable conditions" existing in the county, the petitioners declared in asking for the establishment of rigid martial law. The persons and property of those not members of the Ku Klux Klan, they asserted, are unsafe under the the "reign of klan officers."

Early today, at the executive mansion, Governor Walton declared there will be no end to military rule in the State until mob violence and masked depredations cease.

"Martial law is being tightened instead of loosened," he said, in denying rumors that a modification of military regulations is in prospect.

A legal fight to determine whether they are empowered to hold a special session without a call from the governor was started late yesterday by the 67 members of the lower house of the State Legislature.

They applied in district court here for an injunction to restrain National Guardsmen from interfering with meetings of the house. Agreeing to essay no further action until a final decision, but pleding to convene again on call if the ruling is in their favor, the logislators were returning to the homes today to await the outcome of the court battle.

Hearing on the petition for injunction was set for next Tuesday.

At Tecumseh today Homer Mc-Keown, grand cyclops of the Ku Klux Klan at Maude, Okla., is being tried in the superior court on a charge of contempt of court.

The grand cyclops and W. W. Price, both of whom are prominent Maude business men, were arrested late yesterday after refusing to testify before a military court of inquiry in connection with the flogging of a school teacher at Maude in 1921. They had been implicated in the whipping by witnesses previously interrogated.

They were denied bail and spent the night in the county jail at Tecumseh.

RICHMOND, Sept. 28.—Funeral services for LeRoy Edward Cozine will be held tomorrow at 2:30 at St. John's Catholic church, El Cerrito. The remains will be at the family home, corner Sierra and San Pablo avenues. Cozine was killed in an automobile accident.

Cafe Man Held For Contempt of Court

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 28.—Inclo Ajuria, one of the owners of the Hotel Espanol, against which there is an injunction issued by the superior court, will be placed on trial at 2 p. m. tomorrow. Ajuria is facing a contempt of court charge growing out of a raid made by Police Officers Wemple and McAuliffe, who allege they found liquor in the hotel.

Ajuria and his partner, E. Urigilen, were arrested several months ago for violation of the dry law and an injunction issued against the hotel following the abatement proceedings commenced by District Attorney May Manwell. At that time both defendants put up bonds for $1000 each that they would live up to the terms made by the court and agreed no more liquor would be kept on the premises.

Pioneer Arrested For Owning Liquor

WOODLAND, Sept. 28. — Al Bounty, well known and pioneer resident of Woodland, was arrested yesterday by Sheriff J. W. Monroe on a charge of transporting liquors preferred against him by operatives of District Attorney George T. Kern's office. Enforcement officers have been on the trail of Bounty for the past three months. At midnight Wednesday he was seen to unload a two-gallon jug of jackass from an automobile and put it in the back yard

MY FAVORITE STORIES by IRVIN S. COBB

The Temperamental Hound-Dawg

About once in so often some impassioned partisan rises up in congress or elsewhere and accuses the majority party or the administration or somebody of bribery, corruption, fraud and incompetency, and announces his intention of smoking the scoundrels out. This type of person is especially numerous in presidential years but we have him other years, too.

A few years ago—it was in 1916, I believe—there was a prominent spellbinder on the Republican side who set forth upon his campaigning with the avowed intention of proving that wholesale Democratic stupidity at Washington had practically ruined the country and then, being challenged for facts to back up his accusation, was so shy of actual ammunition that for the moment he could point only to the instance of a petty officeholder, a hold-over from the Taft administration who, in alleged violation of civil service rules, had been ousted from his job to make room for a Wilson man. The incident reminded a friend of mine down south of a certain gifted hound dog which a certain Kentucky pioneer owned. He said to me:

"The old fellow used to tell me that when his father came out over the Wilderness Trail from North Carolina he brought with him the fastest, the best-bred, the keenest-nosed hound that had ever been seen in the infant settlements beyond the mountains. But the dog suffered from a temperamental defect, which militated against his success. At sunrise he would start out on his own hook after deer. He would jump a buck and run him for miles. When the buck was on the point of exhaustion the hound's nostrils would catch the taint in the air where a fox had crossed the trail, and he would instantly decide that, after all, the fox was what he had come for; and he would turn aside to pursue the fox. Perhaps an hour later, when the chase was growing warmer every minute, his keen nose would detect the presence of a rabbit, and he would go after the cottontail, with the inevitable result that by 4 o'clock in the afternoon that hound would be thirty or forty miles away from home, in a swamp, with a chipmunk treed!"

Is Love Blind? | Dorothy Dix | Says Parental Love Is the Only Unseeing Love

(Copyright, 1923)

Love Doesn't Demand Perfection—The Eyes of True Love See Faults as Well as Virtues—But Our Defects Only Endear Us the More

A WOMAN asks: "Do you have to think perfect in order to love them?"

HEAVENS, no! If love required perfection, none of us would either love or be loved.

Love isn't blind. It has X-ray eyes that see our every defect, but it sees them not as blemishes, but as some quaint characteristic that makes us dearer. The very essence of love consists in some one knowing us for exactly what we are, and loving us still.

IT pleases a woman to think that the man who loves her thinks her a raving beauty; that he thinks her figure a perfect thirty-six; that he is blind to the fact that she gets her complexion at the drug store, and that he never suspects that her permanent wave is the result of art and not the gift of God. She also likes to delude herself by believing that he thinks she has an angelic disposition, and is altogether too good and fine for this wicked world. Undoubtedly, in the days of courtship, her lover perjured himself like a gentleman and told her all these things that she was longing to hear. But the man knows at the time that he is lying, and the woman would know it, too, if she would permit herself to face the truth for a moment. For she is perfectly well aware that no man who had sense enough to be permitted abroad without a keeper could have such a delusion about her. No man, for even a passing glance, thinks a plain woman beautiful, nor a dull one brilliant, not a fat one thin, nor does he mistake a red-headed, snappy-eyed woman for a meek and patient Griselda. He doesn't love her for something she isn't, but for the thing she is. He sees the snub nose and the hay-colored hair; he knows that she isn't going to set the world on fire, and that many a time he is going to have to walk on eggs to keep from riling her.

BUT, all the same, there is something in her plain face that makes a greater hit with him than any living picture; something that soothes him in her unexciting babble; something that makes him feel he'd rather fight with her than live in peace with another woman.

That's the love of a man for a woman. Something that says: "With all thy faults I love thee still."

AND it's the same way with women. Probably no woman would ever get a husband if she didn't make some man think that she thought him General Pershing and Otis Skinner and Rudolph Valentino and Mr. Rockefeller and Solomon, all rolled into one, and that she couldn't find a fault in his whole make-up if she hunted for it with a microscope.

BUT that's press-agent stuff. That's campaign literature. There isn't a man living clever enough and subtle enough to fool a girl-baby while she is still in the cradle about what he is. Every woman has got the number of every man she has known for an hour, down to the last figure, and she knows him better than he will ever know himself.

DO you think that the bride who swears at the altar to take a man for better or worse believes that it is all better and no worse in hers? Not much. Do you think she thinks that some little, sawed-off, egotistical chap, who talks too much about himself, is a tall, modest, reserved hero? Not at all. She just doesn't care about how he looks to others because he looks good to her, and he can't bore her talking about himself because he's the one subject in the world she's the most interested in. And that's that.

WE DON'T demand perfection in those we love. We don't really want it. If you will look about you, you will see that it is not the good who are most loved; it is the poor, blundering sinners. It's the prodigals that we are always getting out the brass band and slaying the fatted calf for, not the austere saints.

And perhaps the reason for this is because we have no kinship, no fellowship with the faultless. We need forgiveness so often ourselves, that we love best those who are in our own class, and who also have a fellow-feeling for us because they likewise do not grade up too high.

THIS is why men and women seldom marry their ideals, and why we choose for friends "poor Fanny" or "poor Mary," who are always making ridiculous blunders, and "poor John" and "poor Tom," whom we are always pulling out of the holes they get themselves into, but whom we love better than we do better men and women.

THE only time when love is blind is when parents look at their children. Then, indeed, we see people afflicted with an astigmatism that renders them incapable of seeing the thing that is before their eyes.

WE see parental love so blind that it cannot behold in its offspring the faults that are patent to the world. We see parents who really believe homely girls beautiful; neglected girls belles; rusty little children with adenoids marvels of childish grace and fascination; who hear the music of the spheres in their children's screeching, and who see nothing but playful spirit in their children's destruction of your property.

IT IS because parental love is blind that fathers and mothers fail to see their children's faults and correct them, and so wreck many a life that might have been of use to the world.

It is only parental love that is blind. All other love sees and loves. But parental love loves without seeing. DOROTHY DIX.

GETTING A KICK.

Said—
Jazzbo Jones—
"This humdrum life is killing me—
This pecking golf balls o'er the lea—
This playing billiards at the club—
And two-bit auto poker games—
Might suit the old rheumatic dames—
Who have lost step—
But as for me I need some pep—
I'm bored to death with this dull life—
I long to step out from the strife—
And rear and tear—
And do things that will kink my hair—
For life will not last very long—
I'll make of it a rag-time song—
Come on—let's go—
I've got some passes to the show—
We'll get a kick—I never fail—
I would much rather be in jail—
Than linger here—
And fill my hide with flat root beer—
So we jumped in his big twin-six—
And started it to doing tricks—
R-O-O-o-o-o-t—T-o-o-oT—
We scared an old man half to death—
H-O-N-K—H-O-N-K—
We ran a poor dog out of breath—
The chickens flew in great alarm—
The cows stampeded on each farm—
At each road-house we had some drinks—
We tried to hypnotize the jinx—
That fetters life—
Where man must journey with one wife—
At night we stopped where rag-time swayed—
And on our senses made a raid—
And here we pranced with dives and whirls—
Enmeshed within the arms of girls—
Who had forgot their mother's prayers—
Whose feet were tangled in Life's snares—
And when day dawned on sleepless night—
On folly's wings we took our flight—
More drinks—more rag-time music—then
There came the pall that comes to men—
Who seek to make the eagle scream—
And think life is a red-eyed dream—
Soon standing in a farm house door—
A white-haired man with years four-score—
He asked us in—gave humble fare—
And talked with wisdom very rare—
We sat with him by noisy brooks—
We lolled within deep-shaded nooks—
He named each diamond star at night—
And told us why the birds took flight—
At evening when no sounds were heard—
He read from out the Master's Word—
And ere we climbed the farmhouse stair—
Both me and Jazzbo knelt in prayer—
From out sound sleep each morning rare—
We heard the song birds fill the air—
Somehow the plan of this old hick—
Gave both of us an awful kick.

Northerners who visit certain parts of the South and Southwest are sometimes amused by what they call Southern provincialisms. Among these are "we-uns" and "you-uns." As a matter of fact, the expressions are not strictly southern, but are used by those who live—or used to live—in the Alleghenies. The mountain population seems to be largely homogeneous, as if descended from a common stock.

The mountaineers have mingled little with the people of the lower country, and being isolated, have preserved some of the peculiarities of speech and customs brought from the mother country, which the rest of us have abandoned. "We-uns" is not even a true Americanism; it is common even now in Scotland, whence it was doubtless imported to our country by the Scotch immigrants.

Now the phrase is an ancient one. It may be found in Tyndale's New Testament, in Matthew 3:9 can be read:

"And see that we ons thinke not so saye in yourselves We have Abraham to our father."

As Tyndale's translation was printed in 1526, nearly 400 years ago, this expression has the prestige of age, and belonged to the language of our ancestors.

"I met Brown's wife last evening. She seemed to me to be a cold and indifferent sort of woman." "She isn't at all. She simply gave you the cold shoulder because you are the man Brown has been blaming it all on whenever he stayed out late.

The Adventures of Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy by Johnny Gruelle

Copyright by JOHNNY GRUELLE, All Rights Reserved.

RAGGEDY ANDY was so happy because he and Raggedy Ann and little Ned Gnome had been rescued from the two mean little old Witches by Percival Pig, he took his Wishing Stick and wished that they would soon find a nice ice cream soda water fountain.

And Percival Pig was so happy to be changed from a pig back into a nice clean boy again, he caught hold of Raggedy Ann's hand and raced with her through the woods in search of the ice cream soda water fountain.

It only took the Raggedys and little Ned Gnome and Percival a moment to come to a lovely ice cream soda water fountain, and when they reached there they found Percival's sister, Penelope Pig.

Penelope Pig was still a little pig girl, but Raggedy Andy wished for her to be changed from a pig into a nice clean little girl again.

This was a nice wish for Raggedy Andy to make, for long, long ago, Penelope had grown tired of being a pig and had wishes and wished she could be a nice clean little girl again.

"Thank you, Raggedy Andy," Penelope said. "I shall never make a pig out of myself again!"

So, the Raggedys and little Ned Gnome and Penelope and her brother Percival sat down beside the nice, lovely ice cream soda water fountain to enjoy themselves.

The soda water fountain was a magical soda water fountain.

It had been made a long time before by Betsy Bonnet String, but was still just as good as new.

The magical soda water fountain came in a fine spray right out of a crooked tree and at the side of the tree there was a place where you could get any flavor you might wish.

And at the other side of the tree was a place where you could get any flavor of ice cream you wished to match the flavor of the soda water.

So the Raggedys and little Ned Gnome and Percival and Penelope tried every flavor there, and that was eleventeen.

Magical ice cream soda water never gives anyone the stomach ache.

So Penelope and Percival did not make pigs of themselves when they had eleventeen ice cream sodas, for the could easily have drank ten more. But, would you believe it? Just as they had finished their ice cream sodas, who should come flying up but the two mean little old witches, Wanda and Winda Witch.

"Oh, dear!" Raggedy Ann said, when she saw them, "Now they will try and capture us again, I'll bet a nickel!"

"Let us run as fast as we can!" Raggedy Andy said.

"Do not run, Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy!" Wanda and Winda Witch cried when they saw what the Raggedys and little Ned Gnome intended doing. "We shall not chase you any more!"

So the Raggedys and little Ned Gnome sat there and the two Witches came and sat down beside them.

PENELOPE PIG WAS STILL A LITTLE PIG GIRL.

"These," said the epicure to the bright Philadelphia girl, "are snails. I suppose Philadelphia people don't eat them for fear of cannibalism." "Oh, no," was the answer; "it isn't that. We couldn't catch them."

The O. Henry Chair

Today's short story, by Ad Schuster

"IN ten minutes Apperson and Crayle will be here. Once more we will be all together." Sample looked over the group, nine men, and smiled. "It isn't every club that can draw out a full membership on its meetings. Perhaps it is because we meet but twice a year."

One of the members stirred uneasily as if hesitating to arouse unpleasant memories. "Not all," he said, "there can't all of us be present, unless . . . ." He let the sentence hang in the silence.

"Joe Cord!" Sample spoke slowly. "It is only right we think of him. Six years ago he was the life of the crowd right here in this room. Today nobody knows where he is." For the benefit of the two new members Sample explained. "Cord was born rich and always lived without working. When he lost his money he could not stand to face his old friends. He would go away, he said, and make money or fail, go somewhere where friends wouldn't pity and try to help. I think had he made good he would have come back, at least on meeting night."

Apperson and Crayle came together.

"Why not give the meeting a touch of the romantic or unusual. Let's look up a tramp, a down-and-out, and invite him in. We will give him a good dinner, perhaps hear his story and learn something. What do you say?"

"I say," it was Crayle who replied, "the candidate for honors is waiting for us on the corner."

The two stopped in front of a ragged and bearded man.

"Just the one I have been looking for," exclaimed Apperson taking the tramp's arm. "Do me a favor will you, old fellow. Come with us to a little dinner, give us some variety, move a new face and a new stomach up to the table."

The words "dinner" and "table" appealed to the stranger. He hesitated just a moment and fell in step.

The club stood the surprise nobly by greeting the stranger casually and directing him to a seat at the table. It was the place which had been reserved, out of sentiment, for Joe Cord. It was evident the man forced himself to eat slowly and sparingly, that he restrained the impulse to seize his food.

"He was starving," Crayle thought, and there were several who thought, at once, of slipping money into the man's coat which hung in the hall.

After dinner came the stories and the reminiscences. Each man told of his success or lack of success during the half year. Only of Joe Cord there was no word, for the club's precedent stood against anyone who would rob the dinner of its gaiety.

"And this is all of yer." The tramp spoke for the first time. He had broken the spell, brought to the surface the feeling each man had tried to conceal.

"There is one other, but he can't come tonight. Probably he will show up next meeting. We always expect him."

The tramp said nothing more and what the others said was labored. There was something like relief when the guest shoved back his chair and rose.

"I'm sure much obliged to you"; he said. "This was a great feed. I think I'll mosey along."

When the door closed the club members looked at one another.

"I am wondering," said Sample, and a chorus took it up.

"How many of us recognized from the first it was Joe, himself."

Around the fire it was a silent group. Joe Cord, the man who had come back thinking he would not be recognized, a tramp and down-and-out.

"If we could only do something! Confound his ornery pride. Think of sitting there looking at him and having to pretend we didn't know him."

The door of the room opened and Joe Cord entered. He was smooth-shaven now, the Joe Cord they had known of old.

"Gentlemen," he said motioning down an impulse at demonstration. "It was a sorry trick I played, but you stood the test." He reached in his pocket and pulled out the bills and coins which had been stuffed into the overcoat. "I on my feet and I came here from New York to meet with you. This noon I thought of the trick and the beard which was my pride helped." He smiled and stretched out his hands.

"I had a hard time of it for a while and learned something of life. If the members will allow I will propose a little fund and an extra chair that we might have a guest each meeting."

"We will call it the Joe Cord chair."

"No, you will all contribute. Call it something else. Why not O. Henry?"

THE "DIAMOND" GAME.

(All Rights Reserved.)

I'll tell you how I was gypped buying a diamond engagement ring.

I was about to get married, but didn't have the dough to buy the lady a spark. A bum down on Seventh street offered to sell me a stone that looked like the real thing. Now, I'm not a greenhorn. I know diamonds don't grow on bushes. But I thought maybe that bum had stolen or found the stone. It looked genuine. Maybe it was. He offered it to me for $25. And it was about half a carat.

Don't imagine I paid the fellow $25 off hand. If I was that kind of a sap, I wouldn't be writing you because I think that any boob who falls so easy deserves to lose.

I told the bum that if he'd let a reputable jeweler examine the stone, and the jeweler said it was genuine, I would buy it. That made him uneasy. He said something about getting throwed in the can if the bulls saw him hanging around uptown. He said he wanted the money quick.

"I can get real jack for this spark if I takes it to a hockshop," he told me; "but I'm scared they'll turn me up. Maybe they'll think I stole it."

I wanted that diamond. But I wouldn't buy it until I was sure it was genuine.

Finally I coaxed him to go with me to an uptown jeweler. He let me take the diamond inside while he waited on the street.

The jeweler pronounced the gem a diamond. It had several flaws in it, but even at that was worth $200, being blue white and half a carat in size.

When I joined the bum outside, he demanded the stone. I told him I would give him $25 for it. He said he had changed his mind. He didn't want to sell. Finally I gave him back the stone.

"I can get more money for it," he told me, wrapping it up in tissue paper and putting it into his watch pocket.

I raised my offer to $35 as we walked along. We went into a pool hall. He took the $35 and handed me out the diamond all wrapped up in tissue paper. I unwrapped it and let the light shine on it. The thing sparkled. I knew the girl would be proud of it.

I took it to a jeweler and ordered a white gold setting. The jeweler grinned at me in a funny way. Then he told me that the stone was glass.

I was mad. I rushed over to the jewelry store where they had said it was genuine. I showed it to the fellow who had appraised it. "That's not the stone you had when you were here before," he told me.

The bum had substituted on me. He had a glass imitation wrapped up in tissue paper in his watch pocket at the time he placed the real stone there. When he fished it out to give it to me in exchange for the $35 he simply made the substitution.

Of course, the fellow was not really a bum at all, but a clever swindler. CHARLEY S.

What Does Your Wife Do?

Geraldine's PAGE-EDITED BY JERRY, HERSELF

THE STRANGE FACTS AND FRANK WARNING LILLIAN GAVE MADGE.

There was absolute conviction in Lillian's voice as she told me of Allen Drake's belief that the name of the master mind behind the gigantic conspiracy against the government would startle the world. There was solemnity also, and I felt myself shivering a little at the stress noticeable in her voice.

My story had convinced her of Allen Drake's insight, I saw that, and I saw something else, also—that her acceptance of his theory had put a weight of worry upon her. Ever since Smith's capture she had been buoyantly sure of ultimate success in the brilliantly planned campaign which she, my father and Allen Drake were waging on behalf of the government against the deadly slimy conspiracy in which the man, Smith, had played so prominent a part. But the last half-hour had shattered her confidence, though characteristically, it had only strengthened her resolution.

"He is so powerful, then—this man?" I asked.

"His wealth is unlimited," she replied, "and his business and political connections are as numerous and as powerful as the tentacles of an octopus. And, though but one or two people beside those bleeding him, know it, he has but one aim in life—the overthrow of all existing forms of government.

"A DANGEROUS LEADER."

"He has cherished the idea for years until it has become a monomania with him." She leaned forward tensely. "There is no scheme so wild but finds its support in him, no schemer so blatant or vicious but can gain a hearing if he only sounds the note of revolt which this man wishes to hear. We, of the service, have known of him for years, the parlor anarchist type, you know." Lillian's voice fairly dripped scorn.

"I know," I agreed, for on several occasions I have been compelled to listen to the futile fulminations of the breed, and share Lillian's contemptuous resentment.

"But lately Allen has urged that the man is only sending up a smoke cloud by his silly parlor performances—he certainly has given a wonderful imitation of a doddering millionaire member of our most piffling imitation intelligentzia all these years—and that in reality he is a most able and dangerous leader of the scum, both native and that presented to us by our European neighbors.

LILLIAN'S PLAN.

"Allen says the man is drunk not only with the idea of world revolt, but with that more potent intoxication, the thought of himself as a world dictator. He has the ambitions and the ruthlessness of Wilhelm and Lenin rolled into one. And stranger things have happened than that his insane plans might come to fruition!"

I stared at her in frightened amazement.

"You don't mean that you won't be able to thwart him and bring him to justice?" I asked.

"I mean that there is some reason for this coming out into the open of people whom we thought running for their lives," she retorted. "It is all vague to me—I can't tell precisely what is up, but I have one of my hunches that things aren't going right. I'm going to talk to your father. It strikes me that he and I are needed down at headquarters, although we've had no summons. I think we'll beat it down to Allen and have a Big Chief pow-wow.

"I hate to leave you, though," she said, worriedly. "When will Dicky be home?"

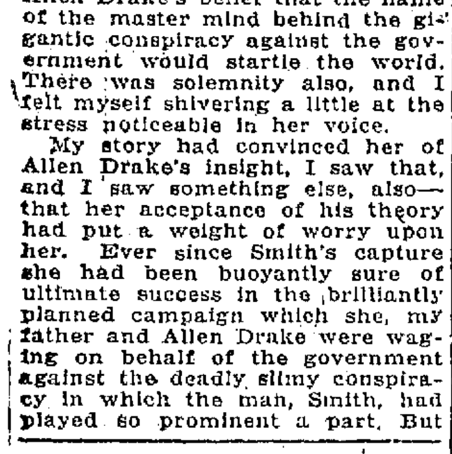

"In two days," I returned a trifle tremulously, for the seriousness of her mien had impressed me almost to the point of nervous fear.

"Then either your father or I will wait till he comes back," she said with decision.

"I'm not in swaddling clothes," I said, spiritedly.

"No, and I don't want to see you in grave clothes," Lillian retorted, "and that's where you'll be if either Grace Draper or Smith get their vile hands on you. Smith justly lays his undoing twice in succession to your ladyship, and the fact that you are to him that despised thing, a woman, makes him doubly venemous in his desire for revenge. And I don't need to point out to you the double-distilled poison Grace Draper's vicious soul holds for you."

[illegible]

There are plenty of platitudes spoken by pious or thoughtless souls, without the slightest realization of their meaning.

"There is no rest for the wicked," or "Honesty is the best policy."

They sound good, and when uttered at appropriate times make the speaker seem wise and discerning. But they are neither, for most of the people who say them do not realize WHY they are true.

THERE IS NO REST FOR THE WICKED, when the kicked KNOW that they're doing wrong and it's a poor policy to go on making unhappiness for yourself when YOU ARE ABLE TO STOP. Nobody forces you to cheat and lie or steal and nobody makes you suffer.

YOU ARE INVESTING IN FAKE STOCK AND THEN CRYING WHEN IT PAYS NO DIVIDENDS.

That is what this girl is doing. She wants sympathy, but sympathy would keep her on the same resigned track that "There is no rest for the wicked," and she'll have to pay.

Dear Jerry:

I am a really and truly heartbroken girl. My father just hates me and my mother despises me. What as I to do?

I lie to my mother and father just to get out of trouble. I go with the nicest boy that ever lived, but my mother and father don't know it, so I have to do it on the sly. My father doesn't want me to go with any boys at all, and he says that if he ever caught me out with them, he'd make me stay out and hunt for a place to sleep.

Honest, Jerry, it's misery, real misery. I have no real father and mother, but these people have raised me since I was three years old, and every time they get angry at me they spring that on me.

Well, Jerry, there's no rest for the wicked, is there? I guess I get no rest then. All I want, Jerry, is advice, Jerry. Advice.

From a Puzzled Girl.

You don't want my advise, little girl. You want me to say, "You poor abused little darling, what horrid parents you have. Just keep right on cheating and lying and going out with boys, even though you SOUND entirely too young to be 'going out with them.'"

But I won't say it, for IT'S NOT TRUE. You are playing a crooked game that will pay you nothing. You'll have no peace or happiness until you learn that "Honesty is the best policy," because of what it does to YOU. If you go out and steal a diamond ring, you'll go to jail. The law takes care of private property, but the law doesn't take care of your soul.

You are being paid for lying and cheating with hatred and suspicion. Doesn't that prove to you that YOUR investment is faulty?

I have no excuse for the METHOD used by your father to keep you safe at home. It is neither intelligent nor fair, but you are going him one better in your methods. He THINKS that he is doing the right thing by you. He feels that you are headstrong; he knows you are too young to "go out with boys." He realizes that he took you in his care when you were three years old and that he has fed and clothed you and watched over you until now. He WANTS TO KEEP YOU STRAIGHT, but he tried force instead of love.

Can't YOU see that YOU are making them bitter, making them feel that they are getting lying and cheating as payment for years of watchful care in babyhood and young girlhood?

Quit being a sneak, quit being YELLOW and see what YOU can do with love and fairness. "The nicest boy that ever lived" isn't worth the scars YOU ARE PUTTING ON YOUR OWN SOUL.

By this time, you're probably angry and saying to yourself, "Jerry gives her love to girls who have actually done BAD things, but she bawls me out and I am a GOOD girl."

I am giving you my love too, but more than that, I want you to see what a rotten thing it is to CHEAT and then feel resigned about it and say, "Oh, well, there is no rest for the wicked." For your sake I hope there isn't until you learn to EARN peace through being SQUARE.

It's a cinch there is no rest for me today with the following row brewing:

Dear Pal Jerry:

We are ardent readers of your page and have wanted to write to you for some time about the "long skirt" fad.

We both are high juniors in high school and think that our mothers are wrong when they object to our "ankle" length spirts.

When the skirts were short our mothers objected and now when they're long they still object to our keeping up with the fashions. What DO they want?

Dear Jerry, what would you do? Keep up with the styles or obey our mothers? Please answer this soon as we would like to know.

Sincerely,

PUZZLED PEGS.

Dear puzzled children, you'll get me in no family row. I've defended long skirts and short skirts, paint and powder, sin and wickedness until I'm almost a martyr. (Martyrs are usually dead, but I'm nearly one this bright morning.)

I'd suggest that you ask your mothers sweetly and gently whether or not THEY followed the ever-changing style when they were young.

I suspect that they cramped their waists and swished their skirts in the dust with the rest of the followers of fashion, and WORE FALSE CURLY BANGS!

Promise them in your most innocent manner that you will carry on THEIR examples when you are grown, and that you will always object to the length of THEIR grand-children's skirts, even as they are doing to you now.

I've an idea they'll throw up their hands and QUIT.

As for ME—the long skirts have covered more mistakes of nature than I thought existed.

I am not quite sure what the following letter is about. The writer has sent us other communications, showing a great love for her home and her children, but in spite of all this, having a very narrow viewpoint. Card playing was classed as a crime.

Gambling is as insidious a vice as a drug, but card playing is as harmless as "Nelly Bly."

It is carrying innocent enjoyments to extreme that brings disaster. We can gorge ourselves with food, drink more coffee than is good for us, but these faults are usually overlooked by the man or woman who is set on a more rigid enforcement of the laws of "goodness."

Dear Geraldine:

If success and society are the great issues of life, then you are right. But if you and I are Christians, we must take another viewpoint.

Please don't think I'm a fanatic, Geraldine, and don't think I'm mad at you; but I wonder whether you think that a real, live, "sure enough" fanatic would read The TRIBUNE and enjoy Geraldine's pages, and that's just what I do. For I agree with you in some things, oh, so heartily, and will gladly apologize, for playing cards is not in the same line with stealing, it was not my intention to express that thought. However, that and other follies and pastimes are stealing away precious hours, that leave the youth of today so little time for worthier things.

You and I, who hope we are Christians, have a wonderful example left us to follow. We dare not say "Am I my brother's keeper?" The Christian world has had a great awakening in the last few years but "society" is, to a great extent, still asleep.

There is a great whirlpool of destruction into which nations are liable to be drawn. How few have the time or the energy to investigate the causes and the remedies, and to seek wisdom from the great source.

The Book of Isaiah tells us why nations have risen and fallen, and many important truths concerning the latter days, in which we are doubtless living, but society has so little taste for such things. Among this number are our kindred, our playmates, our old school friends, for whom a strong childhood love yet clings to later years. Fellow citizens, many of whom are good hearted and well-meaning, yet lulled to slumber by the many pleasures, the luxuries, the pastimes. Oh, Geraldine, will you not help to awaken them?

The boy who creeps away and adventures behind his mother's back may feel the sting of conscience and return before danger overtakes him. He is bound to hear a quiet voice calling him. Alas for the lad who hears nothing. What will bring him home? For better a handicap to society and success than one to the greater issues. One boy will step inside of a church and hear a dear familiar song, that was sung in the old home, far away. Think what an appeal it must be. Alas for the lad who has not the old love of all that is good. Who is going to have the power to win him?

If you and I, who believe that we are Christians, can one day sit down to a great supper with those we love, on the brighter shore, and praise God for victory—that is the great issue.

We, who have said many goodbyes, know it. They who must one day say them, I hope they know. If not, they ought to seek earnestly and God will come to meet them.

HILLSIDE MOTHER.

My friend, I do honor your sincerity and the square way you argue your point, but I can't always agree. I have the feeling that you must have been raised in a very strict religious atmosphere where righteousness was the only virtue; where pleasure, if it grew young and riotous, was approaching sin.

My beliefs, I think, are as strong as yours, but I have learned that the happy home is the successful home. If your home is an "adventure" in unexpected surprises and joys, your boy won't sneak behind your back to explore. Goodness is not studying the "word" for a certain time each day. I believe that a man could live a Christian life who had never heard of the Bible or Christ. Does that sound sacrilegious to you? It is not. IT IS BELIEF IN GOD AND MAN.

You say, "one boy will step inside of a church and hear a dear, familiar song, that was sung in the old home far away. Think what an appeal it must be."

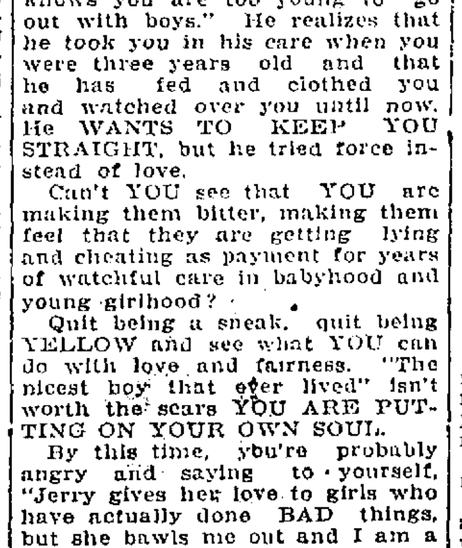

And I say, that a song that draws a boy towards his home—if that home was happy and fine—could be JAZZ and still have the same appeal. IT IS THE ASSOCIATION, NOT THE SONG. And that is the theme of my writings, the prayer of my heart to mothers and fathers. MAKE THE HOME ASSOCIATION SO APPEALING AND SO STRONG THAT YOUR YOUNGSTERS WON'T WANT TO STRAY TO THE POOL ROOM, OR THE SHEIK ON THE CORNER.

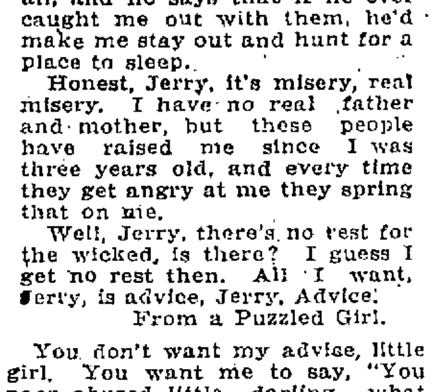

Are you still my friend? I want you.

THE FILM FLAPPER SAYS.
(Copyright, 1923.)

"I've seen a pre-view of 'Six Days,'" announced the Flapper, with a beaming smile. "You know that was one of the pictures I've been wanting and wanting to see, because it's the first that Corinne Griffith's done since she left the Vitagraph.

"She's more beautiful than ever, and she certainly can act. I believe that picture is going to make loads and loads of money, too, because it's a box office picture. She wears lovely clothes and wears them as few people beside Corinne Griffith can. And the picture's a love story, with an Elinor Glyn touch, very nicely handled.

"I'm dying to tell you the plot, but that wouldn't really be fair, would it? I can tell part of it, though—that it's the story of a beautiful girl whose father shoots himself because of the loss of his fortune, and whose mother is determined that the girl shall marry a very wealthy man and retrieve the family fortunes. So far it's old stuff, isn't it—plot number sixteen!

"But the girl falls in love with the son of an opera singer, who incidentally is the son of the man her mother wants her to marry. Then the girl goes to France to visit her brother's grave, and the young man follows her, and thhey and a priest are imprisoned in a dug-out when it caves in, and after that the plot thickens and thickens.

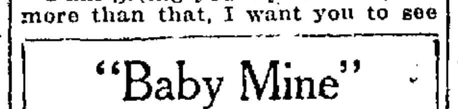

"Of course everything comes out beautifully, as you know all along that it's going to. But there's plenty of excitement while it's turning out.

"I don't feel that it gives Corinne Griffith the chance that she should have, somehow. I mean that you're just watching her suffer instead of suffering with her, though she has the ability to make you share her emotions. Whether this is the fault of the story or of the director I don't know; Charles Brabin is a very good director, and has handled this story so well that I don't feel that it's his, somehow.

"Of course, she's always been known as a very beautiful actress, and perhaps it's her beauty that stands in the way; until she can make people forget that, it's going to stand before everything else in their minds, I suppose.

"Maude George and Myrtle Stedman stand out above the rest of the cast, with the exception of Corinne. They're both excellent. I think it's the most satisfactory thing to see such roles as theirs so well done; women like that are really more interesting than many of the ingenues who are supposed to be the heroine of the pictures. Some day before long we'll have more pictures like 'The Famous Mrs. Fair,' featuring women like Myrtle Stedman and Hedda Hopper and Maude George and Mary Alden.

"Claude King is good in 'Six Days,' too. In fact, it's a fairly good picture throughout—and [illegible]

UNCLE WIGGILY AND BUNTY'S BALL.

"Uncle Wiggily! Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" called a voice behind the bunny rabbit gentleman, as he was hopping along the woodland path one morning.

"My gracious goodness! I hope this isn't the Fuzzy Fox or the Woozie Wolf after me so early!" thought Uncle Wiggily. But when he turned around he saw Baby Bunty, the little rabbit girl, hopping along.

"What's the matter, Baby Bunty?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "Are you afraid?" For she was hopping very fast.

"Yes, I—I am a little afraid," said Bunty.

"What are you afraid of?" asked Mr. Longears, for he could see nothing to frighten any one.

"I am afraid you won't give me five cents if I ask you for it; will you?" And Baby Bunty shyly looked down to see if she had lost any buttons off her lace shoes, but she hadn't, I'm glad to say.

"You're afraid I won't give you five cents," wonderingly repeated Uncle Wiggily. "But why should you want five cents, Bunty?"

"To buy a rubber ball to squirt water," answered the little rabbit girl. "If you give me five cents I can buy a rubber ball to squirt water right next to the hollow stump school and I'll have lots of fun."

"You wouldn't squirt water in school, would you, Baby Bunty?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"Oh, no! Of course not! Why, the very idea," gasped Baby Bunty. "If I did, the Lady Mouse Teacher would keep me in after school. Oh, no. I wouldn't do such a thing as that—never, never! never!" and Baby Bunty shook her head so hard that she nearly shook off her pink blue hair ribbon.

"All right then, here's the five cents to buy the rubber ball to squirt water," said Mr. Longears.

"Now I'm not afraid any more!" laughed Baby Bunty, as she skipped along to school. Uncle Wiggily stood watching her for a while, his pink nose twinkling sort of sideways, and then he hopped along to look for an adventure.

But adventures were rather scarce that morning, like hens' teeth you know, and after a while Uncle Wiggily said to himself:

"I think I'll hop along and visit the hollow stump school. The Lady Mouse Teacher is always glad to see me, and it will be just as well to take a look in and see that Baby Bunty isn't squirting her water rubber ball. If she did Teacher would blame me for giving Bunty the money to buy it."

Uncle Wiggily hopped along and along and along until he was at the hollow stump school, and then he hopped inside where the animal children were studying and reciting their lessons.

"Oh, good morning, Uncle Wiggily!" greeted the Lady Mouse Teacher. "We are very glad to see you; aren't we children?"

"Yes, teacher, we are very glad to see Uncle Wiggily!" said all the animal boys and girls together, like clocks ticking and tocking.

"Sit down in the chair on my platform," said the Lady Mouse Teacher, "and I will have the children sing a song for you, Uncle Wiggily."

So the rabbit gentleman sat down in the chair and the children sang.

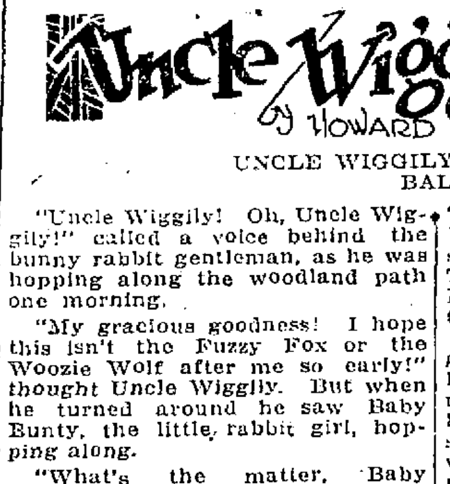

First they sang the song about "Once a Cheese Was Baited with a Piece of Trap," and after that they sang "Squinkle, Squinkle, Little Tar, I Love You No Matter How Black You Are." Both very pretty songs.

But, all the while, Uncle Wiggily was watching Baby Bunty, for he feared lest the little rabbit girl might squirt water from the rubber ball and so be kept in after school. But Baby seemed to be very good indeed. And once she pointed with her paw to the top of her desk, and Uncle Wiggily, looking, saw the rubber ball asleep there.

"I guess Bunty is going to be good and not squirt her ball," thought Mr. Longears. Then the Lady Mouse Teacher squeaked:

"Baby Bunty, you may now stand up near your desk and recite the little poem for your Uncle Wiggily." So Bunty recited about "Little Boy Red, Who Stood on His Head." It was a funny little verse.

Bunty made her final bow and sat down in her seat. And, as she did so, a stream of water squirted out and struck Floppy Twistytail, the piggie boy, right in the ear! Right in Floppy's ear squirted the water!

"Oh, wee! Wee! Squee! Squee!" howled Floppy. "Oh, Baby Bunty squirted water on me from her rubber ball!" he howled.

"Baby Bunty! Did you do that?" asked the Lady Mouse Teacher sadly.

"The worst has happened!" thought Uncle Wiggily, his pink nose trembling.

"Teacher, I didn't do it on purpose," said Baby Bunty. "My rubber ball, full of water, was on top of my desk. It rolled down on my seat and when I sat down I sat on the rubber ball, accidental like, and squashed it, and that made it squirt on Floppy."

"Oh, that's all right if it was an accident," kindly said the Lady Mouse. "But don't do it again, Bunty."

"No'm," said Bunty. And then all the other animal children laughed, and so did the little boy pig, for the water didn't hurt him, and so did the Lady Mouse and Uncle Wiggily.

"But I surely thought Bunty did it on purpose," said Mr. Longears to Nurse Jane that night.

"Maybe she did," laughed Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, "but I hardly think so; do you?" And if the poodle dog doesn't waggle his tail in the ink bottle and try to write his name on the wallpaper I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the late butterfly.

THE DUKE IN PADUCAH, KY.

The Duke of Orinoco was a geezer quite rococo;
Orinoco thought that Poca-hontas still was ruler here.
He came to Texas (Waco) to buy Indian tobacco,
And he found no lack o' backy, but a lack o' lager beer.
To Kentucky for his back went the Duke of Orinoco,
And he wore a blue peruke, O, he was certainly rococo.
Irvin Cobb, Kentucky's jokali, told the Duke of Orinoco
Many a "bokoo" joke about Topeka, chicken okra and paprica.
Orinoco smoked his hookah and he laughed till he went cuckoo;
Jealous editors in Waco printed pictures of the Duke of
"Orinoco, Who Went Loco in the Coco in Paducah."

Once upon a time there was a man whose name was Mr. Jones, one day he was found shot in bed but nobody knew who shot him. It was a funny thing. He had relations and one girl who was about nineteen years old and this girls name was May, there was a boy she loved, which was her sweetheart. One day while she was talking to her sweetheart about the father. He said I am going to find out who shot your father if I have to kill myself. So he thought were to go. He went to some lonely island. While he was exploring he heard a shot he turned around just in time to see a man in white run. This was enough he took his horse and went down where the man was shot but he wasn't there that was funny too. He began to think at last an idea came to his head. But while he was thinking someone shot him and he fell down a big husky man came over and thought he was dead and said aloud ha. ha, I killed your sweethearts father and now your gone he jumped up and gave the guy such a crack in the nose, that he knocked him out. He had husky laid in the coffin and buried he went home to his sweetheart and lived high.

"ONLY AN AMERICAN."

A transport was crossing the English Channel full of Frenchmen going to the front.

Jean Laboise was a captain and the soldiers all liked him. A major asked Laboise who the lonely looking man at the bulwarks was. Laboise said:

"He's only an American."

Thus satisfied the major moved off. The American spoken of was going to fight the Germans because he was angry at the way they treated the peasants of Belgium and France. His name was Elford Rainers, and he lived in Ferndale, California.

When the soldiers landed in France they were sent to defend the cities and towns from the Germans. One day while they were attacking a German fort, Captain Laboise said that if they could put some bombs under the fort it would wreck it. No one wanted to go as it was dangerous to go out into the open.

Mr. Rainers said he would try to get the bombs under the fort. The bombs were given to him and he proceeded on his journey across "No Man's Land." He got to the fort after being wounded in half a dozen different places.

He deposited the bombs under the fort and timed them so they would blow up in ten minutes. He tried to go back to his trench but he could not, so he lay there half way between his foe and his friends. The next day he did not show up so a party went out to search for him. They found him lying dead with his face towards heaven. When the inspector brought his report to the headquarters, his report read like this:

Name: Elford Rainers.
Age: 27.
Birthplace: Ferndale, California.
Nationality: A brave and loyal American.

GILBERT'S HAPPINESS.

In a very busy corner of New York, a small lad was seen selling newspapers. His name was Gilbert. Now Gilbert was very poor, and lived in the slums of New York. He was trying, Oh, so very hard to sell his newspapers, but alas very few people stopped to buy poor Gilberts papers. Now and then he would stop to warm his hands by blowing on them. As he quietly slipped up a street, he caught the strong smell of a bakery. Oh! Was not that glorious? Where did it come from? He walked on further and finally caught sight of the bakery. As he gazingly looked at the fine pastry he thought that the proprietress was beckoning to him. No, he wasn't quite sure. He looked again. Yes, she was. So he very modestly stepped in. She said, "I am very busy and need an extra employer. Will you help me? Gilbert needed no coaxing. He readily took the job. About ten o'clock p. m. the proprietress said she was going out and was going to leave him with her son. As soon as she was out of sight, her son stole up to the register and took ten dollars out of the till. He then made for the entrance and disappeared. Soon afterwards the proprietress returned and found that the ten dollars was missing. She blamed it on Gilbert and sent him out of the store with a box on his ear. Poor Gilbert's eyes were filled with tears. He started to cross the street when he saw a flash of light and then he was unconscious. He awoke to find himself in a hospital. Now he knew he had been knocked down by an automobile. A kind lady was leaning over him. She said "Little boy, you may have anything you want. What shall it be? Gilbert held his breath for a minute and then said, "I wish you to tell the proprietress of the Luther Bakery I didn't steal the $10 and second I want a real home! So poor little Gilbert was adopted by the lady and everything came out happy at the end.

THE ADVENTURES OF RAYMOND.
(PRIZE STORY.)

In a far away land there lived a boy named Raymond. He was visiting his grandmother, who lived near a forest, and one day he was making a new hutch for his pet rabbits.

After working for [illegible] that he needed some more nails and they were in the shed. Then he needed a hammer and he had to go to the cellar after it, and when he wanted a special piece of wood he had to go to the shed to get it.

"Grandmother," said Raymond, impatiently, "I wish I had an arm that would stretch a mile long and then shrink back to its natural size again; then I could just reach and get whatever I wanted without having to go after them so many times."

"Maybe it isn't so impossible as you think," said the grandmother.

"How could I ever get my arm to reach so far?" asked Raymond, and then his grandmother told him of the wishing tree in the forest.

"It is a queer kind of oak tree with stickers on the points of the leaves," she explained to him, "but it has magic power when the moon is full. It is then that you must ask its help and perhaps it may give you what you desire."

"And may I try sometime when the moon is full, grandmother?" asked Raymond.

"It is not for me to say," replied the old lady, "you had better ask your mother."

Raymond ran at once to his mother to ask if he could try to get his wish from the wishing tree and she told him that he might trry at the next full moon, at which Raymond fairly danced for joy.

A week passed and when Raymond found that it was nearly time for a full moon he started to make his plans. When he had about finished he heard his mother calling, "Raymond, Oh Raymond, it's time you were in bed."

"All right, mother," replied Raymond.

In the morning when Raymond was up and dressed he told his mother that it would be full moon that night. The day passed quickly and at five o'clock Raymond's mother made a lunch for him to take wit hhim and at six o'clock he kissed his mother and grandmother good-bye and started on his journey.

When Raymond had walked three hours without finding the wishing tree he became discouraged and thought he would turn around and go back home, but as he did so he spied a funny little dwarf who had fallen down in the middle of the road and hurt himself.

Raymond helped the dwarf to get up and gave him a drink of water and a sandwich from his lunch bag. After the dwarf had eaten and refreshed himself with the water he said to the boy: "You have been so kind to me that I shall be glad to answer any question you may wish to ask me."

"Do you know where the wishing tree is?" asked Raymond.

The dwarf told him just now to get to the wishing tree and then he disappeared. Raymond walked in the direction the dwarf had told him through the forest. The trees cast ghostly shadows and once in awhile an owl would hoot or there would be a rustling in the bushes, which frightened Raymond and he wished himself back home several times, but the thought of how much fun he could have and what a convenience a long arm would be, helped him to keep on until finally a turn in the path brought him to the wishing tree.

Here he made his wish for an arm a mile long and then started for home.

When he reached home everyone was in bed. He stole quietly up the stairs, went to bed and was soon fast asleep.

Of course he was very anxious to try out his long arm, so the next day he went to the sea shore. There was a boat about a mile off in the ocean. Raymond reached out with his long arm and grabbed hold of the mast and jumped over onto the boat without having to pay any fare. One of the sailors began to tease him, so he took hold of the sailor by his collar and with his long arm ducked him way out in the ocean. The sailor began kicking and kicking, until at last Raymond jerked him back to the boat so quickly that it nearly snapped his head off. This scared everybody else on nthe boat so much that they tried to be very nice to Raymond and then got him back on shore as soon as they could.

Some time later Raymond's mother wrote a letter to his aunt, telling her that Raymond was coming to visit her and was coming on the early morning stage coach. When the morning of the trip came Raymond was too late to catch the stage so he reached out his long arm, caught hold of a tree and pulled himself up to it. He kept doing this, each time reaching out his arm and pulling himself another mile until he had reached his aunt's house, and was very much surprised to find that he had beat the stage coach about three hours. Also he still had the money for his fare in his pocket. His aunt asked how he happened to get there so soon, but he only shook his head and laugehd. That afternoon his aunt told him that her kitten had run away and asked Raymond if he would help her to find it. He looked around the house for awhile but could not find it, and then his eyes set on a dot that seemed to be moving farther and farther away down the road. Raymond thought it must be the kitten, so he stretched out his long arm and picked it up and sure enough, it was the cat. He drew his arm back to its right place again and took the kitten into the house. His aunt was so surprised that he had to tell her all about his long arm.

The next day he went home again the same way he had come and gave back to his mother the money she had given him for his stage fare, which she told him to put in his bank to save for Christmas.

Raymond had many other exciting adventures, which I will tell you about some other time.

DIVISION HEAD AGAIN QUIZZED IN NAVY PROBE

Failure to Signal Ships of Command Is Point Before Destroyer Court.

NORTH ISLAND, SAN DIEGO, Sept. 28.—(By International News Service.)—Commander William S. Pye, in charge of the Thirty-first division of the ill-fated destroyer squadron that was partially lost on Honda Head with the drown of a score of bluejackets, was recalled to the stand this morning for cross-examination before the board of inquiry into the disaster.

Commander Pye's flagship, the Farragut, escaped with a jagged hole in her bottom, but two of his trailing units, the Fuller and the Chauncey, were lost beyond salvage. The court sharply questioned the commander regarding his failure to give radio and blinker light signals to his division.

The witness declared that the Delphy, squadron flagship, was signaling and that he feared additional signals would cause interference and confusion. Also, the Fuller and the Chauncey appeared to be in clear water 200 yards from the rocks when they crashed on a submerged reef, he testified.

There will be no session of the board tomorrow, Admiral Pratt said this morning.

R. SPRECKELS FOR 'SOUND' CAPITAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—"Men of wealth" were urged today by Rudolph Spreckels, speaking before the Exchange Club, to adopt a policy of "enlightened selfishness."

Spreckels himself is many times a millionaire.

"My doctrine is the doctrine of enlightened selfishness," he declared. "I have a big stake in the capitalist system and I want the system put on a sound foundation."

"When wealth becomes arrogant, arbitrary and vicious there will come a time when the masses, in their might, will rise up and confiscate it.

"I have fought with malefactors of great wealth, and I have been accused of being unfaithful to my class. I tell you that it is because I am more faithful than they that I have fought.

"Our fortunes would be more secure if they were enjoyed with the consent of the people who have the right to rule."

$3000 Relief Comes Despite Holdup Story

BERKELEY, Sept. 28.—Although reports from Los Angeles told of a daring holdup man who robbed the safe containing the money collected by students of the southern branch of the University of California for the Berkeley relief fund, a draft for $3000 was received at the university today. Several days ago W. W. Monahan, president of the student body, received a telegram from Les Cummings, head of the southern students, offering the money collected to the collegians who lost their homes in the fire. The same evening Monahan received word that the money had been stolen.

In California—all over the country—good cooks everywhere are now using Libby's Milk for cooking, coffee and baking.

There is a very definite reason why they prefer this particular kind of milk. 7½ teaspoons of butter fat in every 16 oz. can! And it's the very same butter fat that makes cream and butter such great enrichers.

Milk from selected herds in Humboldt County, California's finest dairy section, it is exceptionally rich to start with. But we make it double rich simply by evaporating more than half the water from it.

Then, by sealing it in air-tight cans and sterilizing it, we can bring it safely and economically to you wherever you live—the finest milk in the land.

Try these recipes from local good cooks who specify Libby's Milk. Try this richer milk in your own favorite recipes, in your coffee.

You'll see at once why it has become the milk that good cooks use. Greater richness, finer flavor—with economy.

EIGHT REMAIN IN PLAY FOR STATE GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

BERT ELLISON IS SIGNED BY OWNERS OF SEALS TO MANAGE THE CLUB FOR TWO SEASONS

Rudy Wilhelm Features Play At Del Monte

Jack Neville, Claremont Club Golfer, Sole Eastbay Entry Remaining.

DEL MONTE, Cal., Sept. 28.—Rudy Wilhelm, former Pacific Northwest champion, yesterday dashed the hopes of Clare Griswold, Oregon champion, of winning the California amateur golf title by defeating him in the second round of the championship tournament here today, 4 and 3.

The match was the feature of the day's play. A huge gallery followed the two Portland players over the Pebble Beach course and witnessed a quality of golf unexcelled, in the opinion of close followers of the game, in the history of the California meet.

INTERESTING PLAY.

So interesting was the match that the gallery insisted on the by-holes being played. Wilhelm shot the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth in par, making his score for the eighteen 69, which is a record, although not official.

The morning round between Wilhelm and Griswold was a forecast of the sensational play of the afternoon, and was featured by Griswold's uphill fight on the second nine when he overcame a handicap of three down at the turn and squared the match on the eighteenth.

Jack Neville, titleholder, after a nip and tuck battle with Harlow Hurley, former Kansas champion, won his way into the third round by virtue of an explosion shot from the bunker which found its way into the cup on the eighteenth green.

STINEMAN ELIMINATED.

Johnny McHugh of San Francisco eliminated G. H. Mullin of San Francisco, 4 and 3. George Ritchie, Northern California champion, put J. H. Stineman out of the running, 7 and 5.

C. E. Foley, who defeated Willie Hunter Wednesday in a surprise of the tournament, had an easy 7 and 6 victory over W. C. Ryan, and Fred Wright, of Los Angeles, conquered Guy Standifer of Seattle with comparative ease. W. W. Campbell eliminated F. D. Tatum, 7 and 6.

In the third round today Foley meets Neville and Edwards meets McHugh in the upper bracket, while Wilhelm and Wright and Campbell and Ritchie clash in the lower.

Dr. J. H. Stineman, the last Sequoyah representative in the championship flight, slipped badly over the first 18 holes in his match with the northern champion, Geo. Ritcie, and although he held the brilliant young Lincoln Park expert even over the concluding stages, could not recover the holes lost in the opening stages of the game.

J. Wadham Bruce Heathcote, Claremont, and L. S. Dunham, Sequoyah, are playing well in the fourth flight contest, while Dr. H. G. Meek, Sequoyah, and Stanley Forsman, Claremont, are in the semi-finals of the fifth flight.

COLTS BEAT FLORISTS.

The McDonald Colts trimmed the Hayashi Floral Co. by a score of 6 to 5 in a twelve-inning contest in which the hitting of D. Camara and Lewis featured.

Fighting Captain of Cards

Stanford football men are looking to a San Francisco boy, "SCOTCHY" CAMPBELL, to instill the necessary fight into the Card eleven to make a winning team. Campbell stands head and shoulders over the host of men working out for sheer fight and Coach Andy Kerr believes that the Card leader will prove the best quarterback on the Coast in this, his last year at Stanford.

CAMPBELL MAKES GOOD AS CARDINAL SKIPPER

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 28.—Football critics are now beginning to see why the 1922 Stanford varsity selected Scotchy Campbell as its leader for this year. Campbell is a leader, a fighter, a ground-gainer, a quick thinker, a field general and a real football player.

The outstanding star of the last few scrimmages has been none other than the Card captain. He at present stands head and shoulders over his team mates in all departments of play except in passing and line-plunging. Ernie Nevers probably has him beaten there, but none can compare with the fighting, sturdy Scotchman when it comes to taking the ball at the receiving end.

Campbell has not only the responsibility of leading the Stanford varsity this season, but he knows he must vindicate himself in the eyes of skeptics who scoffed at his election. He must prove to the satisfaction of all concerned that his team mates made no mistake when they backed him as a leader. The fight against odds is the kind of a scrap that Campbell likes. It was easy enough to see when he was thrown into the backfield breach at the close of the season last year and rallied the Cards to their highest flights of real football. Campbell led every second half rally the Stanford team staged last year.

Barring a sudden change in attitude or an unexpected injury, there seems now to be no danger of a Stanford captain playing the bench. Even should Dick Lawson or some other candidate for quarterback prove too good to keep off the team, Campbell will go in at half. The Scotch captain of the Stanford varsity is a cinch.

FOR THE MAN WHO CARES

Beavers Are Whitewashed By W. Mails

Retires Side Without a Run After Filling Bags in Ninth Frame.

PORTLAND, Sept. 28.—Walter (Duster) Mails did a lot of high class pitching to shutout the Portland Beavers 3 to 0 here yesterday afternoon. The big southpaw allowed only four hits, but the ninth inning saw him in one of the tightest jams of his baseball career, as he filled the bags with none out by allowing Cox to double, hitting Brazil with a pitched ball, and walking Jones. Then he fanned Onslow, and Daley batting for Eckert, popped to the catcher and King fouled to LaFayette near first base to end the game. The fans gave the comedian southpaw a great ovation for the feat he accomplished.

Eckert pitched the full game for the Beavers and was touched for nine basehits. The Oaks did as in the opening game of the series, they potted their pitcher to a three-run lead in the first inning. Three hits by Cooper, Arlett and Baker, coupled with Eckert's error, a sacrifice and a walk to LaFayette did the work. After that Eckert pitched a good brand of ball and the Oaks could not do any scoring, but there was nothing for him to gain with Mails going so well and having a three-run lead to work with. The score:

New Row Looms With Browns-Urban Shocker

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 28.—A petition charging breach of contract and asking that Urban Shocker, star pitcher of the St. Louis Americans, be declared a free agent, was served late yesterday upon Bill Friel, business manager of the Browns, by Jerome F. Duggan, attorney for the pitcher.

Notice of the action was served on the Browns' management, coincident with the announcement that the recent suspension imposed on Shocker for alleged insubordination, had been lifted.

The petition alleges that the action of the club in several material points of the suspension has breached his contract and that the pitcher no longer is bound to the team.

Shocker's suspension grew out of his desire to have Mrs. Shocker accompany the Browns' team on the eastward trip. Club officials stated that this was in violation of a club rule which forbids a player's wife from accompanying him on a trip during the season.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—The Cleveland Indians went down to defeat to the Tigers in Detroit yesterday, 5 to 4, and the New York Yankees trimmed the Red Sox in Boston, 8 to 3.

In the National league, Pittsburgs lost to the Chicago Cubs, 8 to 2. The Pirates lost the game in the first inning, when three runs crossed the plate.

The Boston Braves defeated Philadelphia, 7 to 2, in Philadelphia, counting five runs in the fifth inning. Other teams were not scheduled.

BOECKEL CLOUTS HOMER.

President Heydler of the National league saw Tony Boeckel crash out a home run with two mates on base, putting Boston out in front of Philadelphia and enabling them to win the first game of the series, 7 to 2.

CIRCUIT FOR O'FARRELL.

Bob O'Farrell took a foothold on one of Earl Hamilton's fast ones and drove the ball over the left field screen for a homer. Two mates were on base at the time and the lead Chicago acquired was enough to beat Pittsburg in the first game of the farewell series.

MILLER HITS HOMER.

Hack Miller of the Cubs was assisted by Outfielder Cuyler of Pittsburgs in knocking out his 18th circuit drive of the season. The ball came on a swift bound to the former Nashville fly chaser and as he touched it with his glove the ball caromed off and went sailing into the bleachers.

YANKS LOSE AGAIN.

The New York Yankess are running into bad luck. They defeated Boston, 8 to 3, but lost Bob Meusel, when the slugging outfielder injured his left leg in sliding into home plate. He had to be carried off the field.

PIPP SPRAINS ANKLE.

When the Yankees arrived in Boston Wally Pipp stepped from the train and thinking there was a porter's step on the landing, missed his footing and sprained his ankle. He was unable to play. Both players are due for a visit to an X-ray specialist to learn the extent of their injuries.

TIGERS MAKE GAIN.

Detroit gained a game on Cleveland for second place honors in the American League race by downing Tris Speaker's tribe, 5 to 4. The Tiger victory places them within two games of the Indians for second place.

CHANCE FREE AGENT.

Frank Chance, veteran leader, will not pilot the Boston Americans next season, it was announced by Secretary Bob Quinn. Chance's contract expires this season, and he wanted to be free to sign with another major league club which contemplates a change in managership.

Gene Sarazen Beats Barnes At Pelham Bay

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Gene Sarazen, the black-haired youth, who stood the golfing world on its head in 1922 with his amazing game, stepped to the fore yesterday in the Professional Golfers' Association championship and won his way to the semi-finals over "Long Jim" Barnes. The match ended on the 36th hole.

Today, Sarazen, who won the professional and the open championships last year, will meet "Wee Bobby" Cruickshank, who triumphed yesterday in an extra hole match with William MacFarlane. Cruickshank won at the 39th.

In the other half of the semi-final Walter Hagen, victor over Fred McLeod of Washington, 5 up and 4, will play "Dapper George" McLean of the Grassy Sprain Club, Bronxville, whose uncanny putting eliminated Joe Kirkwood, the Australian, 5 and 4.

Ellison Made Seal Manager For Two Years

Transbay Club Owners Are Well Pleased With Way Bert Handles Men.

The owners of the San Francisco baseball club are so well pleased with the way that Bert Ellison stepped in and served as manager of the club when the late Jack Miller was forced to give up the job because of illness, they tendered the Seal a two-year contract to manage the club for the next two seasons, and it looked so good to Bert that he signed it. Now the contract is resting in the safe of the San Francisco club and that means one less worry in signing players next spring.

Ellison is said to be the youngest manager in Class A baseball, as he is only 27 years of age. He started his baseball career with the University of Arkansas and later coached the varsity team, after which he joined the Clinton club of Iowa in 1915. The following year saw him with Muscatine, in the same league, and then the Detroit Tigers grabbed him in the fall. He was farmed to the St. Paul club of the American Association and recalled in 1917, and stayed with the Tigers until he was sent to the Seals in the fall of 1911.

The new pilot of the Seals likes this section of the country and has made many friends since coming here and was more than glad to get the two-year contract. In fact it was quite a surprise to him and his admirers.

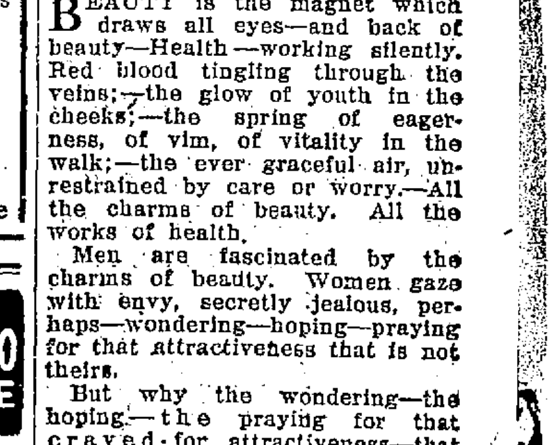

Jimmy Jones May Lose Boxing Title

Charles Foley Is Product of Claremont Club

CHARLES FOLEY, who has been performing so well in the Del Monte championship is a product of the Claremont links, and did not learn his game at Lincoln Park as has been generally reported. Foley's victim in yesterday's second round contest was another Claremonter, W. C. Ryan, who had to acknowledge defeat by a margin of 7-6 over 36 holes.

In defeating Sam Conlan in the first round Ryan performed as great a feat as Foley did in eliminating Willie Hunter. Jack Neville, the present holder of the championship is today paired with Foley, so once more Claremont experts are busily engaged eliminating each other.

Women to attract must

Radiate Health!

BEAUTY is the magnet which draws all eyes—and back of beauty—Health—working silently. Red blood tingling through the veins;—the glow of youth in the cheeks;—the spring of eagerness, of vim, of vitality in the walk;—the ever graceful air, unrestrained by care or worry.—All the charms of beauty. All the works of health.

Men are fascinated by the charms of beauty. Women gaze with envy, secretly jealous, perhaps—wondering—hoping—praying for that attractiveness that is not theirs.

But why the wondering—the hoping—the praying for that craved-for attractiveness—that beauty. Good looks is the barometer of one's condition. Good health radiates beauty. S. S. S. purifies the blood—creates new red blood cells—rids the system of impurities which make beauty and attractiveness impossible. As women to attract must radiate health so must they keep their systems free from impurities and their red blood cells ever increasing. S. S. S. does both.

S. S. S., since 1826, has been ridding the system of impurities—pimples, blackheads, boils, eczema and rheumatism—building red blood cells—aiding women to be attractive by radiating health. S. S. S. is made of carefully selected herbs and barks, scientifically prepared and proportioned. All good drug stores carry S. S. S. It is more economical to purchase the large size bottle.

CALIFORNIA WILL ENTERTAIN ST. MARY'S 11 TOMORROW

CRUICKSHANK, NOTED GOLF PROFESSIONAL, IS SIGNED TO WRITE ON GAME FOR TRIBUNE

SAINTS AND BRUINS ON EDGE FOR FIRST COLLEGIATE CONTEST

Good Football Unlikely in Opening Game at Berkeley; Smith Expected to Experiment, While Madigan's Men Will Make Effort to Score

If "Slip" Madigan at St. Mary's had half the material to work with that Andy Smith has running through signals on his second, third and goof teams at Berkeley tomorrow's opening collegiate football clash in these parts would assume an aspect of considerable importance.

As matters now stand the mass of the populace will turn out for one of two good reasons, with a third possible motive cast into the discard.

Not a few will attend to see just what Madigan has been able to do in three weeks with a mere handful of good, bad and indifferent material. More will go to pass inspection on the Bears and be equipped with a flock of talking points, favorable or otherwise, on California's chances of repeating for the year.

None are seriously figuring on going because of the high caliber of football which will be played. Early season games at best are uncertain. Seldom does good football result for stagefright unfamiliarity with signals, nervousness, and over anxiousness, all combine to cause a peculiar mixture.

More Than Passing Interest in Game.

However for all that to-morrow's game will have more than passing interest. Knowing that it will be necessary for Andy Smith to send newcomers on his 'varsity squad into action for experience the Bears can be figured to have their full strength in action for less than half the game.

Pitted against a team lacking experience St. Mary's will be able to wage a fairly equal battle offensively and will hold their own from a defensive standpoint once the veteran ground gainers of the Bruins seek the shelter of the showers.

Andy has long since given up the idea of large scores and it will occasion little surprise should the final count stand between 21 and 35 for the Bruins with St. Mary's chances of scoring a 50-50 proposition.

Tentative Lineups Given Out By Both.

Definite announcements from St. Mary's and California as to the starting line-up have not been forthcoming but few changes are anticipated from the elevens of both institutions which have been running through signals and engaging in final scrimmage practice all week, including yesterday afternoon.

Of the veterans who started last year's St. Mary's-California game only six will start to-morrow, two for St. Mary's and four for the Bruins.

Captain Tim Corrigan, who played tackle last year, will be at once guard with "Ducky" Grant at halfback for the Reds and Blue.

Wearing the Blue and Gold will be Nichols and Spalding at halves, the same pair as ast year, "Stew" Beam at one tackle and Jack Witter at fullback, having been moved back from tackle.

Neither Lacking Veteran Material.

Thus neither team has an entire lack of veterans and substitutes from both teams will be familiar to close followers of the game.

The probable line-ups:

ST. MARY'S	POS.	CALIFORNIA
Corigan (6)	L.E.	Hufford (28)
Jackson (10)	L.T.	Newmeyer (27)
Watson (12)	L.G.	Perry (34)

Young Carmen Is Winner Over Sacco

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 28.—Displaying an attack which seemed to bewilder his opponent, Young Carmen of California won easily from Jimmy Sacco of Boston last night.

Jimmy Rivers of Tacoma won a technical knockout from George Wells of San Francisco in the six round semi-wind-up. Rivers had Wells down for the count of seven in the fifth and after he rose forced him to the ropes where Wells seemingly decided it was a good place to quit. They fought at 155 pounds.

McManus Will Meet Tommy O'Leary Next

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 28.—Johnny McManus will fight Tommy O'Leary in the main event of the American Legion fight card to be staged at the Atkins theater here on Monday night, October 8, according to announcement made by Matchmaker Benny Wagner.

Wagner states he is lining up a fast card for the next fistic fiesta and he says the fans can rest assured they will get their money's worth.

Jerry Pearce Injured; Balks At Number One

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Sept. 28.—Jerry Pearce, one of Andy Smith's numerous candidates for end on the California 'varsity has uncovered a new jinx number.

Wearing No. 1 on his jersey in scrimmage early in the week Pearce sustained a damaged shoulder which threatens to keep him from scrimmage for a week or ten days.

Now Jerry is sporting a new jersey with No. 13, his own choice. "Never again for No. 1," said Jerry last night at practice.

Will Lead Bears Into Action

Playing his third season as a 'varsity halfback at the University of California, DON NICHOLS will lead the Blue and Goldeleven against St. Mary's College tomorrow afternoon in the opening collegiate grid clash of the season at Berkeley.

Nichols is one of the trickiest runners developed under Andy Smith in many years and is a constant menace in the backfield.

In addition to his other assets, Nichols is a clever passer and a born leader.

Under his direction the Bears hope to make it four straight years without a defeat.

Tufts and J. A. MacKenzie.

Will See Ruth In World's Series

Babe Ruth has been playing wonderful baseball this season. Now fans are eager to see what the big fellow will do in a world series. Ruth hasn't, so far, had much luck in post-season games. This may be his year. At any rate it will not be long before thousands of persons will be headed toward a ball park with the main idea of seeing what the Bambino can accomplish in his present form. And the Babe will make every effort to give them a run for their money.

Marysville Eleven Beats Alumni 32-7

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 28.—The Marysville high school eleven defeated the alumni of the school in a game of football played Wednesday afternoon by a score of 32 to 7. Hamm scored three touchdowns for the high school, while Gottwals shoved the ball over once and converted two tries for points.

San Diego Eleven To Meet Card Babes

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 28.—The Stanford first-year men meet the San Diego high school eleven tomorrow on the stadium turf.

Hunt has not announced a definite line-up, but says that he will probably start the following team and then try many substitutes:

'Varsity Looks Good Against The Freshmen

Raft of Quarter-backs in Fight for Regular Position.

By Duke Morrison.

Every time I see the Varsity going through their paces on California Field the stronger is my conviction that they are going to win another Pacific coast championship. On Wednesday the Varsity took the measure of the Frosh team in a very decided manner. Nothing but straight football was used from one end of the field to the other. The team work was noticeably better as well as the execution of the plays. In the Varsity backfield is where most of the scrap for positions will be this year. That is the scrap that will be the most interesting to the public. The poor Frosh were in a daze when they saw the Varsity backs breaking through their ranks for ten, twenty, and even forty yards at a time. Blewett, who subs for Witter, went like a wild man. Witter showed much improvement in advancing the ball on the offensive. He still will have to learn to run low if he is to get the maximum benefit of his tremendous power. He has a leg drive that resembles the drive of those large S. P. locomotives you see hauling freight over the mountains.

I can't see how Andy can say this man and that man will play on the first eleven. Dunn, Spalding, Dixon, Witter, Blewett and Nichols sure look like the best backfield man that any Varsity could boast of. Every one an individual star and all of them are learning fast about what it means to work together. They are for each other and always encouraging the other to do better and praise him when he does. That kind of spirit on any team is unbeatable. The quarters have shown considerable improvement in their calling of plays. The team seems to work as effectively under the direction of any of the four out for that position.

To those who delight in looking to the future, this year's yearlings will be one nice team from the showing in the scrimmage. Stanford and U. S. C. can boast about their all star freshmen but they have forgotten that California will have one much better. In the games Saturday it does not seem necessary to predict the outcome. California will win by a safe margin. After the game is on ice the reserve strength will get a work out. That is one of the purposes of a preliminary game.

Corn Huskers Star End Is Ineligible

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 28.—Fred Thomson, star end of the University of Nebraska football team today was declared ineligible from further participation in Missouri Valley athletics by the vote of colleges which make up the valley conference. Although he has not been a member of the football team for the past three years, it was said that he participated in other athletics and therefore is not eligible to play because of the three year rule.

Bobby Cruickshank to Give Golf Lessons to Beginners

ROBERT A. CRUICKSHANK, better known in the golfing world as "Bobby," runner up to Bobby Jones in the national championship this year at Inwood, losing the title only in the playoff after he had tied the Atlanta star, has joined The TRIBUNE staff and will contribute a series of articles on golf, beginning Sunday.

Cruickshank, himself a star of the first magnitude, is primarily interested in beginners and accordingly in the series of articles, which he calls "My Theory of Teaching Golf," he will address himself to those who are learning the game.

Cruickshank is probably better fitted to give straight from the shoulder advice than any other national golf celebrity today in the limelight, having risen from the ranks himself and fully appreciating the problems and difficulties of one learning the game.

Golfers who are availing themselves of the new municipal course to learn the rudiments of the game will find Cruickshank's articles most helpful.

WITH THE KNIGHTS of the GLOVES

BY BOB SHAND.

Speaking of his bout with Meehan Wednesday night, Johnson declared it was impossible to make a showing against the phat one. "They told me Meehan was the hardest man in the world to fight, but I thought if I nailed him good and hard in the first round I would make him forget his funny stuff. I nailed him and knocked him down, but still he kept coming in for more."

Ray Long is in town and may get a match with Jimmy Duffy at the auditorium next week. Johnny Farr and Midget Smith may appear on the same card.

Jack Doyle promised the winner of the Jim Tracey-Rocco Stragmalia bout a match with Johnson, and as Tracey won, he may get his block knocked off about one week from next Tuesday. Tracey's defeat of Stragmalia does not prove that the lanky Australian is good—it just goes to show how terrible the Stragmalia lad is as a fighter. They will need a stretcher for Tracey if they ever send him in against Johnson.

Final Selection Of Team Withheld

PASADENA, Cal., Sept. 28.—Selection of the team to represent the west in the East-vs.-West football contest here Jan. 1, against the eleven of the United States naval academy of Annapolis, Md., will be announced in November and probably will be made by the Pacific Coast conference, according to officials of the Tournament of Roses association, sponsors of the annual game.

Eighteen Class B Clubs Listed in Winter League

Managers of eighteen teams in the Spalding Class B League were present at the meeting last night and posted their forfeit money and were given contracts by Al. Erle who filled in as proxy in the absence of George Hans, who was called away on important business. Several other clubs have registered for class B berths and unless they post their forfeit money with Al. Erle by 5 o'clock next Saturday night, they will not be allowed membership in the league. Class B teams have until October 6 to sign players.

Jack Dempsey May Go Under the Knife

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 28.—No information was available here early today as to the exact nature of his "minor ailment" which Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, told newspapermen was "more of an aggravation than an ailment".

Dempsey came home yesterday and was greeted by a crowd of more than 500 persons. It was the first time he was ever given a reception by so many persons on his arrival here and he was visibly pleased with the welcome.

Friends of the champion said he did not look to be in the best of condition and Dempsey himself said this was true.

"I'm not in the best of shape," he said. "I am going to undergo a minor operation just as soon as I get rested up and then take a picture or two."

Lewis Is Coaching Sana Clara Preps

East Accepts Navy Team as Representative

If High-Class Western Opponent Is Found Game May Be Important.

By HENRY L. FARRELL.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Interesting and unusual games feature the 1923 football schedule, which gets its general introduction for the season tomorrow all over the country.

No game on the regular schedule promises to be of more national interest than the post-season contest announced between the navy eleven and the winner of the Pacific coast championship to be played at Pasadena on New Year's day.

In arranging this game, the California committee was fortunate in getting a team to represent the east that will be generally accepted here as a representative team. The navy will provide an eleven that will not only add to the color and spectacle of the classic but will represent the best football of the east.

The midshipmen should have a powerful one this year. It is possible, with their schedule, to establish a claim as good as that of any other eastern eleven for the championship of this section.

STIFF SCHEDULE.

The Navy plays Penn State, Princeton, Colgate, the Army and St. Xavier's from the middle west. Princeton and the Army both play Notre Dame and that will give a line on the Navy's class against middle western football. Colgate plays Ohio State and that game will give some comparison between the east and the western conference; the Army plays Yale and the Navy's game with the Army will give a line of dope on the "big three" as well as the Princeton game. The Army also plays four southern teams.

GRID SEASON OPENS.

The south, which is making a most extensive invasion of foreign territory this season, sends Tennessee to West Point tomorrow to play the cadets in the first intersectional game of the season.

In the east, Pennsylvania opens the season with Franklin and Marshall; Pittsburgh plays Bucknell; Penn State meet Lebanon Valley; Washington and Jefferson goes against Bethany and the Navy plays William and Mary.

In the middle west, Iowa has an interesting game with the Oklahoma Aggies; Chicago plays the Michigan Aggies and Notre Dame starts the season with Kalamazoo.

Stanford Athletes Favored by Ruling

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 28—Students of Stanford University, disqualified for low scholarship may now petition for readmission after three-quarters instead of waiting a whole calendar year, as the result of a new rule today by the Stanford Scholarship Committee President R. L. Wilbur announced. Football and track stars, disqualified last Christmas are now eligible to apply for reinstatement, under the ruling.

Experience has indicated that the disqualification for an entire year works a hardship on the student who is preparing for professional work, causing him to lose two years instead of one in some instances owing to alternation of courses, President Wilbur explained.

MODESTO, Sept. 28.—Claire Bromeo defeated Alex Tasloff, San Francisco, last night. Harry Scott won a decision over Baby Blue, colored.

Russians Denounced For Persecuting Jews

VIENNA, Sept. 28 (By Associated Press.)—The treatment of orthodox Jews in Russia drew forth a strong denunciation from Dr. Nathan Birnbaum of Hamburg at the recent congress here of Ahudas Jisroel.

"In Russia," the speaker said, "it has become a principle to suppress anything breathing a religious spirit. All believing men are persecuted. The synagogues are being closed and converted into workingmen's clubs. We do not desire to apportion political blame to anyone, nor to examine into how far the Soviet government is responsible for all these things. But Russia will not succeed in suppressing the living faith in God's presence, not even if they lock up all the Christians, all the Mohammedans and all the Jews."

ACTIVITIES of WOMEN

University Women Seek Peace Award

By EDNA B. KINARD.

The American Association of University Women is trying for the Edward Bok Peace Award. As a national body the declaration for such participation was made at the annual convention in Portland, Ore., this summer. San Francisco Bay branch has been asked to be prepared to vote for two suggestions vital in the national plan. A discussion of these plans with the presentation of suggestions will engage an important part of the afternoon luncheon program of the members at Hotel Oakland tomorrow. Mrs. William Palmer Lucas, chairman of the national committee, to prepare the plan which will be submitted from the university women, is a member of the San Francisco branch and leader for a course which is being offered by it this year giving "Immediate Background of Present International Problems." Tomorrow she will outline the task of framing the final plan which will be entered for the Bok Award.

The scope of the plan, according to announcement is defined as follows: "The winning plan must provide a practicable means whereby the United States can take its place and do its share toward preserving world peace, while not making compulsory the participation of the United States in European wars, if any such are, in the future, found unpreventable."

Professor John Adams of the University of London, who is a visiting professor in the department of education, University of California, will be the principal speaker before the clubwomen, following the October business session. Graduate Nurse Finds "The Perfect Remedy"

"From my long experience as a professional nurse, I do not hesitate to say, I consider Tanlac the most efficient and natural stomach medicine and tonic to be had. It is undoubtedly nature's most perfect remedy," is the far-reaching statement given out for publication, recently, by Mrs. I. A. Borden, 425 Pontius avenue, Seattle, Wash., a graduate of the National Temperance Hospital, Chicago.

"I have used Tanlac exclusively for seven years in the treatment of my charity patients," said Mrs. Borden, "and my experience has been that for keeping the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning properly, and for toning up the system in general, it has no equal.

"About a year ago I had a lady patient who could not keep a thing on her stomach fifteen minutes, not even water. I prevailed on her to try Tanlac and after the sixth bottle she could eat absolutely anything she wanted without the slightest bad after-effects.

"I had another patient who simply could not eat. I got him started on Tanlac and by the time he finished three bottles he was eating ravenously and able to work.

"These two instances are typical of the wonderful merits of the medicine. My confidence in Tanlac is unlimited."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Style Authority

THIS SEASON sensible shapes will be stylish, but new tannages of leather and new designs and patterns will make the new styles distinctive.

You'll find brogues with winged tips, and plain patterns and straight tips, with and without perforations, some with brass eyelets and others with blind eyelets.

You can select the black Norwegian or tan Scotch grain with double or single soles, and a new smooth plump mahogany calf skin, instead of the hard harsh cordovan so popular a year ago.

The six custom models illustrated above are drawn from the actual shoes, to give you an idea of the variety in the lasts, leathers and patterns in the Regal line for Fall 1923.

The purchasing power of a National institution, concentrating its entire factory production on One Quality, shipping direct to its own chain of stores from coast to coast, and selling all styles at One low price and One small profit, makes it possible to give you greater value and more style for less money.

Annette Underwear

Be sure to purchase by your actual bust measurement. The size is woven into the label of every Annette garment

Aside from the discomfort caused by poorly fitting underwear there is the matter of appearance even though the underwear may not be seen. The perfect fitting frock may lose its beautiful lines because of underwear that bunches up in the wrong places just because it had to be bought large enough to fit at some other point.

Annette Underwear

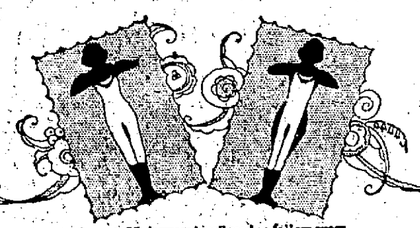

is tailored to fit perfectly. Unlike ordinary underwear which is shaped like a tube. "Annette" is curved to conform with the lines of the body. It is not stretched to fit. If a suit of "Annette" fits across the bust it will fit everywhere else—snugly but without binding. Neither will "Annette" sag, gap, or bunch up. There is a perfect fitting size for every figure.

Yours for comfort,

Annette

Annette Underwear is knit underwear sold by most dealers. It is made in both union suits and in separate garments and in varying weights. For Women, Children and Infants. If your dealer does not carry Annette, the manufacturer will see that you are supplied.

FAMOUS LUMBER, SHIP FIRM ENDS PARTNERSHIP

Sudden & Christensen Organization Change and Divide Holdings.

The old firm of Sudden & Christensen withdrew from the retail lumber trade of the coast yesterday and in the future this business will be conducted under the firm name of the Sudden-Heitman Lumber Company. The new company was formed from the old concern yesterday, with a capitalization of $2,500,000.

The old firm will remain in existence in the shipping business however. The division was decided upon by the widows of Edwin A. Christensen and Charles E. Sudden, the founders of the organization. The widow of Sudden is now Mrs. William Heitman. Her share of the old company was transferred to the new organization. Mrs. Christensen will remain head of the firm of Sudden and Christensen, and will also incorporate for $2,500,000.

In the division of properties Mrs. Heitman received three of the old firm's lumber schooners, the retail lumber yard at Sixteenth and Mariposa streets, and $1,000,000 cash. Mrs. Christensen retained three schooners, the mill interests of the firm in the north and all the shipping agencies.

The water, it is explained, slipped, when another motive power might have caused something to break.

BIG LUCKENBACH FREIGHTER HAS GENERAL CARGO

Large Vessel of Fleet Will Go North for Lumber, Canned Salmon.

The Walter Luckenbach, one of the larger freighters of the Luckenbach fleet, arrived at the Howard Terminal yesterday and commenced the discharge of a 3000-ton cargo of general merchandise. This consisted mainly of building steel, hardware and soda ash with a generous sprinkling of other goods consigned to Oakland merchants and business men.

The arrival of some of the larger vessels of the Luckenbach line might cause the assumption, from the miscellaneous nature of the cargoes poured from their holds, that a general movement of the merchandise house of the east had started for Oakland. Goods of practically every nature are now finding their way to port by the water routes.

After discharging her cargo in Oakland the Walter Luckenbach will proceed to the north to take aboard a shipment of lumber and canned salmon for the Atlantic coast. Following this she will return to Oakland to load California canned fruits and vegetables.

The Luckenback service is at present maintaining the fastest time betwene the Pacific and Atlantic coast ports. Twenty-one vessels compose the intercoastal fleet of the Luckenbach Steamship Company which is making the Howard Terminal their landing place in Oakland.

Largest Inland Steamer Launched

LORAIN, Ohio, Sept. 27.—The hull of the world's largest inland waterways passenger steamship was launched here at the yards of the American Shipbuilding Company, and, after the superstructure is built, engines installed and interior decorations completed, it will be put in service between Detroit and Buffalo.

The boat is the property of the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Company and is one of the two sister ships contracted for at a cost of $7,000,000. The second boat will be ready for launching in about three months.

The hull measures about 550 feet from bow to stern and is 100 feet wide in the center.

Lamport Holt Line Launches Big Liner

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 27.—Destined to take her place in the New York and River Plate service, the twin-screw steamer Voltaire has been launched by Messrs. Lamport and Holt here.

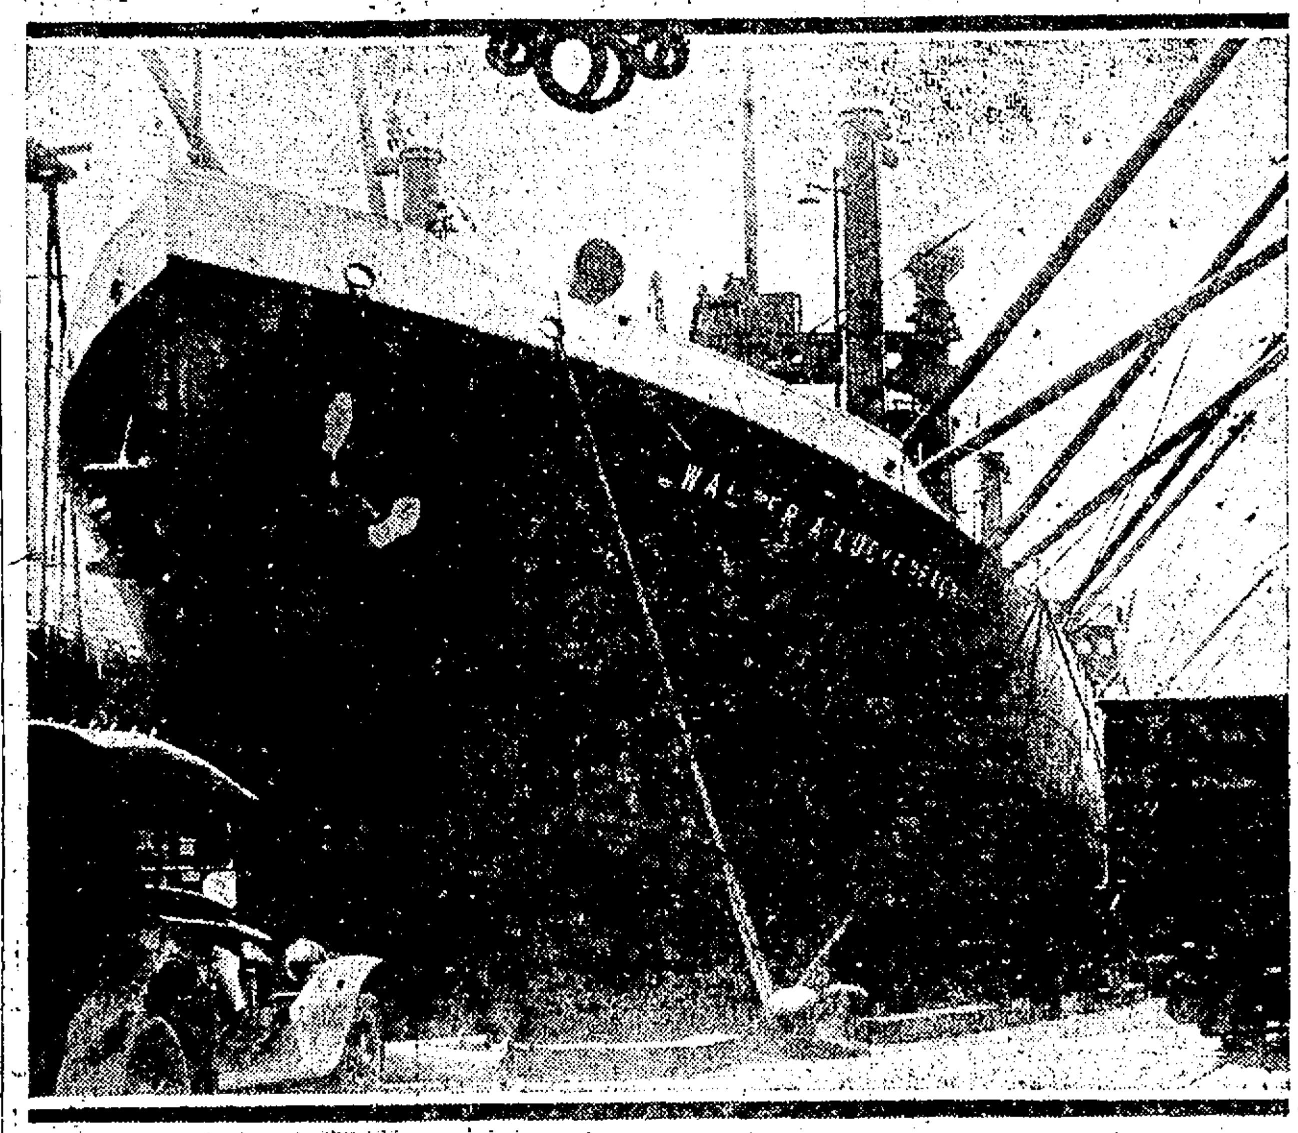

Of 19,200 tons, she is 526 feet long and over 64 feet wide, and will accommodate 680 passengers.

West Henshaw Sails With Gift Lumber

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Sept. 28.—The West Henshaw left here today for other sound ports carrying 1,000,000 feet of lumber for reconstruction in Japan, a gift from the Bloedel-Donovan, E. K. Wood and Earles Mills.

Walter Luckenbach Discharges Large Cargo

The freighter WALTER LUCKENBACH of the Luckenbach Line arrived at the Howard Terminal yesterday and commenced the discharge of a large general cargo. She will go north to load lumber and salmon and will then return for a shipment of canned fruit.

TEST BEING MADE IN RAISING SHEEP ON ALASKAN COAST

SEATTLE, Sept. 27.—Two thousand head of specially bred Oregon sheep destined to Chernofsky, Unalaska Island, are to be loaded on the Oduna here tomorrow. The sheep are to go aboard at low tide and will travel in pens built for them. Reports by Captain F. C. Dodge, district commander of the United States Coast Guard, indicated that the climate in the Aleutians is well adapted to sheep raising and two concerns are trying the experiment.

Captain O. Moukou, commander of the Norwegian steamship Golden Gate, which was built here and is on Grays Harbor, was a visitor in Seattle today from Hoquiam.

After five months cruising in the vicinity of the Alaskan archipelago, the coast guard cutter Haida arrived here last night. Lieutenant Commander J. F. Hottel, her commander, said that the weather in the Bristol Bay region this season had been the finest in many years. The Haida is expected to remain here several weeks before assignment for winter duty.

The Dog Watch

"What's the matter, Bill? You seem to have a cold" enquired Johnnie Morphy proprietor of the Tin Spoon, as Bill the Stevedore came in.

"Yes, I caught it from a dream," answered Bill. "Funniest dream I ever had."

"Bet he dreamt he went to work and then found there was nothin' to do after he got there," chimed in Panama Murphy.

"Nuthin' of th' kind," heatedly replied Bill. "I dreamed I was an inventor. I invented a ship with hinged smokestacks and masts what could pass under the Webster street bridge without slowin' down to wait for th' bridge to open up. Also above the water line it had rubber sides so when you reached the limit of an ordinary ship the sides would begin to stretch and you could crowd about three shiploads of cargo into her bloomin holds. It was a great success and all the other shipowners were jealous as could be. I called a big meetin' of the people to see what a wonderful ship I had. Chairman Farley of the shipboard was there. President Coolidge came and made me a speech on how I was savin' the merchant marine an' Mayor Davie was there wantin' to know if the Dons of Peralta's ships on Lake Merritt couldn't be made that way so as to keep them from floppin' over an' goin' out of commission.

"The jealous ship owners who had the other kind of boats were my undoin' however, for just as I was talkin' to President Coolidge about fittin' up all th' battleships as cargo carriers some of them begins loadin' that boat up with sand and cobblestones. I didn't notice it as my back was to th' ship. All at once th' sides began to bulge and th' next thing I knew they hit me right in th' back and I was shoved overboard into the bay. The cold water woke me up and then I discovered I had kicked all my covers off and had caught this cold. Give me something hot."

Puget Sound Is Sending Out Its Greatest Cargo

Ten Thousand Cases of Salmon to Australia in Swedish Vessel.

SEATTLE, Sept. 27.—The Swedish steamship Roxen, due next week, is expected to load the largest cargo taken on Puget Sound in many months. In the cargo loaded here by the Roxen, which is due on Grays Harbor tomorrow, will be 10,000 cases of canned salmon, the largest consignment of that commodity sent to Australia from Puget Sound this year. Two thousand measurement tons of box shooks and 800,000 feet of lumber are to be received at Tacoma and here. The goods are destined for Sydney, Melbourne and Adelaide.

The Hawaii Maru, in the service of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, which arrived here today and shifted to Tacoma, was at Kobe, en route from Shanghai, eight days after the earthquake catastrophe broke over Tokyo and Yokohama. Captain J. Suruga, master of the Hawaii, said that Kobe was then filled with refugees, many of whom had suffered terribly, but that the Japan government had the situation well in hand. The Hawaii brought 140 bales of raw silk, loaded at Kobe. She had fourteen steerage and nine first cabin passengers. Following withdrawal of the H. F. Alexander from the California route, effective next Monday, the Pacific Steamship company expects to add the Caracao and the Admiral Sebree to the service. It was said that the Admiral Schley might also be placed on the route. In this case the Admiral Evans, which on arrival here Tuesday will conclude service to Alaska for the season, will be placed on the Portland-California run. It is not expected that the schedule of the Ruth Alexander, Dorothy Alexander, Admiral Dewey and Admiral Farragut, which are on the California route, will be changed.

Blue Funnel Line Sends Big Ships To Get Apples

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 28.—The Blue Funnel liner Orestes has been ordered to come here in October and load a heavy shipment of Oregon apples in refrigeration for the United Kingdom, it was announced. The Orestes also will take out some wheat from this port.

After a season of operation in Coos Bay harbor the government dredge Colonel P. S. Miche has been ordered to the Columbia River and will put in several weeks deepening shoaled places. She is expected to arrive by the end of this week.

Repairs were completed today to the Japanese steamer Yonan Maru, which was damaged several weeks ago when she ran aground in the estuary of the Columbia river. The vessel will proceed at once to Astoria to re-load her lumber cargo which was discharged following the accident.

Bert E. Haney, commissioner of the U. S. Shipping Board, left here yesterday for San Francisco after a stay of several days in Oregon, and will proceed to Los Angeles for a conference with Meyer Lissner, the California member of the board.

The steamer West Jester is expected to arrive here by the end of this week from Puget Sound, where she has been in dry dock for cleaning. She will be loaded here with wheat for the Orient by the Columbia-Pacific Shipping Company.

The steamer Oregon Pine out of Port Allen since August 26, is expected daily at the mouth of the Columbia. The Oregon Pine is a home-owned vessel operated by Grant Smith and Company.

Matson Company To Build Speedy Passenger Ships

The Matson Navigation company is contemplating the construction of a new and fast liner for the Hawaiian Island service. Announcement to this effect was made last week in Honolulu by E. D. Tenney, president of the line. The new boat will make the run to the islands in the fast time of four and a half days as against the present, five days, 22 hours taken at present. She will have a passenger capacity of 500 and a cargo space for 2500 tons. She will also be an extra fare ship because of this fast speed.

Cargo brought from Hilo and Honolulu yesterday morning by the Matson Navigation liner Matsonia included 117,053 cases of canned pines, one of the largest pineapple cargoes this month to date; 47,746 bags of raw sugar for Crockett refinery, 2791 bunches of Hawaiian bananas, 137 tons of plunder, and other items.

The Matsonia also brought 116 cabin passengers from Honolulu. Among the prominent passengers were Frank P. Baldwin, manager of Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Co., on the island of Maui; A. L. Castle, Honolulu attorney; Howard Ransohoff, San Francisco business man, returning with his bride from a honeymoon trip to Hawaii; J. L. Neely, traffic manager of the U. S. Steel Products Co. of Pittsburgh, returning from a pleasure trip to the islands; S. W. Wilcox, sugar plantation owner of Lihue, island of Kauai, and others.

CALIFORNIA ON DIRECTORATE OF MINING CONGRESS

Selective Immigration Urged To Assure Steady Supply Of Labor.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 28 (By the Associated Press).—Six directors of the American Mining Congress, whose immediate duty will be to select the officers for 1924, were elected at the fourth general session of the annual convention here yesterday. They are: William J. Loring of California, representing the gold mining industry; Hugh Shirke, of Indiana, and J. G. Bradley, of West Virginia, representing the coal mining industry; Stanley A. Eason, of Idaho, representing the silver mining industry; L. S. Cates, of Utah, representing the copper mining industry, and F. Morse, of Ithaca, N. Y., representing the mining equipment interests.

Organization of the directorate and election of officers will take place late today.

Resolutions submitted to the committee which were reported today included those urging the congress to:

1—Go on record giving co-operation to any movement along transportation lines which will benefit the bituminous coal industry in the United States in its export trade.

2—Favor selective immigration, operative prior to embarkation, as will tend to increase the proportion of workers among aliens admitted to the United States, to the end that mining and other industries will have a better supply of labor.

3—Foster a concrete movement to bring about uniformity of all "blue sky" laws, so that every possible protection can be given investors; encourage the prospector and small operator to raise capital for initial development of mineral resources.

4—Oppose Federal legislation to fortify state "blue sky" laws of similar text and condemn the intent and purpose of the Denison "blue sky" bill.

5—Take court action to test the right of the treasury department to revoke allotments of silver for subsidiary coinage provided for by the Pittman act.

6—Support the movement for the organization of the silver export association and express the appreciation of the mining congress for the results achieved by the United States Senate commission on gold and silver inquiry.

7—Appoint a committee to investigate the gold situation and recommend such measures as seem best suited to protect the gold standard in the United States and throughout the world.

In the resolution to test the right of the treasury department to revoke allotments of silver for coinage under the Pittman Act, the proponents attacked the revocation.

Marshall & Co., Brokers, Fail For 2 Million

NEW YORK, Sept. 28 (United Press).—The failure of Robert P. Marshall & Co. of 71 Broadway was announced today from the rostrum of the New York Stock Exchange.

The firm as at present constituted was organized on July 18, 1919. It is comprised of William R. Simonds, member of the exchange, Robert P. Marshall, Clinton Graham and Francis B. Mallaby. It has no out-of-town connections.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed later, estimating liabilities at $2,000,000 and assets $2,340,000. James R. Sheffield was appointed receiver.

New Haven Expects September Surplus

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Latest traffic reports show that the New Haven will probably earn a surplus after charges during September, making the fifth consecutive month in which a margin over fixed charges have been earned. The present outlook is that a small excess will remain after charges for the balance of the year, but at present it is doubtful if the management will succeed in entirely overcoming the large operating deficit which was incurred during the first quarter. The September gross earnings of the system were adversely affected by the strike in the anthracite mines, which reduced the quantity of hard coal carried by the New Haven system. The tonnage thus lost, in all probability, will be regained during the last quarter of the year.

Hard Coal Prices Are Rising Steadily

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—Anthracite operators, having added the increased cost of mining to the price of coal at the mines, the sales companies and the wholesale and retail dealers appear each to have added a little more to the price to the consumer. Users of domestic sizes in this section therefore are being charged about "what the traffic will bear." Little hope is expressed here of obtaining early relief from government or state sources. The Pennsylvania legislature will not convene until January, 1924. The I. C. C. is expected here to act slowly in the matter of freight rate readjustments. It is expected, however, that in a few months independent operators will lower their prices at the mine to about the nevel now named by the larger companies. This should lower the average cost to retail dealers.

Wheat Growers Seeking Loans

ST. PAUL, Sept. 28.—Applications for short term loans received from Minnesota farmers by the new state rural credits bureau totaled $13,250,000 on the first of this month. "The largest demands came from counties where wheat is the chief crop. Less than $1,000,000 has been loaned so far.

BUSINESS and FINANCE

By H. S. SCOTT.

Explanation for Thursday's bad break in Jones Tea was afforded in the announcement at the opening of the New York Stock Exchange today of the failure of an exchange firm which had been identified with the financial management of the company.

This development had a depressive effect on the whole market. Jones Tea broke to 33, against a high of 44 in the previous session. Studebaker reacted 1¼ to 96½, and Baldwin 1⅜ to 113¾.

Prices held relatively steady during the second hour but trading was rather sluggish. Steady buying of tobacco shares, Lorilliard excepted, resulted in gains of 1 to 2½ points. A good inquiry also was noted for corn products, U. S. Alcohol, Davison Chemical and Inland Steel, up 3. The usual leaders moved within narrow limits. Explanation of the recent weakness of Jones Brothers' Tea was furnished by the failure of the stock exchange house Robert P. Marshall & Company, which was the second large stockholder. Selling of the Pan-American issues and Hartmann Corporation, the latter dropping 2⅛ points, failed to bring out any extensive liquidation elsewhere. Call money opened at 5¼ per cent.

There was scattered selling of railroad stocks, Northern Pacific, Pere Marquette, Pittsburgh & West Virginia, Ann Arbor preferred and Western Pacific common and preferred, falling 1 to 2 points. This was offset by steadily rising prices in other sections of the list. Gains of 1 to 2 points were registered by several of the oils, steels and sugars.

The closing was irregular, prices tapered off sharply in the final hours when American Woolen broke below 74 to a new low record for the year. Sales aggregated 650,000 shares.

Strength of railroad bonds featured the early trading. Advances of a point or more recorded in that group by Chicago & Alton 3½'s, New York, Westchester & Boston 4½'s, Seaboard Air Line adjustment 5's, and West Shore 4's. Rock Island general 4's declined nearly a point. Active U. S. government bonds were relatively firm. French issues receded, but the losses were small. Industrial liens were in supply, losses of a point or more being registered by Atlantic Fruit 7's certificates, American Writing Paper 6's and American Chain 6's.

DIAMOND MATCH NOT TO ISSUE NEW STOCK.

The Diamond Match Company will not issue any additional stock or create a new bond issue when the $4,863,000 7½ per cent debentures are retired on November 1, it was reported yesterday. It is anticipated that the issue will be taken care of through the cash resources. The balance sheet on June 30, 1923, showed a working capital of about $13,800,000, and as $4,750,000 of this was cash, the company should have little difficulty in retiring the debentures in November. The company earned $5.82 on the $16,965,100 capital stock in the first half year, and it is expected that earnings will continue at this rate.

AMERICAN WOOLEN NOT TO PASS ITS DIVIDEND.

Wall street yesterday received official denial of the report that the American Woolen Company was planning to pass its dividend or that it contemplated new financing, President Wood declared: "American Woolen has never passed its dividend. The company has no plans under way for any financing. Our business situation moves in sympathy with other lines of business. The weather has favored the retailers and that is a good omen. I continue to feel optimistic. What the future has in view is anyone's guess."

WALL STREET LOANS DOWN TO ABOUT $1,400,000,000.

Wall Street brokers' loans are now down to approximately $1,400,000,000, according to estimates made in well posted quarters. These figures show a shrinkage in the past month of $50,000,000 an from the maximum level of the year of $600,000,000. To a large extent this, according to bankers, is due to the enormous liquidation in oil securities. Brokers' money borrowings in February amounted to $2,000,000,000, the high point. Call money on the Stock Exchange yesterday did not get above 5 per cent and some loans were negotiated as low as 4½ per cent. Practically all the big banks appeared in the market in the early transactions as lender. Fixed late funds were also in heavier supply.

NORTHERN PACIFIC NOW FACING GOOD PROSPECTS.

The Northern Pacific System faces good prospects for the rest of the year, according to Charles Donnelly, president. Donnelly points out that operating expenses will be much smaller during the last six months of the year, owing to the fact that maintenance work was concentrated in the first half, so that net earnings will show a large measure of improvement. He said that westbound traffic was beginning to show an increase, although canal competition still was difficult to meet. He believes that the full 5 per cent dividend will be earned by the Northern Pacific without any disbursement at all being taken from the Northern Pacific Improvement Company, a subsidiary of Northern Pacific.

AMERICA SMELTING DUE TO EARN $10 ON COMMON.

Net earnings of American Smelting and Refining Co., for first half of 1923 show extraordinary recovery in metal mining in last 18 months, says Dow, Jones & Co. While great increase in net over first half of 1923 is quite impressive. Even more encouraging is the fact that first half of 1923 earnings show increase of over $1,000,000 compared with second half of 1922, when net after all charges was $4,092,220.

"Earnings for second half should be little, if any, less, than for first half of year, so far as can be seen, at present, for drop in metal prices will not affect company materially as its greatest income is from its smelting and refining of ores produced by other companies."

"Earnings for first eight months of year indicate prediction made several months ago that company will show somewhat better than $10 a share in 1923 earned on common after all charges will prove well founded."

RAILWAY SHOWING IS PLEASING INVESTORS.

The results achieved by the railroads to date are considered very gratifying in the fiancial community. Further data on hand showed that the railroad efficiency program is beginning to effect net earnings in a very noticeable way. In the first place, many roads facing unfavorable traffic conditions owing to agricultural depressions are able to cut their maintenance expenditures to abnormally low levels. Furthermore, it has become possible to carry an unprecedented traccif without those special sources of expenditure which have made such periods inthe past mean large operating deficits for man yof the carriers and a general low level of earning power.

The railroads will do better in August than they did in July, according to a number of executives who have been studying preliminary earnings figures of the carriers during the past few days, says the New York Journal of Commerce. It is their conclusion that maintenance expenses were materially lower on the whole during that month, and, therefore, the operating ratio was lower. Moreover, traffic was somewhat greater for the month, and there was less movement of empty cars to prepare for the grain movement. The adverse effect of the hard coal strike had not been felt in that month, although it may adversely affect to a small degree September income.

BUSINESS STABILITY IS GREATEST IN FIVE YEARS.

At no previous period in the last five years has the general situation i nthe United States been as stable as today. Business continues active and there is confidence in the outlook, says the National Bank of Commerce of New York. The advance in money rates which has taken place since the beginning of July is no greater than is to be expected as requirements for funds approach their autumn peak. Except where special factors affecting supply and demand are operative, the general price level shows no indication of radical change.

Considering the country as a whole, purchasing power is good and while consumers are disposed to buy carefully they are nevertheless purchasing steadily and in good volume. Production in most lines is being maintained at a fair rate with promise of the customary seasonal expansion. High wages, high prices of important raw materials are resistance to price advances on the part of consumers have combined to restrict profits in many industries, but this is a thoroughly sound situation. Business peril lies in easy profits. Rigid economy, improvement of methods and effective selling policies are all encouraged by the conditions now prevailing, and the result should be a continuance of prosperity.

RELIEF DECLARED NOT IN SIGHT IN OIL SITUATION

California Production Held Key to Problem by New York Brokers.

A year ago the outlook for oil was very favorable and prosperity was confidently believed to be assured for this branch of industry regardless of what trend general conditions might take. Dividends were being inaugurated, resumed and increased. This attitude spurred on drillers for oil everywhere, and production began to mount rapidly. Enormous quantities of oil were stored by the big companies in anticipation of a great scoop when oil became scarce, as was confidently predicted it would.

Now these same companies are reducing dividends or passing them altogether. Over-production has unsettled the entire market, says a review of the industry issued by J. S. Bache & Co. of New York.

OVERPRODUCTION IN U. S.

This is primarily laid to the immense increase in the California fields, which state now produces 870,000 barrels daily against 380,000 barrels daily this time a year ago, with no indication that the peak has been reached.

Meantime, production in other fields has also increased measurably. On September 1 the central Texas fields' average daily production was 261,550 barrels compared with 141,650 in 1922; Arkansas fields, 128,600 barrels daily compared with 30,000 barrels; Wyoming-Montana fields, 146,650 barrels compared with 81,400 barrels. Oklahoma and North Texas fields also showed increases, while the remainder of the United States' fields decreased slightly or about held their own.

Daily average production for the entire United States for the week ending September 2, amounted to 2,261,800 barrels, compared with 1,498,000 barrels for the corresponding week in 1922. When we consider that 1922 was a record year—production increasing 17½ per cent over 1921, the highest per cent of increase on record—the figures for 1923 are significant.

RELIEF NOT IN SIGHT.

"Present marketing condition will, no doubt, prevail until the California flush production wanes, or demand increases. Opinion is pretty well divided as to how soon California production will fall off, or whether it will fall off at all for a long time," says the review.

"In addition to the three great flush pools, there has recently been brought in another field known as the Redondo-Torrance field, which has been discussed very little, but which experts claim will prove to be another great reservoir of oil. Also, the California sands, between 4000 and 6000 feet, are now being explored, threatening to mark a new era in oil production in the United States. Quite a number of experts believe that the peak of oil production in California has not been passed. Then there are the Central and South American properties yet to be heard from, but which give indications of additional vast deposits of oil. It is, therefore, evident that if the world is to be flooded with cheap oil, the law of marginal costs will assert itself, principally in the item of transportation, and those producers who are handicapped, from a geographical standpoint, will have to suspend until market conditions right themselves, and many of them have already cut down drilling drastically. The recent flurry in the oil industry is said to have caused the laying off of 100,000 men in the mid-continent field.

THE OTHER SIDE.

"As bearing on this, a prominent oil executive is reported as stating that the prices now being paid for crude oil do not cover the cost of production except in perhaps 5000 out of 285,000 producing wells in the United States and that obviously such a condition cannot last. The New York Trust Company Index, in an article on oil, quotes such authorities as A. C. Bedford, who outlines the inevitable disagreeable results which will follow the present situation. He points out that nearly 30 per cent of the 400,000,000 barrels of Eastern gasoline-bearing crudes come from wells with a daily production of 10 barrels or less. The owners of this production cannot exist at present prices, and it is predicted that if these prices continue long, the small-well production will be permanently lost, with the result that high prices will come in the future when flush production declines."

Frisco August to Lead July Income

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The net earnings of the St. Louis & San Francisco railway for August will be somewhat larger than for July, according to preliminary estimates now at hand. The system will have an improving traffic record during the next few months, according to current indications, although the cotton traffic may be somewhat smaller. At the same time, the corn crop will furnish more freight than usual, the crop having shown up unusually favorable through the Southwest. The property is reported to be in good condition, and, according to all indications, will show satisfactory surplus over charges for the current fiscal year.

New Orleans Is Boosting Building

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 28.—The amount of building started and arranged for last month was the second largest on record. The total for 8 months of this year amounted to $10,500,000 as compared with $7,500,000 for the corresponding period of last year. Permits this month are fully maintaining the August rate.

FINANCIAL NOTES

Jesse W. Lillienthal, Jr., until recently vice-president of the Anglo & London-Paris National Bank, is now a partner in the firm of Strassburger & Co. He is the son of the late president of the United Railroads of San Francisco.

Kings Lake Shore Railroad Company, operating in Kings county, has applied to the Railroad Commission for authority to issue to Charles King, $51,400 of its capital stock at par, and $165,976.68 of its bonds at par, secured by trust deed to the Union Trust Company of San Francisco, in full payment of all claims held by King on account of construction of the said railroad line.

The Los Angeles Gas & Electric Corporation earned a balance of $80,320 for dividends and surplus during August as against $42,730 for August, 1922.

The issue of $1,000,000 Continental Gas and Electric Corporation twenty-five-year 6 per cent refunding mortgage bonds, due 1947, offered Wednesday morning by Cyrus Peirce & Co. and others, was sold out before the close of business, it was reported last night.

Southern California Edison reports net earnings for the year ended August 31, $10,982,000, an increase of 11 per cent over the last year. Company reduced fixed charge $750,000 or 19 per cent. Gross earnings increased 14 per cent to $19,0822,000 over same period. Balance, after charges were $7,720,000.

Original delivery of the California Petroleum Corporation's ten-year 6½ per cent sinking fund gold bonds, due October 1, 1933, is expected to be made Tuesday, in form of temporary bonds at the office of Blair & Co., Inc.

TOBACCO.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—The tobacco and cigar trade is very brisk here and chain tobacco store systems are seeking more shop locations.

TRADE RECOVERY IN PHILIPPINES CONTINUES SLOW

Better Weather Prospects Induce More Active Consumer Buying.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—A slight improvement in consumers' buying in the Philippines was noted the latter part of August, continuing the first of September, though credit conditions have not yet shown any improvement, Trade Commissioner Fowler cables the Department of Commerce. Banks have reported no increase in import bills and stocks are generally low in staples. Better weather conditions toward the close of the month were responsible for increased activity in the retail trade and a generally more hopeful attitude on the part of importers. Improved prices of copra and hemp and favorable sugar crop conditions have also added to the feeling of confidence but on the whole such improvement as has been shown is largely seasonable, due to the approach of good weather. Failures of two Chinese concerns occurred the latter part of August but the resumption of buying for the retail trade is strengthening confidence in the ability of other weak concerns to survive. Heavy rains which prevailed for most of the month kept building operations at a low level.

SUGAR CROP OUTLOOK.

Sugar conditions in Negros and Laguna provinces are excellent and central Luzon has been favored by good growing weather following heavy storms in July and the first part of August. Philippine cane is recovering beyond expectations and with a continuance of good growing conditions it is expected in local circles that the new crop will amount to 314,000 metric tons.

Copra prices have advanced steadily since the middle of August and remain strong because of a steady demand from local mills, which have resumed operations, and American and European buying.

PRICES OF RICE.

The Japanese disaster has stiffened rice prices and drawn upon spot stocks but it is not expected to affect import stocks materially. It is possible that floating stocks of flour and fish will be commandeered for relief work.

ORIENT SMOKING 12 BILLIONS OF U. S. CIGARETTES

National City Bank of N. Y.

Twelve billion American cigarettes, an average of a billion a month, passed out of the ports of the United States in the fiscal year just ended. Curiously, too, nearly all of them went to the Orient which produces half the tobacco of the world and has ample supplies of labor with which to turn it into form for use. While the whole world made the acquaintance of the American cigarette during the war period, it was in the Orient that its use ripened into a "habit" while the European habit of the war years proved only temporary.

Of the 12 billion cigarettes passing out of our ports in the fiscal year 1923 nearly 9 billion went to China alone, approximately 1 billion to the Straits Settlements and Dutch East Indies, and another billion to Siam, Hong Kong, Japan and the Philippine Islands, while Europe, which took 8 billion in the year following the war, took less than one-quarter of a billion in 1923.

Curiously, the American cigarette habit has developed in a section of the world which is itself a very large producer of tobacco, since out of a world production of 4 billion pounds a year India produces 1 billion, China a half billion and the other Oriental countries another half billion, indicating that half of the world's tobacco crop is grown in the Orient, which has despite that fact so enormously increased its takings of our cigarettes, until nine-tenths of our cigarette exports now go to the Orient.

This big increase in our exports of cigarettes to the Orient as a whole occurs chiefly in the shipments to China which totaled in number 641,000,000 in 1913, 6,702,000,000 in 1919, 8,507,000,000 in 1920, and 8,789,000,000 in the fiscal year 1923. The tremendous fall off in European demand for the cigarette is found in the fact that while England took nearly 2,000,000,000 in 1919, Belgium 3 billion, Italy 1 billion, Netherlands 1,300,000,000, and France 665 million, the total to Europe in 1923 is "negligible."

This exportation of cigarettes which has grown from 2 billion in 1913 to 13 billion in 1923 apparently represents about one-fifth of the total number of cigarettes manufactured in the United States, since official records at Washington put the total number of cigarettes manufactured in the United States in 1913 at 15½ billion, and in 1920 51½ billion, while the very latest advices from Washington put the total outturn of the manufacture of July at 5,839,000, suggesting that the total for the 12 months of the fiscal year 1923 was probably about 65 billion, of which we exported 13 billion, while the other 50 billion were presumably consumed by the

FARM PRODUCTS CLAIMED 22 P.C. ABOVE YEAR AGO

Former Secretary of Agriculture Tells Some Problems of Producers.

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 28.—Estimates by the Department of Agriculture "give every reason to believe that the 1926 farm income will exceed that of 1922, from a half billion to a billion dollars, which will mean an increased return of from $1 to $2 an acre," E. T. Meredith of Des Moines, former secretary of agriculture, said in an address here. "In my opinion," Mr. Meredith said, in speaking before the American Specialty Manufacturers' Association convention, "business will, therefore, continue at its present fair rate. The September 1, 1923, report of the Department of Agriculture, shows that the index finger of farm prices on that date stood 22.1 per cent higher than a year ago, and 25.5 per cent higher than two years ago."

Meredith exhibited charts to support assertions that American business is directly reliant upon the prosperity of the farmer in outlining various problems in which he said, the manufacturers ought to take an interest to promote the welfare of agriculture.

APPEAL FOR FARMER.

"Because the farmer is such an important factor in the nation," Meredith said, "you and I should take an active, honest interest in seeing that he gets a square deal and if there is too much of a load on him because of the methods of doing business in this country today, see that some of that load is removed."

Meredith cited some present agricultural problems he believed should concern the specialty manufacturer because their solution, he said, would mean more business. These problems are: The campaign to place better breeding stock on dairy farms to improve herds.

The barberry bush radiation campaign to eliminate black stem rust in wheat which, if successful, would add as much as 200,000,000 bushels a year to the American wheat crop.

FARM PROBLEMS.

Formation of boys' and girls' farm clubs among the 600,000 juveniles on the farms so that they can become proficient in farm and household work.

Efforts of farmers to maintain farm loan bonds tax free in opposition to an effort to make them taxable.

Aid for the farmers is in adjusting freight rates and taxation.

The cattle tick campaign now being waged in the south.

The boll weevil campaign to eliminate a $200,000,000 loss to the cotton crop of the south.

COMMODITY NEWS

ST. PAUL, Sept. 28.—Manufacturers of fur garments, mackinaws and other apparel reported today that their business was running 15 per cent ahead of last year.

GASOLINE.

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 28.—A general increase in the price of gasoline next month was predicted today by representatives of refining companies here. They declare that the surplus gasoline will soon be exhausted and look for an advance in crude oil prices.

COTTONSEED.

HOUSTON, Sept. 28.—Prices bid for cottonseed here have advanced $3 to $5 a ton in the last week. Seed is now bringing $40 to $45 a ton.

LEATHER.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—There is a more cheerful feeling in the sole leather trade here. Oak and union backs and bends are wanted at prices ranging from 47 cents for heavy steer backs to 35 cents for common cow backs; 20 to 22 cents for scoured bellies and 12 to 14 cents for heads. Belting butts are in good demand at 70 cents for No. 1.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 28.—The iron and steel scrap market is rather soft. As expected, buying movement has failed to materialize, and heavy melting scrap delivered in Pittsburgh is off 50 cents at $17.50 and $18.

FISH.

PORTLAND, Sept. 28.—The demand for canned salmon is very slack in the leading markets. No official opening price for Alaska salmon has been confirmed but actual sales are being made at about $2.25 for red talls, $2.65 for flats and $1.65 for half pounds.

FLOUR.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 28.—Local flour interests have notified the trade of a cut of 40 cent a barrel in the price of patent flour, but no change has been made in the price of bakers' flour offerings. The new list price of patent is $6.80 a barrel.

FLOUR.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 28.—A cut of 40 cents a barrel in local bakers flour and an advance of 20 cents a barrel for strong hard winter bakers flour went into effect today. Extreme prices asked for coast delivery of Montana hard wheat caused the advance.

LUMBER.

SEATTLE, Sept. 28.—A sharp reaction is shown in the last report of the mills of the West Coast Lumbermen's association for the week ending last Saturday. Production was 22 per cent above normal and new business 3 per cent below production with 109,306,929 feet turned out.

SHOES.

LYNN, Mass., Sept. 28.—Merchants associations here have appealed to the public to discourage the migration of shoes manufacturers owing to unsatisfactory labor conditions.

VAST TONNAGE IS BEING CARRIED ON GREAT LAKES

Little Fear of Fuel Famine This Winter, Report the Northwest Cities.

BY CONSOLIDATED PRESS SPECIAL TO TRIBUNE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—There is every indication that when navigation closes on December 14, this season will prove to have been one of the greatest in Great Lake shipping history from the point of freight tonnage moved. Conservative business men at lake ports today predicted that the total carried for the season would reach 107,000,000 tons. The highest tonnage reached in the last ten years was in 1916 when 117,000,000 tons were transported.

One prime factor in the healthiness of the shipping situation on the Great Lakes this year has been the large quantity of coal available for uplake movement. Until this week, anthracite has moved regularly from Lake Erie docks to terminals on Lake Superior, and other upper lake ports. There has been a slackening of coal shipments but this it is believed will not continue more than ten days. It has been caused by the short shutdown at the anthracite mines. Duluth business men declare that if there is no further interruption of shipments, the northwest will have full stocks for winter for the first time in several years.

The movement of iron ore is expected to reach a total of sixty million tons or 17,500,000 tons more than last year. The total coal movement is forecast as 25,000,000 tons as against 19,800,000 tons in 1922. The coal movement would have been even heavier if the high rates on ore had not made it more profitable in some instances to go up the lakes light and fast than to sail loaded heavily in both directions.

It is still too early to estimate closely the wheat movement. Fifteen million net tons of various grains were carried last year. If some agreement is reached soon in the controversy with the Canadian authorities over the requirement that American boats carrying Canadian grain make public their tariffs, the movement will be much heavier this year. Canadian shippers are making generous offers for space in American boats but so far only a few small craft have accepted this business. It is believed stone shipments this season will aggregate 7,000,000 tons.

While the Sault Ste. Marie locks will not close until December 14, the majority of the insurance contracts on lake shipping expire about December 4.

AUTO PRODUCTION HIGH.

Automobile manufacturers declared today there were plenty of indications that another bulge in car manufacturing is on the way. A maker of electric industrial trucks for interior factory use has been swamped with orders from Detroit manufacturers, indicating determination of the latter to increase output and income instances to enlarge factory buildings.

Employment in the motor plants is being maintained at about the average for the year and Ford officials report that dealers are clamoring for increased shipments. The only thing preventing higher production has been the slight difficulty experienced in getting materials into the plants fast enough.

Profits are said to be unprecedented for many of the companies and while further price readjustments would not be entirely unexpected, these would be more to increase the good will of the customers than to stimulate sales. Good will is expected to be a most valuable asset in view of the competition certain during the next few years, which is expected to eliminate fifty or more producers from the field. There are now about 140 companies producing passenger cars and statistics show that each year the business is being centralized more and more among the 15 or 20 larger manufacturers.

Reports from the Northwest indicate that September sales in the agricultural states are running from 25 to 100 per cent above those for September, 1922. Sales to farmers in exclusive grain producing districts are far higher than a year ago.

Cattle Are Sold Direct To Feeders

ATLANTIC, Iowa, Sept. 28 (The Associated Press).—Three thousand more Hereford range cattle from the north park region in Colorado will be sold direct to corn belt feeders yet this fall through the North Park Cattle Growers' association of Colorado, it was announced today after compilation of records of yesterday's sale of range cattle showed the experiment to have been a success.

Yesterday's sale was the first great attempt in the country to sell cattle direct to buyers. Agriculture experts say that the 1381 head of cattle sold brought an average of $55.66 a head for a total of $76,878.25. They say that while the prices obtained was advantageous to the range growers, scientific and intelligent feeding will make every deal a profitable one for the feeders.

Mining Men Ask Change in Taxes

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 28 (By the Associated Press).—That the revenue department of the federal government should realize the necessity of liberality in solving mining tax problems and the American Mining Congress should vigorously protest against the rapid crystalization of decisions by rules for which no one apparently is responsible, was the recommendation made by the national tax committee of the American Mining Congress in annual session here, by Wade Kurtz, New York, member of the American Institute of Accountants.

Handling Grain Is Too Costly Says Report

Federal Trade Body Presents Result of Probe to President.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The cost of handling grain can be and should be reduced, the federal trade commission said in a report submitted to President Coolidge, giving results of a study of the spread in prices between producer and the consumer.

An increase in the cooperative marketing of their own grain by farmers was recommended as one of the means most available for reducing the discrepancy and a reduction in freight rates and more direct shipments were suggested as desirable.

In 1919-1920, the report said the spread between producer and consumer of wheat averaged 41.20 cents a bushel, of which 14.31 cents went for transportation charges and 18.89 cents was taken by the middleman. From 1912 to 1917 the spread was 24.71 cents per bushel, 11.08 cents being paid for transportation and 13.63 for the middleman.

For handling corn in 1919-20, the report continued, 13.47 cents a bushel was paid for transportation and 4.33 cents was charged by the middleman, and from 1912 to 1917 the respective payments were 9.24 cents and 7.08 cents a bushel.

Oats, likewise, showed 9.22 cents a bushel for transportation in 1919-20 and 7.92 cents for the middleman, against figures of 6.57 cents and 7.81 cents in the period from 1912 to 1917.

Dissolution of Six Minute Ferry Asked

FAIRFIELD, Sept. 28.—Arthur H. Dranghon, May E. Dranghon, C. A. Pracht, Donald Munro and O. H. Klatt, representing a majority of the board of directors of the Six Minute Ferry Company, have filed a petition for the dissolution of the corporation, the hearing on the petition to be had on November 1.

The petition recites that the matter of dissolution was decided upon at a meeting called for that purpose last November in the Solots Hall at Vallejo.

Rains Near Sonora Benefit Cattlemen

SONORA, Sept. 28.—Cattlemen are greatly pleased with the recent heavy rains, which are calculated to start green feed much earlier than usual. They say the grass will make an excellent growth before killing frosts set in and that there will be more green feed on the lower ranges this winter than in many years. Next spring should see the ranges covered with tall hay, stockmen say.

Missouri Being Well Overhauled

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28.—When the present work on the permanent channel of the Missouri river is completed the river will be in better condition for steamboat navigation than ever before, according to government engineers. This channel is expected to result in boosting trade between St. Louis and Kansas City.

Prospects Bright At Brigham Young

PROVO, Utah, Sept. 28.—Practice for the 1923 football season has been started at the Brigham Young University at Provo, Utah, and Coach Alvin Twitchell expects his players to make a good showing in the Rocky Mountain Conference.

Last year's team is practically intact and in addition many stars of the 1922 Frosh eleven and new arrivals at college are anxious to appear on the gridiron.

The tentative B. Y. U. schedule follows:

September 29, University of Montana at Provo; October 13, Colorado Aggies at Fort Collins; October 20, University of Colorado at Boulder; October 27, University of Utah at Provo; November 3, Colorado State Normal at Provo; November 10, Utah Aggies at Provo; November 29, Colorado College at Colorado Springs.

Koenig Will Join St. Paul Ball Club

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 28.—Mark Koenig, Des Moines Western League third baseman, left last night for Indianapolis where he will join the St. Paul American Association club. Koenig, who is the property of the St. Paul club, has made 155 hits in 153 games for an average of .287. Charles "Chuck" Gorman, infielder who was previously sent to St. Paul, was barred from playing ball in the American Association because he is the property of the Vernon club of the Pacific Coast League.

Napa High Kickers To Tackle Diablo

The Diablo high school football team of Concord will meet the Napa high huskies at Concord tomorrow afternoon in a game which has attracted an unusual amount of interest in Northern California.

Last year Napa won by a narrow margin and the two teams, appearing to be evenly matched, should provide an excellent game.

Gopher Quarter Out for Season

MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 28.—The first serious injury of the 1923 gridiron season hit the University of Minnesota yesterday, when Bill Foote, a certain part-time regular at quarterback, suffered a severe compound fracture of a leg bone during scrimmage, putting him out for the rest of the season.

RACE IS AWARDED.

SALEM, Oregon, Sept. 28.—Because Driver George Tryon was declared by the judges to have swerved to the inside of the track on the home stretch in the 2:12 trot yesterday ahead of Driver Jack Keener, the race, a three in five heat event, was awarded to the horse D. J. Burke, driven by Keener of Lewiston, Montana.

Applications Flood Two New York Clubs

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Interest in the coming world's series has not slackened because of the prospects that the same teams, the New York Yankees and Giants, will battle for baseball supremacy for the third successive year, if advance ticket applications pouring into the offices of both clubs can be taken as proof. Executives of both organizations said today they were being flooded by requests for seats from all parts of the country.

Soccer Tilts Set For Eastbay Teams

A doubleheader will be played Sunday afternoon at the league soccer grounds at 45th and San Pablo, the Golden Gate Merchants being scheduled to clash with the U. S. J. kickers in the first game at 1 o'clock with the Virtus club and Sons of St. George furnishing the entertainment in the second contest starting at 3 o'clock. Both games are scheduled league contests.

Rangers to Meet British Veterans

The British Veterans will play their first game of the soccer season Sunday afternoon at Washington Park, Alameda, the Rangers being their scheduled opponents.

To replace D. Mackie, who has gone east, the British Veterans have elected Don Robertson vice-captain. C. H. Henson has been named manager of the club.

SINGLE MEN WIN.

The single men of the American-Hawaiian S. S. Co. trounced the married men by by a score of 9 to 7 at the Rolph playground in San Francisco. Remmers, hurling for the losers, fanned 16, but errors cost his team the game.

The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Single men	9	7	3
Married men	7	6	10

Batteries: Theiss and Murphy; Remmers and Kelly.

MEDIOCRE PROGRAM.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 28.—Four class events, mediocre in quality featured yesterday's grand Circuit card in which favorites were generally successful. Pale Face, an equal first choice with War Bride won the first two heats of the 2:17, pace which had thirteen starters.

MEADOWBROOKS WIN.

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The Meadowbrook polo team advanced in the Waterbury Cup contest yesterday by defeating the British army four in an extra chukker match, 10 to 9.

No polo games will be played today but two will be played Saturday.

Two Bids Tied for Woodland School Job

WOODLAND, Sept. 28.—Seven bids were received here yesterday for the construction of a new manual training and farm mechanics building to the Woodland high school, work upon which will begin just as soon as Architect W. H. Weeks of San Francisco modifies the plans to be within the $35,000 fund available for the work. Two local contractors, W. R. Fair and E. L. Younger, tied for the contract with bids of $41,000 each. The bid of either one or the other will be accepted. The new structure will be in re-inforced concrete and will be 222x80 feet in dimensions.

COMPLETION DELAYED.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Sept. 28.—Completion of the all age stake, concluding event of the annual meet of the Oregon field trial club, held on the Grand Mound course, near here, was prevented yesterday by darkness. It will be finished today.

RHEUMATIC PARALYTIC FOR YEARS NOW A WELL WOMAN

MRS. G. STAAFF

Oakland, Cal., Sept. 23, 1923.

For years I suffered so from Rheumatic Paralysis that I was unable to leave my bed. My hands and face were swollen and I had agonizing pains all over. My bladder and kidneys were in a terrible condition and I had pleurisy pain.

I had been treated by numerous medical men and had stayed in a hospital for manymonth s, but my condition was not at all improved. A friend having urged me to try the FONG WAN HERBS, my husband asked their herbalist to call on me. We bought and cooked some of the herbs at home, and my bladder and kidneys were relieverd almost immediately.

I took the herbs for about four months, and words cannot express my gratitude for my complete recovery. I am also happy to say that although I have taken no herbs at all during the past six months, I still remain well.

I gladly give my photo and this testimonial to the FONG WAN HERB CO. I know FONG WAN to be a straightforward business man who makes no vain boasts. I also know that he has relieved terrible cases of suffering. I have recommended numbers of persons to buy his herbs, and they have all been satisfied.

I live right here in the heart of Oakland. Anyone who really wishes to take the FONG WAN HERBS and would like to know more about how wonderfully the herbs have helped me, can obtain my address at hte FONG WAN OFFICE. MRS. G. STAAFF.

"ASK THE ENVELOPE" AND KNOW THE TRUTH ABOUT
HOWARD USED CARS
All the water isn't in the ocean—there's a mighty heap of "water" or "overhead" in the production of some makes of cars. Limited production makes costs high. Immense production makes manufacturing costs low. The USED CAR salesroom establishes motor car value quicker than anything else. A used car is only worth what it will bring. The USED CAR market strains off the "water" and reduces the car to its real honest-to-goodness value. Buick production is immense. Buick buying power is unlimited. Buick is the lowest priced, high grade car on the market. Used Buicks suffer less depreciation than other cars because Buick has no "water." Our used Buicks are priced according to "return mileage." You pay only for what you get—namely, SERVICE.

BEATING CHARGE MADE BY WIFE LEADS TO STILL

Woman Accuses Husband of Abuse at Party; Cache of Whisky Found.

A beating which James Ryan is alleged to have given his wife because of the attentions of a male guest at a party at their home last night, led to the discovery of a "bootleg" still in his basement by the police, and his arrest on a charge of violating the Wright law.

While Mrs. Ryan was visiting the police station in an effort to have her husband arrested, Ryan thrashed the male guest, who disappeared before the police arrived.

Mrs. Ryan appeared at the central station at 3:30 this morning and told Desk Sergeant George Caveney that her husband had severely beaten her at their home, 1430 Fifteenth avenue, and that she wanted him arrested. Several policemen were immediately sent to the place with Mrs. Ryan.

Meanwhile, however, members of the inspectors' bureau had been summoned by neighbors who had heard Mrs. Ryan's screams, and they forced their way into the house before the other detail of police arrived. There they found 60 gallons of corn whisky, and on searching the basement discovered a 30-gallon still and 10 gallons of mash, according to their report. They arrested Ryan on a double charge of battery and violating the Wright law. The arresting officers were Inspectors Tom Pardee and George Burbank, and Policeman Henry Villa.

Mrs. Ryan told the police that her husband had beaten her because of his jealousy of a male guest at the party. The only trace they could find of the male guest, however, was a trail of blood stains leading to a rear window.

Sleuths War on Drivers Storing Gas to Miss Tax

FIRE and police officials today issued a general warning lest citizens break the law by making big purchases of gasoline in advance of the State tax, which becomes operative on Monday.

"Citizens, we learn, are unconsciously breaking the law and creating a dangerous fire hazard," says Commissioner Colbourn.

The law allows the storage of only one gallon in a container in a building. Five gallons may be contained in a tank approved by the fire department. All larger amounts must be in a tank buried underground.

The fire-prevention bureau, however, has checked up on the situation and learned that thousands of citizens are buying gasoline by buckets and tubs. Some autoists are said to be storing as much as 50 gallons.

The police were notified today to "go after" folks storing gasoline in unauthorized containers.

PANTAGES WILL OPEN OCTOBER 28 WITH ROAD SHOW

As "Lurie," New Theater Will Give Oakland Best Stage Productions.

By WOOD SOANES.

Louis R. Lurie, millionaire showman and real estate broker of San Francisco, today assumed control of the Pantages theater which will be opened as the Lurie, a road show and attraction house, October 28.

The deal, consummated after long negotiation with the Loeb Realty company, owners of the property, involved thousands of dollars and gives Lurie the theater for a period of ten years.

Work will be started Monday on the remodeling and refurnishing of the theater and according to Lurie the sum of $30,000 will be expended prior to the opening.

In addition to the interior decorations and the changes in the stage equipment necessary to handle road shows on a proper scale Lurie will improve his lobby in order to exclude all noise from the auditorium of the theater.

WILL BAR NOISE.

This will be accommplished by the installation of storm doors at the Twelfth street entrance and a partition inside the present doors which a curtain hung during the ownership of Alexander Pantages who relinquished the theater in August.

In taking over the theater Lurie announced that he has completed arrangements with the Shuberts and Klaw and Erlanger, bookers of road shows in New York, whereby all of their attractions will be routed into Oakland for the next ten years. The ten year contract was secured two weeks ago by Lurie.

"For some time I have been observing the trend of affairs in Oakland," said Lurie today, "and I am convinced of the success of the community to such an extent that I feel that the money I am to expend in the city is money well spent.

"From now on the theatergoers of Oakland will not be faced with the necessity of going to San Francisco to view the road shows and will not be shamed by the advertisements 'This attraction does not play Oakland.'

FIRST-CLASS ATTRACTIONS.

"Oakland has proved in the past that it can support in royal style any first-class entertainment, but that it does not want to be fooled. It is my policy to play only the first-class attractions, those that are booked into the Curran and Columbia theaters in San Francisco and no "Second-raters" will be tolerated.

"During the dull season when we are not supplied with road shows I will book first class motion picture attractions into the theater and thus be in a position to supply the people of Oakland with 52 weeks of creditable entertainment each year of my regime.

"Because of my arrangements with the Shuberts and Klaw and Erlanger, I will be in a position to deal directly with them and will not be dependent upon local booking agents for my attractions. This has been one of the drawbacks of operating a road attraction theater in the past but will not obtain in the future."

WILL OPEN OCTOBER 28.

The theater will be opened on October 28 with "The Covered Wagon" and will play during this year such offerings as David Warfield in "The Merchant of Venice," the Greenwich Village Follies, "Lightnin'" and other big New York hits now on their way west. The engagement of "The Covered Wagon" will be limited to one week unless popular demand causes an extension of the time.

Lurie sold the lease of the Capitol theater in San Francisco last week to the Rothchild Entertainment Company and will acquire next year the Columbia theater from Gottlob and Marx. In addition to his theater activity he is prominent in real estate and construction circles along the Pacific Coast. At the present time he is building a chain of automobile stage stations between Calexico and Portland, a deal involving $4,000,000.

In charge of the Lurie will be John A. Brehany, one of the best known showmen on the Pacific Coast, who has been acting as Lurie's agent in the local negotiations. Brehany started on his theatrical career in Chicago with Lincoln J. Carter, the melodrama king, and also served with Wagenhals and Kemper, Oliver Morosco and Al Woods.

WAS GRIFFITH'S ASSOCIATE.

He went into the motion picture business with David Wark Griffith and handled the exploitation of "The Birth of a Nation," the first motion picture to be booked as a road attraction into the higher priced theaters. Brehany remained with Griffith until recently and is now connected with "The Hunchback of Notre Dame." He handled the exploitation of the H. A. Snow African pictures.

As business manager of the theater will be William R. McStay, who has been with Brehany for four years and is equally well known as a newspaper man, road show manager, press agent and exploitation director. McStay has been at the Capitol theater in San Francisco during the past season. He resides in Alameda.

Alien Is Accused Under New Gun Law

MERCED, Sept. 28.—Y. Guizman, a Mexican, already in the county jail, here under a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, has been held to answer to the Superior Court by Justice T. W. Pedigo of Livingston under the new law making it a felony for an alien to carry a concealed weapon. It is alleged that Guizman, who was employed at the Arakelian vineyard, near Livingston, went over to the adjoining American seedless vineyard and threatened the superintendent.

Reduce Your Fat Without Dieting

Years ago the formula for fat reduction was "diet"—"exercise." Today it is "Take Marmola Prescription Tablets." Friends tell friends, —these friends tell others. They eat substantial food, live as they like and still reduce steadily and easily without going through long sieges of tiresome exercise, starvation diet, and absurd creams and salves. Marmola Prescription Tablets are sold by all druggists the world over at one dollar for a case, or if you prefer you can order direct from the Marmola Co., 4012 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.—Advertisement.

The Best Medicine For Women

When Mr. Myers of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, stepped into the drug store and asked his druggist for the best medicine he had in his store for woman's ills, is it any wonder he was handed a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Mrs. L. K. Myers, in writing of it says: "I had been weak, run down and had a pain in my left side for a long time, so I could not do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me in a short time so I was able to do all of my housework, including washing and ironing, and now I feel fine all the time." As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for benefiting 98 women out of every 100 women who take it, it will pay every suffering woman to try it.—

It must not happen again!

SELDOM has a great catastrophe pointed its moral more unmistakably. The lessons of the Berkeley fire are written on walls of brick—the one building material that conspicuously went through the conflagration unscathed.

Scores of Berkeley people, standing among the ruins of their homes today, are planning to rebuild—but to rebuild with brick. They have seen building materials put to the supreme test—they see the brick walls and chimneys of Berkeley still standing—they are determined that it must not happen again!

When you build, insist on definite information regarding the cost of brick—demand comparative figures—consult a brick manufacturer—brick is cheaper today—don't consider using a substitute material until you know the facts.
